Financial and Commercial Affairs.

Money has been in active request during the week for speculative and mercantile purposes, and has been generally quite firm at the recent rise in the price of accommodation, sustained in good part by the continued outflow of currency for crop moving purposes, and by the advices from London of the higher range of loan and discount rates which, however, were modified somewhat toward the close. Call loans were quoted here at the close at 5@7, in most instances at 5@6 per cent, though leaving off at 4@6 per cent; and very choice to prime mercantile credits were rated at 7@9 per cent per annum for the best names. At these figures, the requirements of responsible borrowers were promptly met. The City bank exhibit of last week indicated a falling off in the loan and discount average of $241,800, and an increase in the item of circulation of $90,800. The average of deposits was further reduced $681,800. The legal tender reserve fell off $1,085,200; and the specie average was enlarged $538,600. The City bank net reserve of specie and legal tender notes now shows an excess over the legal requirement of reserve to liabilities of $8,114,200, as against $8,490,350 the preceding week. The City bank exchanges in currency reached $485,782,249, or a daily average of $80,968,375.

On Tuesday of this week the cash balances of the Treasury Department at Washington were: of Currency, $17,132,464; special deposit of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $45,680,000; Coin, $122,485,073, including of Coin certificates, $35,441,800.

The outstanding amount of legal tender notes is $356,914,932. The National bank circulation is now $315,764,535 of currency notes and $1,432,120 of national gold bank notes. National Bank notes received at the Treasury Department last week for redemption were to the amount of $3,243,000.

Government securities have been more active, but variable as to price, fluctuating with Gold, and leaving off irregularly, on freer offerings of most issues. At the close on Wednesday the current quotations were as follows:

United States currency sixes, 120¼@120⅛; do. 6s, 1881, registered, 109½@109¾; do. coupon, 110⅜@110⅝; do. 1865, new, registered, 105⅜@105⅝; do. coupon, 105⅜@105⅝; do. 1867, registered, 107⅝@107⅞; do. coupon, 107¾@107¾; do. 1868, registered, 108¾@109¼; do. coupon, 109⅛@109½; do. ten-forties, registered, 107¼@107⅜; do. coupon, 108@108⅛; do. five per cents, 1881, registered, 106¼@106⅜; do. coupon, 107⅝@107¾; do. 4½ per cents, 1891, registered, 104⅞@105; do. coupon, 104⅞@105; do. 4 per cents, 1907, reg., 101⅞@102⅛; do. coupon, 102⅛@102¼.

The amount of U. S. bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the National Bank circulation is $338,359,150, and $15,208,000 as security for public deposits.

State Bonds have been ruling somewhat firmer in the instances of the more popular loans on a better inquiry reported from investment buyers. Railway Mortgages have likewise attracted more attention, and the favorite issues of actual interest bearing bonds have been on the advance, though closing irregularly. And in the line of Railway and Miscellaneous share property the dealings have been quite extensive, but the course of values has been as a whole less satisfactory to the operators for a buoyant market, with comparatively free realizations noted from day to day, as the general position seemed to justify. The very heavy movement of grain from the interior toward the seaboard tended to the advantage of the prominent railway carriers.

Gold has been quoted higher, but variable, and at the close weaker, on a moderately active business, stimulated to some extent by the meeting of Congress, and the views, reports and rumors put forth as to the probable course of national legislation, during the extra session. The extremes of the price during the week have been 102⅝@103 5-16, closing on Wednesday at 102⅞, as against 102⅞ on Wednesday of the preceding week. The specie outflow last week was only $253,906, making the total exports of specie hence since January 1, $23,307,116, against $40,748,065 the same time in the preceding year. The imports of specie at this port last week were $99,662, and since January 1st have been $11,777,265 as against $6,515,668 same time last year. The Customs demand for gold last week reached $2,261,260 or an average of $376,877 per day.

Foreign Exchange has been offered more freely, and toward the close quoted weak and somewhat unsettled, on a very moderate inquiry. Bankers' sixty day bills on London closed on Wednesday at $4 80@$4 80⅛; sight bills on London at $4 84½@$4 85⅛ to the £ sterling. The week's imports of Dry Goods and general merchandise were to the specie value of $5,688,223 as against $5,229,676 the corresponding week of 1876. The week's import entries of Foreign Merchandise at New York included $1,185,989 of Dry Goods, and $4,502,234, of General Merchandise. The week's export of Domestic Produce and Miscellaneous Goods from this port were to the very liberal aggregate of $5,941,568, against $6,137,981 same week in 1876.

The income of the Government from internal revenues last week was about three millions, and and from Customs last week again about 2¾ millions.

More activity has been reported in the leading kinds of domestic produce but generally at easier and variable prices. Breadstuffs have been arriving more freely, leading to depression in values. Provisions, Petroleum and Naval Stores also weaker under more liberal offerings. Foreign merchandise has been less sought after and quoted irregular. Coffee again lower.

A somewhat larger volume of trade has been noted in Metals which have been generally held with more confidence. Eglinton Pig Iron quoted at $24@$24 50; Glengarnock $25@$25 50; Coltness $26@$27; No. 1 American Pig at $18 50@$19 50; No. 2 do. at $17 00@$18 50. Forge $16@$17; American Rails at works $33@$37. Old Rails $18@$19. Wrought Scrap $22@$24. Steel Rails, on the basis of $45@$47 50. Sales of 20,000 tons Steel Rails were reported as having been made to the N. Y. Central and Hudson River R. R. on p. t. Ingot Copper in demand on the basis of 17¾@18 for early delivery.

Hardware, Boots and Shoes and Dry Goods have been in less request and prices have shown less buoyancy in several instances though seasonable styles of Boots and Shoes have been quoted as a rule firm, on materially reduced offerings.

Ocean freights have been more active, and quoted steadier. The main inquiry was for Grain, Petroleum, Cotton, Flour, and general cargo. Liverpool steamer rates at the close for Grain, quoted at 9d. Provisions, 37s. 6d.@45s.; Leather, 60s. Measurement Goods at 22s. 6d.@30s. per ton; Cotton, ⅛d. per lb., Tobacco 35s. Liverpool, by sail. Cotton, ⅛d.; Grain, 8⅛d.; Measurement Goods 15s.@20s.; Tobacco 27s. 6d.@32s. 6d; Grain rates on charter hence for Cork and orders left off at 7s. 1½d.@7s. 3d.; for the Continent at 7s. 3d.@7s. 4½.; and from Baltimore for Cork and orders, 6s. 9d@7s. and from Philadelphia at 6s. 9d.@7s. per quarter. Refined Petroleum hence for Cork and orders, 5s.@5s. 6d.; for the Continent, 4s. 3d.@5s. per bbl.

Gilbert Elevated Railroad.

In the Superior Court, Special Term, on the 15th inst., Judge Van Vorst rendered a decision in the suit of the Sixth Avenue Railroad Company against the Gilbert Elevated Railway Company, which will enable the latter to go on and build its road at once, thus preventing a forfeiture of its rights under the Rapid Transit act of 1875, as well as the dissolution of the company itself. The suit was brought to restrain the Gilbert Company from building its road along Sixth avenue on the grounds: first, that the law under which the Gilbert Company proposed to act was unconstitutional, and secondly, that the building of the proposed structure would be injurious to the Sixth Avenue Company and other property owners along the route. After a long trial, Judge Sedgwick, at Special Term, granted an injunction against the Gilbert Company, basing his decision mainly on the ground that the Rapid Transit act was unconstitutional. From that decision an appeal to the General Term was taken, but has not been heard. In the meantime, in some other proceedings appealed from the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals held that the Rapid Transit act is constitutional. On the strength of this decision the Gilbert Company applied recently to Judge Van Vorst, in the Superior Court, Special Term, for an order staying all proceedings by the Sixth Avenue Company to enforce their decree of injunction against the Gilbert Company. The latter company insisted that the decision of the Court of Appeals had established their right to build the elevated road along Sixth avenue, and had disposed of all the objections against such erection. Judge Van Vorst, in his opinion, after a careful review of Judge Sedgwick's decision granting the injunction against the Gilbert Company, comes to the conclusion that such decision was based exclusively on the unconstitutionality of the Rapid Transit act. This point having been settled by the Court of Appeals in favor of the Gilbert Company, Judge Van Vorst decides, without passing on the question of damages for any injury which may be caused to the Sixth Avenue Company's property, that proceedings under the injunction should be stayed pending the appeal from Judge Sedgwick's decision, provided that the Gilbert Company gives an additional bond in the sum of $10,000 as security for any damage which may result to the Sixth Avenue Company by reason of the stay. Under this decision the Gilbert Company will go on at once with the building of its road along Sixth avenue, between Amity and Fifty ninth streets.

Concentric and Eccentric Car Wheels.

It makes a great difference in the comfort and convenience of steam and horse car travel whether the wheels are concentric or eccentric. If "true" on their axles, all other things being right, a car will run comparatively smooth, but if on the contrary the wheels are not "true" on their axles and not concentric, jolting and thumping will occur, alike destructive to car and track and highly disagreeable to passengers. This inconvenience is frequently experienced in city horse cars, and should not exist. If the periphery of a chilled wheel is not a true circle after being cast, the only remedy is to remelt it; if it is strictly concentric there is not the least trouble in boring the hubs and fitting on the axles so that they will run "true." Of course the loss of half a dozen wheels at a melting is a serious one, and there is a strong temptation to "let that pass;" but to use "untrue" wheels does not add to the reputation of the foundry or the railroad company. Riding in horse cars on many of our rough roads with their numerous switches and crossings is bad enough at any time without having to suffer unnecessary jolting resulting from eccentric wheels. These are easily detected by the regular pounding at each revolution, and then the passengers can make up their minds that either the axle is sprung or that the wheels are not true on the periphery, or that they are eccentric; in other words the center of the axle is not the center of the wheel.

☞ In the U. S. Circuit Court at San Francisco, on the 15th inst., the Government suit to recover from the Central Pacific Railroad Company 5 per cent. of its net earnings from July 1st, 1869, in repayment of the subsidy and 5 per cent. interest, was decided by Judge Sawyer in favor of the company. He held that the obligation to pay did not take effect until October 1st 1874, when the road was finally accepted by the Government.

☞ An order was filed in the Court of Chancery at Trenton, N. J., on the 18th inst., authorizing the Receiver of the New Jersey Central Railroad to gradually reduce and finally liquidate certain debts of the company (over a million dollars) by the partial payment of the interest and principal.

Finances of California.

The State Controller, W. B. C. Brown, has filed with the Governor his report of the financial operations of that office for the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth fiscal years, embracing the period from July 1, 1875, to June 30, 1877, both days inclusive, from which we make the following extracts:

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

|---|---|
| Total receipts into State Treasury: | |

| Excess of receipts | $454,078 16 |

SOURCES OF REVENUE.

| | 1875-76. | 1876-77. |
|---|---|---|
| Property tax | $3,141,277 01 | $3,948,032 16 |
| School lands (principal and interest) | 160,537 17 | 201,397 33 |
| Harbor commission | 253,322 63 | 305,903 09 |
| Fees by State officers | 34,582 78 | 44,698 46 |

| Total | $3,651,895 39 | $4,549,258 30 |

At the beginning of the twenty-seventh fiscal year there was in the general fund the sum of $39,548 28. At the end of the twenty-eighth fiscal year there was an unexpended balance of $330,388 74. Receipts of general fund for two years, $4,099,655 37; expenditures for two years, $3,769,266 33.

SCHOOL FUND.

|---|---|
| Amount subject to apportionment for support of common schools from February 24, 1875, to February 21, 1877 | $2,792,688 43 |
| Apportionment first year per scholar | 7 68 |
| Apportionment second year per scholar | 7 98 |
| Balance in fund unapportioned | 484 83 |

The examiners have bought for benefit of school fund with money arising from sales of State school lands $173,900 worth of county bonds, interest drawing.

|---|---|
| Balance in school land fund | $12,911 61 |
| Bonds held by State Treasurer in trust for school fund | 1,911,400 00 |
| Which produce an annual interest of | 122,588 00 |
| Bonds held for University fund | 811,500 00 |

| Drawn for support of University in the twenty-eighth fiscal year | 50,040 00 |

STATE DEBT.

|---|---|
| Bonds | $3,411,000 |
| Of which the debt bearing interest is | 3,396,500 |
| Annual interest on same | 209,745 |

As the State has guaranteed interest on railroad bonds, the amount to be raised is $814,745. Deducting interest in sinking fund and the net bonded indebtedness of the State is $3,319,061 43.

SWAMP LANDS.

|---|---|
| Transferred from Swamp Land Fund to Swamp Land District funds per Act April 1, 1876 | $35,966 16 |
| Transferred to counties | 11,957 08 |
| Total transferred | $47,623 24 |
| Warrants outstanding against General Swamp Land Fund and the District funds | $84,835 52 |

If the decision of the Supreme Court in Charlton vs. Estudillo applies to warrants against Districts 1, 2, 5 and 18, then they draw interest at ten per cent, and as they are ten years old the indebtedness of these districts is about double the amount represented above or $162,748 62, which added to $3,461 11, the remaining debt of the other districts, makes a total indebtedness of the funds of about $166,209 73.

Amount on hand applicable to this debt $6,897 21

TAXES.

Due the State from the several counties for delinquent property tax:

|---|---|
| 1875-6 | $406,441 67 |
| 1876-7 | 266,134 90 |
| Total | $672,576 57 |

Cost of assessing, collecting, keeping and paying State taxes:

|---|---|
| Twenty-seventh year | $194,289 01 |
| Twenty-eighth year | 230,210 29 |

THE TAX LEVY.

The rate of taxation was for the twenty-seventh year 60.5 cents; twenty-eighth year, 73.5 cents on each $100, assessed property values. The large rate for the twenty eighth year, he says, was necessary because of a legislative appropriation of $1,269,985 70 — mostly to pay outstanding claims and deficiencies of the twenty fifth, twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years—to finish the Napa Asylum, replace burned buildings at San Quentin and rebuild the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum. The deficiencies of the years named amounted to $866,517 05.

The Controller estimates the expenditures for the support of the government of the State for the thirtieth and thirty-first fiscal years at $5,715,684.

The delinquent property tax due the State from counties on 30th June, 1877, for the assessment of 1875-'76, was $406,441 67; for the assessment of 1876-'77, $266,134 90.

The condition of the funds is stated in detail. We give totals showing balances:

Debt of North Carolina.

From a statement published in a North Carolina paper, we learn that before the war the State of North Carolina became a stockholder in all the railroad companies within her borders, and subscribed for $9,680,000 of stock, as follows: North Carolina railroad, $2,794,000; Atlantic and North Carolina railroad, $1,859,000; Western railroad, $386,000; Western North Carolina railroad, $3,698,000; Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford railroad, $1,443,000—total, $9,680,000. For the above sum the State issued her bonds, payable in thirty years, and maturing about 1890. These bonds were negotiated at the North, and with the proceeds the railroads were built.

After the war, but under acts of the Legislature passed before the war, the State made a further issue of bonds to the following roads: Western railroad, $200,000; Western North Carolina railroad, $220,000; Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford railroad, $493,000; Chatham railroad, $215,000—total, $1,128,000.

Besides this indebtedness, created to pay for State stock in railroads, there were issued bonds for other State purposes, as follows: Fayetteville and Western plank road, $50,500; Gaston and Weldon railroad and Neuse river, $25,000; Fayetteville and Centre plank road, $45,000; Fayetteville and Warsaw plank road, $10,000; Tar river, $15,000; Insane asylum, $75,000; Albemarle and Chesapeake canal, $324,000; Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company, $145,000; for certain purposes, (act of 1858,) $1,011,700—total, $1,701,200.

These several issues amount in the aggregate to $12,509,200, all of which the North Carolina writer lumps as "ante-war debt," and upon which no interest has been paid since January 1, 1869. There is now due to the bondholders of accumulated interest about $6,378,937, on the assumption that the North Carolina writer is correct in putting the principal of the ante-war debt at $12,509,200—the total debt including interest being $18,888,137.

No account is taken of the debt created since the war, a part of these latter bonds having been declared unconstitutionally issued, and others being open to dispute. The North Carolina writer declares that the ante-war debt "is an honest obligation," and that a great portion of the property representing the principal of the debt is now in possession of the State. He charges the State with practically repudiating this debt by refusing last winter to accept a proposition of the creditors to take forty cents on the dollar in new bonds.

United States Supreme Court.

The following cases were argued before the United States Supreme Court at Washington on the 13th inst.:

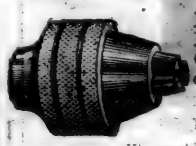
No. 19—Stewart vs. Union Pacific Railroad Company.—Error to the Circuit Court for Kansas.—This was an action to compel the railroad company to perform an alleged contract to deliver to the appellee 500 of its bonds of $1,000 each, secured by first mortgage upon the first 150 miles of the road west of Fort Riley, in exchange for 450 land grant bonds held by Thomas C. Durant, and 640 construction bonds held by a number of parties not named, but which Stewart had stipulated to obtain and deliver upon the issue and delivery of the new bonds. The defense was that the 640 bonds were in hands whose title was not genuine, and that Stewart was not able to perform his stipulations to deliver them; also that he had assigned all his interest, and no longer held title. The judgment of the court, however, decided that the company had recognized the validity of the title of the holders by its contract to exchange, and decreed the performance asked. It is here insisted that the decision of the court was erroneous and inconsistent with the facts. J. P. Apsher for appellant; C. E. Brotherton for appellee.

No. 20—Pratt & Wilcox vs. Grand Trunk Railway Company of Canada.—Error to the Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.—In this case goods were delivered to Liverpool to be transported to St. Louis. They came into the custody of the railway for transportation, and were taken to Detroit and there placed in the freight depot without arrangements having been made with the connecting carrier for their further transportation. While there they were burned. The court below held that there was a good delivery of the goods when they were stored in the freight depot, and that therefore the carrier was not responsible for them. It is here insisted that by the custom of transportation the railway was responsible for the freight through to St. Louis, being a common carrier of goods from Montreal to that place, and that this was so notwithstanding it was beyond its own route proper, and that in any case the deposit in the freight depot in the manner stated was not such delivery as relieved the company. O. Kiechner for plaintiff in error; I. P. Christiancy for defendant.

Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad.

At a meeting of the second mortgage bondholders of the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad Co., held in Boston on the 12th inst., Mr. John S. Farlow, who represents them as receiver, made an explanation of the affairs of the bondholders, including a history of the several railroads embraced in the property of the corporation. He said that notwithstanding the fact that seven-eighths of the bonds of the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad were held in Boston and vicinity, there was a most lamentable ignorance in regard to the property, which was more valuable than they had any idea of. The mortgages which they were then considering amounted to $1,000,000. Under the capitalization scheme the first mortgage bondholders cut off the coupons from their seven per cent bonds, and accepted a new issue of six per cent bonds running until the year 1900. The second mortgage bondholders relinquished sixty per cent of their claims and back coupons, and accepted therefor forty per cent in preferred stock. The floating debt of the company now amounts to $400,000, to the payment of which they have all the real estate which they recovered from Sloan. Had it not been for the raid made on the property by the gross perversion of the law the hard times would have been tided over. Mr. Farlow said that, above all things, he would advise the bondholders to avoid litigation. He felt confident that the bondholders would be able to save every dollar of their property and restore the road to the stockholders. All the charges of Mr. Sloan were pronounced false.

Mr. John M. Barnerd submitted the proposition made by the Columbus interest and a committee of the bondholders. They propose, if the bondholders will fund in ten or twenty years interest-bearing scrip six successive coupons, to fund all arrears of rent due the Columbus Road in scrip of the same issue, and to accept 25 per cent. of the gross receipts of the Columbus Road as rental for the three years commencing at the date of the first funded coupon.



The committee suggest to the bondholders that every alternate coupon for six years, commencing with the one due June 1, 1877, shall be funded in twenty years interest bearing scrip of that date; that the present lease of the Columbus road be abrogated and a new one made for six years, from June 1877, at 25 per cent. of gross earnings; that back rent due the Columbus road to June 1, 1877, be assumed at $50,000, and funded in the same scrip as the coupons.

Different Railroad Systems.

The engineer-in-chief of the Australian Colony of Victoria has, during the past two years, made a tour of the world to examine the railroad systems of different countries. The result is given in an elaborate report. He is of the opinion that our ordinary passenger cars are decidedly inferior to English first-class carriages, especially in long journeys. "The want of support for the head and shoulders, the draught and chills which from one window will sweep over fifty or sixty passengers, are all drawbacks to the American system. Again, the newsboys and hawkers, passing up and down, become an insufferable nuisance. On the other hand, there is no doubt but that the American cars do give great facilities for collecting and examining tickets, and consequently do save many delays."

Reading the above reminds us of the great difference between English and American railway systems, and how much has been said and written in the way of comparison on the same subject. A natural inquiry seems to be whether our American railway system in the main or in some of its details does not admit of improvement, and whether in our aim to originate and maintain a system peculiarly our own, we may not have overlooked and are apt to overlook some features that have long existed and are still marked ones as proving advantageous on European railroads.

A comparison between English and American railroad systems based upon the observation and experience of travelers seems to indicate that in all questions of speed and good roads the English lead, but that in general detail for personal comfort the American system is superior to all others. The English first-class carriage with luxuriously upholstered and tastefully designed compartments, seating only six persons, is just the thing for privacy; but unless the traveling party consists of a family or a company of acquaintances who have paid for the sole use of the entire compartment, the seclusion of one or two individuals may be broken by the presence of others who may or may not be desirable companions. Much the same kind of carriage as we refer to may be seen and its comforts enjoyed on the Fall River steamboat trains of the Old Colony Railroad, and for ought we know some other railroads in this country; but such carriages are sought for and patronized here only by the few who are willing to pay extra for the additional comfort and privacy they offer. The motion of the English carriages, which are much shorter than our steam cars, is a quick lateral one at high speeds, and is certainly an unpleasant one. The second and third class carriages have few if any comforts, and we are not aware of any of similar type in this country. The ordinary American steam cars have certainly their inconveniences: they are short of shoulder and head supports, and are poorly ventilated; they are noisy and rendered occasionally uncomfortable by selfish passengers and the venders of wares; but these are evils that can and should be remedied. The general design, however, of American locomotives and steam cars, including the Wagner and Pullman cars, receive very general approval, and the system of collection of tickets and checking of baggage is undoubtedly the finest in the world. There are few travelers in ordinary American cars who do not at some time or other meet with inconveniences and annoyances, such as banging of doors, noisy passengers, draught from open windows, the bawling of newsboys, etc.; and to the English traveler, accustomed to comparative quiet and retirement in his richly upholstered railroad carriage, to great speeds and smooth roads, and for the most part to obsequious officials, it is not surprising he should lay stress upon inconveniences to which we have either become accustomed or to which we submit with commendable patience.

Boston and Albany Railroad.

The Boston and Albany Railroad accounts, as made for the State year ending September 30, prove that the business of the road has justified a clear eight per cent. dividend, without charging a dollar of the current expenses to construction account, notwithstanding some 3000 tons of steel rails have been laid, and the replacement of old bridges with new has gone on. With the expansion of business accruing and now prospective, the net earnings for the current year promise to equal 10 per cent. on the capital stock. The railroad business is generally good throughout New England, the tonnage of business confirming other testimony to the effect that the volume of trade is steadily increasing, although the profit of it is small.—Springfield Republican.

Award of Damages in a Riot Case.

The first award of damages against the County of Allegheny for losses sustained during the July riots was made at Pittsburg on the 18th inst. Suit was brought to recover the value of a carload of household furniture which was destroyed in the fire of July 21st. On motion of plaintiff's counsel the matter was referred to three arbitrators. These latter awarded the plaintiff $1045 10 damages. They base their conclusion on the law of May 31, 1841, which makes the County of Philadelphia liable in damages for all property destroyed by mob or other riotous assemblage within its limits; the provisions of which law were, by act of March 20th, 1849, extended to the county of Allegheny. Under the law regulating arbitration the county has twenty days in which to appeal to the Court originally authorizing the arbitration. In case of appeal the appellant is obliged to give security for costs merely, and to make affidavits that the appeal is not intended for purposes of delay. The case, therefore, will most likely be taken to the county court, and thence to the Supreme Court of the State, which ultimately will have to lay down the law which is to govern the hundreds of cases growing out of the Pittsburg riots.

Compared with the previous year the gross earnings of 1877 show a decrease of $352,837 30 with a decrease in expenses of $96,460 17, making a decrease in the net earnings of $256,377 13. The President in his report says:

Your directors have endeavored to examine the causes which have so largely reduced the income of this property, and have caused a statement to be prepared of the tonnage of the entire line moved in each year for six years (differing somewhat from previous reports, which confined the statement of freight traffic to the tonnage moved upon the main line only), from 1872 to 1877 inclusive, and the gross earnings from it, the expenses for each year, and the average rate per ton per mile, which is as follows:

| | Tonnage. | Earnings from freight. | Rate per ton per mile. Cents. | Total expenses of operation. |
| 1873 | 1,708,964 | $4,096,198 | 1.56 | $4,447,808 |
| 1873 | 1,999,671 | 4,652,873 | 1.57 | 4,989,955 |
| 1874 | 2,186,786 | 4,908,961 | 1.29 | 5,523,642 |
| 1875 | 2,875,496 | 4,447,838 | 1.16 | 5,068,097 |
| 1876 | 2,686,248 | 4,417,275 | 1 12 | 4,802,902 |
| 1877 | 3,056,386 | 4,158,887 | 0.88 | 4,706,442 |

The large increase of gross tonnage will be noted as well as the rapid decrease in the average rate.

The separate traffic of the branch lines has increased from 470,651 tons moved in 1872, to 927,287 tons moved in the last year. This is local traffic, and in that period of time has nearly doubled.

The average rate of freight upon all the tonnage of the line in 1873 was 1.57 cents per ton per mile; in 1877 the average rate upon all freight was 0.88 of a cent, being slightly more than one half the rate obtained five years previously.

The working expenses of the passenger trains have not varied much in this period of time, and their mileage has been quite uniform. The number of passenger trains run has not materially changed. Two thirds of the income is derived from freight, and the expenses of this freight traffic form the largest proportion of the expenses of the line.

There is no possible economy of expenditure, in the opinion of this board, which will meet this case, and your directors state frankly their opinion, that the trunk lines leading from New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia to the West have pursued an erroneous policy; that a return to dividends will only be reached by wiser co-operation with each other, establishing rates for their freight traffic upon business principles, and rejecting traffic which leaves no margin for profit.

Your directors believe that the income of this property during the past year has been seriously impaired in this contest of the trunk lines, but they are gratified to observe a general and widespread effort to establish a sounder policy among all the various railway corporations which have been parties to the severe and ruinous competition of the past year.

While the operations of the line the past year have afforded no surplus for a dividend to the shareholders, the directors wish to call attention to the fact that the floating debt, which was $1,200,000 on the 1st June 1875, and $700,000 on the 1st June 1876, has been steadily diminishing.

The actual debt June 1st, less the cash on hand applicable to pay upon it, was $299,671 42. There has been some still further reduction till now with cash assets on hand to meet it, it may be considered as practically all extinguished. At the annual meeting the accounts for the year had not been made up, and only estimated statements were made. The statement as then made was smaller than the above amount.

The impossibility now with the large extensions and increase of business in the last ten years of making up the accounts in the very short time after the first of June, and before the annual meeting was the occasion of the passage of a resolution at the stockholders meeting, recommending that the board change the fiscal year, so that it may close with the calendar year.

It is probable that the board may act upon this recommendation in future.

While the floating debt has been discharged, there have been large and valuable improvements made to the property, by nearly completing the laying of steel rails upon the main and air lines There are only five miles of iron rails left on the main line, and thirty miles upon the air line. Fourteen locomotives have been entirely rebuilt; seventy-seven locomotives have undergone general repairs; nearly the entire passenger and freight equipment has also been repaired and fully maintained, besides the purchase of six new locomotives.

Since the last report the board has succeeded in completing an arrangement with the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad Company, whose road is leased to this company, by which the entire net proceeds of the land grant, amounting to about 600,000 acres, and all the proceeds of land sold, amounting to about $300,000, and yet to be paid, will be applied to extinguish the bonds of that company, for which by the terms of the lease this company was liable.

This arrangement will diminish the amount of rent, payable in the form of interest annually, by the full amount realized in each year from the lands. During the last year there have been paid and cancelled $140,000 of bonds.

The directors further report, that since the close of the fiscal year higher rates for through freight have been established, and their hope and expectations are that the unwise effort, to carry an immense tonnage over these trunk lines at a nominal rate, will be abandoned, that the lines will confine themselves to their legitimate traffic, and discontinue a policy which has resulted in large expenditures, and created an artificial volume of traffic, which has left an unprofitable result and seriously impaired confidence in railway securities.

Our property is well located, traversing a dense population, and for twenty years has had a constant increase of both passenger and freight traffic. It is an exceptional line in the fact that no serious accident or loss of life have occurred in this period of time. The resources of the property are great, and the board look hopefully to future results.

The railroad of this company comprises 284 miles of main line between Detroit and Chicago, the "air line" between Niles and Jackson of 103, 60 miles, with its local business being used as a second track, constitute 387 miles of track. There are 155.62 miles of sidings on these lines. There are 72.50 miles of double track in addition to that furnished by the air line, and all steel rail. The leased and branch lines, not including air line, are 416.12 miles in length, making a total of 803, 72 miles operated.

Steel rail was laid during the year as follows: Main line, 26.44 miles; air line, 54.19 miles; Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad, 8.36 miles—making a total of 88.99 miles. In the same time 7.97 miles iron rail was laid on the Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad. Side tracks have been extended 310 miles, 260,088 track ties renewed, and 51.75 miles track ballasted. The number of miles now laid with steel is as follows: main line, main track, 264.86 miles; main line, second track, 72.56 miles; air line, 72.41 miles; Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw Railroad, 8.36 miles—total, 413.19 miles. There are now but 5 miles of iron in main line, and 30 miles of iron in air line, to be replaced.

The number of locomotives has been increased by 6, purchased during the year, making the total number now owned by the company 219, of which 135 are coal-burners and 84 wood-burners.

The number of cars has not been materially changed, and at the close of the year consisted of: 77 first class and 27 second class passenger, 8 passenger and baggage, 32 baggage and mail, 117 way or conductors, 2 dining, 3 postal, 1 paymaster's, 1 inspection, 489 stock, 1784 merchandise, 406 combination, 880 Blue Line, 1296 platform, 1 pile driver and 3 derrick cars.

The number of miles run by locomotives in 1876 and 1877 compare as follows:

| | 1876. | 1877. |
|---|---|---|
| Passenger | 1 817,970 | 1,580,881 |
| Freight | 2,936,445 | 3,222,726 |
| Switching | 1,576,872 | 1,669,592 |
| Miscellaneous | 286,143 | 275,184 |
| Total. | 6,617,430 | 6,747,883 |

The number of passengers, through and local, and the total movement of passengers during the years named was as follows:

| | 1876. | 1877. |
|---|---|---|
| No. passengers—local | 1,374,105 | 1,265,879 |
| No. passengers—through | 152,331 | 184,257 |
| Total No. passengers | 1,526,436 | 1,450,136 |
| Total passengers moved 1 mile | 86,847,889 | 93,830,515 |
| Earnings per passenger per mile | 2.46c. | 2.16c. |

The movement of freight, through and local, and the number of tons carried one mile was as follows:

| | 1876. | 1877. |
|---|---|---|
| No. of tons—local | 1,592,605 | 1,710,789 |
| No. of tons—through | 1,092,643 | 1,345,647 |
| Total tons hauled | 2,686,248 | 3,056,886 |
| Tons moved 1 mile | 896,046,422 | 473,837,807 |
| Earnings per ton per mile | 1.12c. | 0.88c. |

With the rates of 1876 and tonnage of 1877 the earnings from freight for 1877 would have been $5,306,983 44, an increase of $889,707 92, or compared with amount actually earned in 1877, an increase of $1,148,096 12.

☞ There were 285 bidders who filed their proposals for the sub-contracts under B. J. McGrann, the contractor for building the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad. The bids were closed on the 16th inst., and on the 18th awards were made for the construction of the entire road, with the exception of the first four sections of one mile each, commencing in Pittsburg. We have the addresses of the contractors, 20 in number, together with the number of sections allotted to each.

Western Maryland Railroad.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Western Maryland Railroad Company, held at Hillen Station on the 17th inst., directors to represent the stockholders were re-elected as follows: Joshua Biggs, Frederick; John K. Longwell, Carroll county; George W. Harris, Isaac Motter and John Welty, of Washington county. City directors were previously appointed as follows: Samuel H. Adams, C. Devries, D. J. Foley, E. G. Hipsley, N. G. Penniman, J. Alexander Preston, Alexander Rieman and Wm. Seemuller.

J. M. Hood, president and general manager, submitted his report of operations for the year ending Sept. 30, 1877, from which we learn that the gross earnings were: from passengers, $136,662 27; freight and express, $167,686 49; milk and marketing, $15,717 78; mails, $6,222 86; miscellaneous sources, $5,796 47—total, $332,085 87. The total operating expenses were $219,940 57, making the net earnings $112,145 30.

Compared with the previous year the gross earnings show an increase of $20,183 32, with an increase in expenses of $4,384 39, making the increase in net earnings $15,798 93.

There were moved during the year 339,111 passengers and 131,367 tons of freight, making a decrease from 1876 of 8,455 passengers and an increase in freight of 18,677 tons. The average rates of transportation were 2.07 cents per passenger per mile, and 3.47 cents per ton per mile. The average earnings per mile of road for the year were $3,689 84.

The growing importance of the road is shown by the fact that in 1870 the revenue was $137,968, with a steady increase to $1876, when it was $311,902, and 1877, when it is $332,085 87, not including $25,486 32 in 1876 and $28,214 95 in 1877, which was earned upon the tracks of the Northern Central and Baltimore and Potomac Railroads, and turned over to those companies in payment for the use of certain terminal facilities, &c.

Improvements to road and machinery for the year aggregate $57,430 45, including as principal items $27,870 05 applied to the payment of the company's notes given for new equipment, and $17,537 40 expended in ballasting the road east of Union Bridge.

The report mentions the movement towards building a road from a point on the Western Maryland railroad 2½ miles east of Smithsburg, via Waynesboro' to Chambersburg, organized under the name of the Baltimore and Cumberland Valley railroad, which met with the indorsement of leading citizens of Baltimore, Chambersburg, Waynesboro' and Franklin county, the directors and friends of the Western Maryland railroad, commissioners of finance, Board of Trade, the press, &c. The work on this road, in the way of survey, location of line, rights of way, &c., which was suspended during the recent heavy decline in railroad securities, will be revived and subscription books opened as soon as public confidence is sufficiently restored. The investment is considered a good one, as it is proposed that this company shall lease the Baltimore and Cumberland Valley railroad when completed at a rental of 7 per cent upon its cost, to be included in its working expenses and paid before any net revenue would be set aside for the payment of interest even upon the first mortgage bonds.

Since the suspension of operations upon the Waynesboro' line a new route has been proposed, with a view of connecting with this road nearer Smithsburg, and to run thence direct to Greencastle, via Leitersburg, and thence parallel with the Cumberland Valley road to Chambersburg, the practicability of which will be tested at an early day. While this would lengthen the distance to Chambersburg 3⅛ miles, the proposed Broad Top connection would be shortened to almost an equal extent. The Harrisburg and Potomac railroad proper, should it be successful in securing a bridge across the Susquehanna at Harrisburg and connection with the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad at this point, may yet become a valuable auxiliary to the Hanover and Gettysburg railroad, and through it and its proposed connection to the Western Maryland railroad, and be the means of making this line a medium for the introduction of anthracite as well as bituminous coal into the Baltimore market. The report mentions the success of the Baltimore and Hanover road under the auspices of the Hanover and Gettysburg road, which is so far assured that rails have been purchased for its construction. The report says:

"In regard to the company's ability in the future to pay the current interest upon its unindorsed bonds, there is now no apparent reason why the payments upon those of the first mortgage need again be interrupted; but as the company is already one coupon in arrears upon this class of bonds, which should be paid by the 1st of July next, and as it is desirable that certain important improvements should be made at an early day, including a more extensive introduction of steel rails upon the eastern end of the road, upon which the traffic, without that expected from the Baltimore and Hanover road, has already become quite heavy, and as the large necessary additions to the equipments recently made are not yet entirely paid for, the board of directors of this company, after due consultation with the city finance commissioners, has determined, if agreeable to holders, to offer to fund for two years at six per cent. the seven overdue, together with the four coupons next maturing, upon the second preferred bonds; and it is believed that the interests of all concerned will be materially advanced by a general concurrence in this matter. When the payments now being made for the new equipments are completed the application to interest purposes of net revenue thus applied will of itself more than pay the interest on the second preferred bonds."

☞ Col. A. L. McFarlane and A. O. Tintsman, the purchasers at Sheriff's sale of the Brownsville (Penn.) and New Haven Railway, have formed a new corporation under the same name, fixed the capital stock at $60,000, and elected a President and Board of Directors to serve until the first Monday of May next. Col. A. L. McFarlane is the President and A. O. Tintsman, Geo. W. Wilson, A. J. Crossland, Thos. Rees, E. H. McClelland and W. K. J. Kline are the directors.

☞ A certificate of incorporation has been filed with the Secretary of State of Ohio by A. W. Thurman and others of the Columbus and Northwestern Narrow Gauge Railway, to run from Columbus to Mechanicsburg, Urbana, Sidney, Celina, and to Fort Wayne. It is said that from six to eight thousand dollars per mile will build and equip this road.

Tide Water Receipts.

The following comparative table shows the quantity of some of the principal article of produce left at tide water from the commencement of navigation to and including the 7th of October, in the years indicated:

| | 1875. | 1876. | 1877. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Canal opened | May 18. | May 4. | May 8. |
| Flour, bbls | 77,600 | 19,800 | 7,700 |
| Wheat bush | 13,459,200 | 8,690,100 | 5,021,800 |
| Corn, bush | 6 668,300 | 7,775,700 | 18,342,400 |
| Barley, bush | 551,400 | 396,600 | 982,300 |
| Rye, bush | 102,000 | 494 100 | 709,200 |
| Oats, bush | 1,365,200 | 2,231,400 | 2,309 800 |
| Malt, bush | 598,800 | 560 600 | 518,300 |
| Feed, lbs | 197,500 | 859,900 | 287,600 |

By reducing the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tide water this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a decrease equal to 945,760 bbls. of flour.

The receipts of barley of the new crop are 504,800 bush., against 282,100 bush. in 1876.

Railways in Australia.

The railways of Australia, with very small exceptions, have been constructed by the Colonial Governments. At the close of 1876 (latest date accessible) there were in the colonies a total of these roads of 1,813 miles, and of company railways of 87 miles. Their distribution was as follows:

| | N. S. Wales. Miles. | Victoria. Miles. |
|---|---|---|
| Open for traffic | 509 | 702 |
| Under construction | 179½ | 259 |
| Approved by Parliament | 266 | ... |
| Total open, etc. | 954½ | 961 |
| Company lines open | 45 | 19 |

| | South Australia. Miles. | Queensland. Miles. | Total. Miles. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Open for traffic | 304 | 298 | 1,813 |
| Under construction | 110 | 156 | 704½ |
| Approved by Parliament | 311 | ... | 577 |
| Total open, etc. | 725 | 454 | 3,094½ |
| Company lines open | 29 | ... | 87 |

And surveys had been made under authority of the governments of lines aggregating 3,098 miles, viz: in New South Wales 1,469, in Victoria 900, in South Australia 442 and Queensland 287 miles.

New South Wales has an area of 325,000 square miles, and at the close of 1875 had 595,465 inhabitants. The length of railway open December 30, 1876, was 509 miles, on which were 101 locomotives, 344 passenger train cars and 2,217 freight cars. The cost to date had been—on open lines (509 m.) £7,990,601, and on lines in progress (179½ m.) £579,459, or a total of £8,570,060. To the end of 1876 the appropriations by parliament for railways (954½ m.) amounted to £11,130,809; of which amount debentures had been issued to the extent of £9,087,300, viz: at 5 per cent, £7,110,800, and at 4 per cent, £1,976,500. The total expenditures were £8,638,362. From these figures it appears that the 509 miles open at the end of 1876 had cost £15,699 per mile. During the year 1876 the average length of railways operated was 460 miles, and the average number of employes 2448. Passenger trains (29,230) ran 861,077 and freight trains (23,303) 827,887, or a total of 1,688,964 miles. Other than revenue trains ran 471,920 miles. The number of passengers was 1,727,730, or including season tickets 2,478,946. The merchandise traffic consisted of 438,025 live stock, 120,397 bales of wool and 1,244,131 tons of goods. The gross earnings from passenger trains was £233,870 and from freight trains £459,355, or a total of £693,225. Working expenses (48.96 per cent), £339,405. Net earnings, £353,819. Average earnings, £1,507; expenditures £738, and net earnings £769 per mile operated. The net earnings amounted to 4.49 per cent of the cost (Dec. 31, 1876, £7,990,601.) The average interest paid on the Government debentures representing the cost was 4.89 per cent. The following table exhibits the progress of construction and operations since the opening of the line between Port Jackson and Paramatta Sept. 26, 1855:

| Year. | Miles Open. | Capital Cost. | Traffic—Passengers. | Traffic—Tonnage. | Total Earnings. | Net Earnings—Amount. | Net Earnings—To Capital. |

The railway built by the Moama and Deniliquin Company was opened for traffic July 4, 1876. It commences at Echuca, where it joins the Victorian railway from Sandhurst and is carried across the river Murray by a bridge constructed jointly by the New South Wales and the Victorian governments. It extends north to South Deniliquin (gauge 5 ft. 3 in.) 45 miles. All the government railways in New South Wales are of the standard (4 ft. 8½ in.) gauge.

Victoria was originally a part of New South Wales. Its superficial extent is 88,198 square miles and its population 815,034. The length of railway open December 31, 1876, was 702 miles, which had cost £13,710,364. The total amount raised by loans was to date £12,107,000 (of which £188,643 was on hand or in stores) and £1,792,007 had been derived from general revenue. The average cost of these railways was £19,531 per mile. The operating year terminated June 30, 1876. The length of line operated was 630 miles, and the equipment—121 locomotives, 205 passenger cars and 2,129 freight cars. Passengers carried 2,978,189, and freight moved 903,465. Gross earnings: passenger £386,654, and freight £608,418—total £994,767. Working (50.20 per cent) £499,407. Net earnings (3.74 per cent on capital cost) £495,360. Gross earnings per mile of road, £1,686; and net earnings, £814 per mile. The first railway built in this colony was the Melbourne and Hobson's Bay United, 19 miles. It is the only line owned by a company and has been very successful, having for several years paid 10 and once 11 per cent on the capital investments. The government roads are all of the wide or 5 ft. 3 in. gauge.

South Australia is the largest but least populated of the Australian colonies. Its area is 914,730 square miles, and in June, 1876, it had 216,848 inhabitants. The length of line opened for traffic December 31, 1876, was 304 miles, which had cost the government about £8,500 per mile. Most of the lines are of the wide (5 ft. 3 in) gauge; the newer lines are narrow (3 ft. 6 in.) gauge. The Kadina, Wallaroo and Moonta Railway (23 miles) belongs to a company. There are also in the colony several horse tramways (71 miles.) The length of government railway operated in 1875 was 193½ miles, which had been built at a cost of £1,642,129 or £8,486 per mile. The equipment consisted of 31 locomotives, 74 passenger train cars and 803 freight cars. Of these 17 passenger and 176 freight cars were on the tramways. The trains on all the government lines run 521,433 miles. Passengers carried on all government lines 1,071,185, and freight moved 331,910 tons. Gross earnings: passenger £64,697, and freight £111,395—total £176,092; working expenses (75.25 per cent) £132,508, and net earnings (2.65 per cent on capital invested) £43,584.

Queensland, lying north of New South Wales, has an area of 678,600 squares miles and in 1875 had 172,402 inhabitants. The railways in operation December 31, 1876, had a length of 298 miles and in construction 156 miles additional. At the close of 1875 (which is the latest operating year reported) the length open was 263 miles, which had cost £2,796,640 or £10,633 per mile. Trains run 403,754 miles; passengers carried 127,890, and freight 50,785 tons. Gross earnings from passenger trains £48,079, and from freight £88,190—total £136,269. Working expenses (67.57 per cent) £92,085. Net earnings (=1.58 per cent on capital) £44,184. Earnings per mile £518; expenses £350, and profits £168. All the railways in this colony belong to the government.

Of Western Australia, Tasmania and New Zealand railways we have no extended reports. In 1876 West Australia had 38 miles open and 33 miles under construction; Tasmania (formerly Van Dieman's Land) had 155½ miles open and New Zealand 549 miles open.

West Virginia Central Railroad.

The West Virginia Central Railroad, with a proposed capital of ten million dollars, was incorporated at Wheeling on the 19th inst. The route is from Ceredo, Upshur county, West Va., through the counties of Cabell and Putnam, crossing the Great Kanawha river at the city of Charleston, Kanawha county, thence along the river to the mouth of Gauley river, thence along the Gauley river to a point near its source, passing through the counties of Kanawha, Fayette, Nicholas, Webster and Pocahontas, to Harrisonburg, Va., and thence through the counties of Madison, Culpepper, Fauquier and Stafford, to Aquia Creek, on the Potomac river, a distance of 300 miles. The stock subscribed is owned by Philadelphia capitalists.

Duplex Steam Pumps.

The accompanying engraving represents an ordinary Pattern Fire Pump having two double-acting plungers. It is a direct-acting duplex steam pump, invented and patented by H. R. Worthington.

The prominent and peculiar features of this description of steam pump are, that it is a direct-acting, non-rotative engine: there being two steam cylinders, each with its proper steam and exhaust valves, its proper piston and piston rod, and pump plunger attached to the piston rod; the piston rod of each engine being made, in the course of its stroke, to operate the steam and exhaust valves of the other engine through suitable connections, without the intervention or control of any crank shaft, or other device for producing rotary motion.

Its value consists in providing the means for pumping heavy columns of water with ease and safety to the machinery employed; effecting the application of any amount of pumping power required to lift the water column, without violent or abrupt action upon the water.

Reference being made to the engraving it will be seen that there are two steam pumps placed side by side and parallel with each other, and so combined as to act reciprocally upon the steam valves of each other. The one piston acts to give steam to the other, after which it finishes its own stroke, and waits for its valve to be acted upon before it can renew its motion. This pause allows all the water valves to seat quietly, and removes everything like harshness of motion. As one or the other of the steam valves must be always open, there can be no center or dead point. The pump is, therefore, always ready to start when steam is admitted, and is managed by the simple opening and shutting of a valve.

Three conditions are absolutely necessary to a safe and effective fire service: first—the pump must start when steam is admitted. Second—the water pressure must be without sudden changes at the end of each stroke. Third—the stream must be steady and unbroken. The pump illustrated here meets each of these requirements. In the arrangement of this and others of the Worthington Duplex type care has been taken to have all the parts easily accessible for inspection or repairs. The moving pieces are made to gauge, and can therefore be readily renewed.

The Worthington Duplex Pumps are in use in so many places throughout the entire country and are so highly endorsed by the most eminent engineers and manufacturers that they need no ecomiums from us, but our experience with steam machinery enables us to say respecting them that they are undoubtedly among the very best ever invented for simplicity, strength, efficiency, smoothness of motion and noiselessness in operation. These duplex steam pumps may be seen in operation in this city at the warerooms of the Reading Hydraulic Works, 87 Liberty Street, where all information respecting their capacity and price may be obtained.

Pittsburgh, Castle Shannon and Washington Railroad.

The Pittsburg Chronicle says that the grading of the Pittsburg, Castle Shannon and Washington Railroad is in a very forward state, and then adds:

The cross ties for the first division of 14 miles from Castle Shannon to Finleyville, are now being delivered and track laying will shortly be begun. Above Finleyville, in the Peters Creek Valley to Thomas' store, five miles, the grading is approaching completion and will be ready for the iron before the track reaches Finleyville. The engineers are now engaged locating the remaining eight miles to connect with the Washington and Waynesburg Narrow Gauge Railroad, and we are assured by Mr. Thos. P. Roberts, the Company's Chief Engineer, that there is nothing to prevent the completion of the entire line to Washington before Christmas.

☞ The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has denied the motion for a reargument in the Williamsport (Pa.) bond case. The decision of the court affirmed the validity of the bonds issued by that municipality as having been duly authorized and properly issued. The opinion was dissented to by the chief justice and two associates, the vote standing four to three.

☞ The United States Circuit Court at Richmond, Va., has ordered the transfer by the receivers of the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio railroad of all property of the Virginia and Kentucky division of that road to the Bristol Coal and Iron Narrow Gauge Company. The property in question aggregated but a few hundred dollars.

The Coal Trade.

For the week ending the 18th instant, the total tonnage, as reported by the several carrying companies, amounted to 415,693 tons, against 516,541 tons in corresponding week last year, a decrease of 100,848 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined for the coal year is 15,200,501 tons, against 13,551,987 for same period last year, an increase of 1,648,514 tons. The quantity of bituminous coal sent to market for the week amounted to 86,477 tons, against 92,795 tons in corresponding week last year, a decrease of 6318 tons. The total amount of anthracite mined for the year is 2,624,911 tons, against 2,720,239 tons for corresponding period last year, a decrease of 95,328 tons. The total tonnage of all kinds of coal for the week is 502,170 tons, against 609,336 tons in corresponding week last year, a decrease of 107,166 tons. The total tonnage of all kinds of coal for the coal year is 17,825,412 tons, against 16,272,226 to same date last year, an increase of 1,553,186 tons. The receipts at Perth Amboy for the week ending on the 18th instant were 35,784 tons, the shipments 24,847 tons, leaving a stock on hand of 85,782 tons. The quantity of coal and coke carried over the Pennsylvania Railroad for the first week of October was 112,480 tons, of which 94,300 tons were coal, and 18,180 tons coke. The total carried for the year is 3,523,082 tons, of which 2,382,790 tons were coal and 438,417 tons coke. These figures embrace all the coal carried over the road, east and west.—Phila. Ledger, Oct. 22.

Patent Lead-Lined Journal Bearings.

The annexed cuts represent different forms of journals and bearings under certain conditions; the shape which the former get after wear under cars and locomotives, and the manner in which lead-lined bearings conform to either even or uneven surfaces. These lead-lined bearings are the invention of D. A. Hopkins of 113 Liberty St., New York, for which he received letters patent November 15th, 1870. Since that time they have gone into extensive use on railroads and are in all cases giving the highest satisfaction. The peculiar features of these bearings are that they are perfectly self-fitting. They are made with an auxiliary bearing or thin lining of lead, thoroughly secured to the hard metal bearing and constituting a yielding mould, into which the journal quickly imbeds and fits itself by pressure; the lead yielding and adjusting itself to the size and form of the journal to which the bearing is applied, before the pressure becomes great enough at any point to expel the oil from between the journal and bearing, and thereby cause heating.

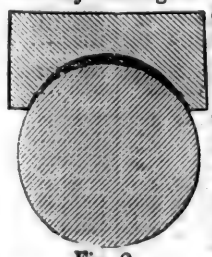

Fig. 2.

Journals, even if "hollow worn" and badly "cut," quickly bed and fit themselves into the auxiliary bearing by pressure; and afterward gradually wear their way through it and into the hard metal bearing, thus securing to the journal a perfect fit, from the time of imbedding itself into the auxiliary bearing of lead, until the bearing of hard metal is worn out; entirely doing away with the heating of journals from want of fit, which so often results from the application to them of new bearings made in the ordinary way, involving numerous delays and disasters, and greatly increasing the cost of operating railways.

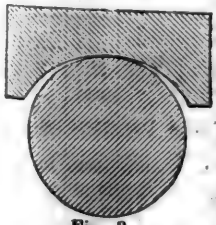

Fig. 3.

These bearings are made with the greatest care, from the best materials, of any desired size and form, and are sold finished and complete for immediate use.

Reference being made to the illustrations, the working of these Lead Lined Bearings will be clearly understood. The black shows the lead lining, which in bearings for use is made about one-sixteenth of an inch thick.

Fig. 1 shows a bearing not lead lined and in this case the bearing, being too small for the journal, binds on the sides and is sure to get hot when running.

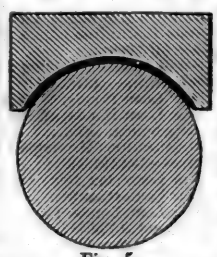

Fig. 5.

Fig. 2 represents a bearing lead lined. In this case the bearing is too small for the journal, but the lead pressed from the sides fills up along the center, and the journal is sure to run cool.

Fig. 3 shows a bearing not lead lined: placed on a journal worn small; the bearing touches only along the center of the top, and the journal is likely to run hot.

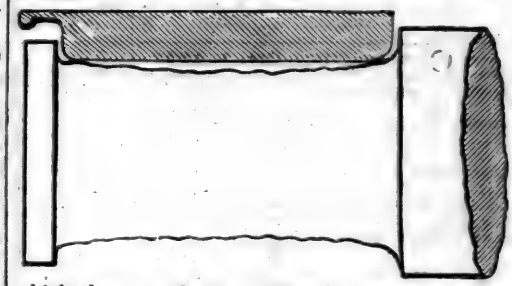
Fig. 4 shows a bearing lead lined: placed on a journal previously worn small. The lead pressed from the center, fills up along the sides, and the journal is sure to run cool.

Fig. 5 represents a bearing lead lined. Here bearing and journal are supposed to be full size and new.

Fig. 6 illustrates a bearing not lead lined. The journal is cut, and is rough and small; it is sure to run hot.

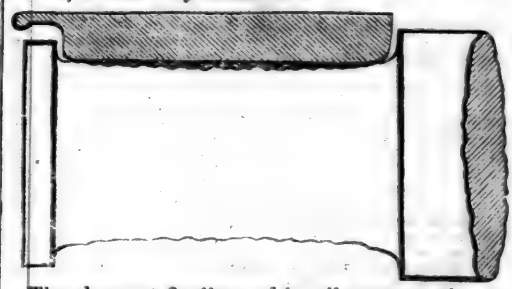
Fig. 7 represents a bearing lead lined. The journal is cut, rough and small, but sure to run cool, the lead filling the grooves and yielding to the rings on the journal which thus secures a perfect fit.

Fig. 8 is a bearing lead lined: the bearing and journal are new.



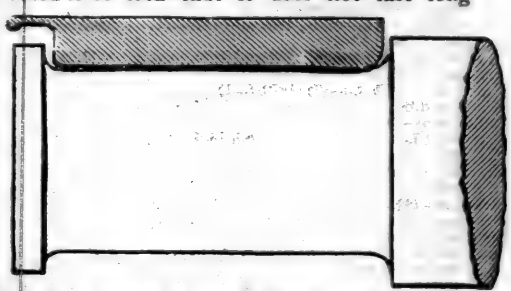
Mr. Hopkins, the inventor of these bearings as already referred to, is introducing them very extensively and has for many years given the subject of hot journals on railroads his close attention and study. His experience and judgment in the matter induces us to quote some of his statements respecting bearings and journals.

"A journal bearing, to be really cheap, must possess in the highest degree, reliability under all the conditions of service to which it is liable to be subjected; instead of prematurely failing as bearings made (or built) up of two or more qualities of brass generally do.



It must not secure long life to itself at the expense of short life to the journal; as all bearings do that are made up of a (mere) confining shell of brass, filled in with a bearing (or filling) of soft metal of any kind.

Soft metal of all kinds serves as a setting into which particles of gritty material and worn off particles of iron become imbedded; and in case of the soft metal being thick, are accumulated to such extent that nearly all wear is at the last thrown upon the journal, which thereby becomes short-lived, while the bearing is wonderfully long-lived and terribly expensive, because of its destruction of the journal.



To determine whether a bearing is or is not cheap, look at the end of a balance sheet in which the cost of oil, waste and labor, and of journals worn out or otherwise ruined, as well as of delayed trains with their attendant disasters, are all fully considered.

The cheapest finally, and in all respects the best bearing, is made of the best anti-friction bronze with a thin auxiliary bearing of lead, which is so thin that it does not last long enough to admit of the injurious accumulation of particles alluded to above."

☞ The construction of the New York Elevated Railroad is now awaiting the issue of raising $2,000,000 necessary to complete the roadway. It is thought that upon the arrival of Samuel J. Tilden from Europe, arrangements will be perfected for completing the requisite $2,000,000, and then the contracts will be awarded for the iron work, for which bids have been received from the Phœnix Iron Works, the Trenton Iron Works, the Passaic Rolling Mill Company, and a Pittsburgh establishment.

☞ All Canadian Pacific Railway survey parties east of the Rocky Mountains have closed operations for the season, and most of them have returned to the capital. Parties employed in British Columbia will cease work immediately and return to head-quarters.

---

☞ At a meeting of the Directors of the New York Elevated Railroad Company on the 23d inst., the resignation of Chief Engineer Courtright was presented and accepted. Resolutions expressive of esteem for Mr. Courtright were also passed. Mr. Walter Katte, C. E., was unanimously elected to the position of Chief Engineer.

American Railroad Journal.

Saturday, October 27, 1877.

Financial and Commercial Affairs.

An almost uniformly firm market has been reported for Money, during the week, at the full legal rate of 7 per cent to the average borrower on acceptable stock collaterals, though accommodation has been given as low as 5@6 per cent, chiefly to the large dealers in Government securities. The inquiry for aid has been more urgent, chiefly for speculative sources. The outflow of currency to the West and South, especially to the South, and the numerous reports of failures, embarrassments and defalcations, which have been industriously circulated, for sinister purposes, worked against ease in the loan and discount line. Call loans were quoted here at the close at 5@7, in most instances at 6@7 per cent, and very choice to prime mercantile credits were rated at 7@9 per cent per annum for the best names. The City bank exhibit of last week indicated a falling off in the loan and discount average of $45,800, and an increase in the item of circulation of $149,800. The average of deposits was further reduced $1,610,100. The legal tender reserve fell off $367,500; and the specie average $570,400. The City bank net reserve of specie and legal tender notes now shows an excess over the legal requirement of reserve to liabilities of $7 578,895, as against $9,114,200 the preceding week. The City bank exchanges in currency reached $478,165,820, or a daily average of $79,694,304.

On Wednesday of this week the cash balances of the Treasury Department at Washington were: of Currency, $17,852,731; special deposit of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $47,010,000; Coin, $126,395,759, including of Coin certificates, $34,852,900.

The outstanding amount of legal tender notes is $356,914,932. The National bank circulation is now $316,402,724 of currency notes and $1,432,-120 of national gold bank notes. National Bank notes received at the Treasury Department last week for redemption were to the amount of $3,-715,000.

A freer movement has been reported in Government securities which have been in more active request on investment account, and have been ruling stronger in price. At the close on Wednesday the current quotations were as follows:

United States currency sixes, 120¾@121; do. 6s, 1881, registered, 109¾@110; do. coupon, 110½@110¾; do. 1865, new, registered, 105⅝@105⅞; do. coupon, 105⅝@105¾; do. 1867, registered, 108@108⅛; do. coupon, 108@108¼; do. 1868, registered, 109½@110; do. coupon, 109⅝@109⅞; do. ten-forties, registered, 107½@107¾; do. coupon, 108¼@108¾; do. five per cents, 1881, registered, 106½@106⅝; do. coupon, 107⅛@107¾; do. 4½ per cents, 1891, registered, 105⅛@105⅜; do. coupon, 105½@105¼; do. 4 per cents, 1907, reg., 102¼@102⅜; Central Pacific Gold Bonds, 105¾@106.

The amount of U. S. bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the National Bank circulation is $340,354,950, and $15,-083,000 as security for public deposits.

State Bonds have shown less animation and wider fluctuations as to prices even in the instances of the more popular loans on a restricted inquiry, influenced, in part, by the stronger range of Money, in the loan and discount line. Railway Mortgages have been moderately active, with the favorite issues of actual interest bearing bonds closing with more firmness, after more or less of disturbance through the week. And in the line of Railway and Miscellaneous share property the dealings have been on a liberal scale, but on a variable market, Monday's operations having been indicative of severe depression, attributed largely to speculative manipulation; followed on Tuesday by a sharp rally in values, on a buoyant market, leaving off on Wednesday irregularly.

Gold has been somewhat steadier in price, and in more demand, chiefly on speculative account leaving off rather tamely and at about the lowest figures of the week. The extremes of the price during the week have been 102¾@103⅛, closing on Wednesday at 102¾, as against 102⅞ on Wednesday of the preceding week. The specie outflow last week was only $236,210, making the total exports of specie hence since January 1, $23,343,326, against $40,761,074 the same time in the preceding year. The imports of specie at this port last week were $650,896, (of which $483,973 from Liverpool) and since January 1st have been $12,428,161 as against $8,141,146 same time last year. The Customs demand for gold last week reached $1,798,144 or an average of $299,691 per day.

Foreign Exchange has been in moderate request and toward the close weak and irregular in price, on more liberal offerings of bills. Bankers' sixty day bills on London closed on Wednesday at $4 0@$4 80⅛; sight bills on London at $4 84¾@$4 85½ to the £ sterling. The week's imports of Dry Goods and general merchandise were to the specie value of $5,243,893 as against $3,-776,132 the corresponding week of 1876. The week's import entries of Foreign Merchandise at New York included $1,382,995 of Dry Goods, and $3,860,898, of General Merchandise. The week's export of Domestic Produce and Miscellaneous Goods from this port were to the very liberal aggregate of $6,623,045, against $3,678,068 same week in 1876.

The income of the Government from internal revenues last week was about 2½ millions, and from Customs last week again about 2¼ millions.

Business in the leading kinds of domestic produce has been on a more liberal scale, but generally at reduced and irregular prices, influenced in good part by the free receipts of produce from the interior. Breadstuffs have been arriving in large amounts, especially Wheat, which commodity, however, has been kept well under control by strong speculative operators, interested in maintaining values. Provisions, Cotton, Petroleum and Naval Stores have been more sought after but unsettled in price. Foreign merchandise has been in fair demand and quoted about steady.

Metals have been in less request, but without important changes as to values. Eglinton Pig Iron quoted at $24@$24 50; Glengarnock $25@$25 50; Coltness $26@$27; No. 1 American Pig at $18 50@$19 50; No. 2 do. at $17 00@$18 50. Forge $16@$17; American Rails at works $33@$37. Old Rails $18@$19. Wrought Scrap $22@$24. Steel Rails, on the basis of $45@$47 50. Ingot Copper in demand on the basis of 17¾@17⅞ for early delivery.

A fair but less urgent demand has been reported for Hardware, Boots and Shoes and Dry Goods prices of which have been pretty well supported.

A livlier movement has been noted in the line of Ocean freights which have been quoted stronger as to rates, on a reduced offering of accommodation. The main inquiry was for Grain, with a moderate call for room for Petroleum, Cotton, Flour, and general cargo. Liverpool steamer rates at the close for Grain, quoted at 10½d. Provisions, 37s. 6d.@45s.; Leather, 60s.@70s. Measurement Goods at 22s. 6d.@30s. per ton; Cotton, 5-16d.@11-32d. per lb., Liverpool, by sail. Cotton, ¼d.; Grain, 9d.; Measurement Goods 15s.@20s.; Tobacco 27s. 6d.@32s. 6d; Grain rates on charter hence for Cork and orders left off at 7s. 3d.@7s. 6d.; for the Continent at 7s. 6d.; and from Baltimore for Cork and orders, 7s.@7s. 6d and from Philadelphia at 7s. @7s. 3d per quarter. Refined Petroleum hence for Cork and orders, 5s.@5s. 6d.; for the Continent, 4s. 6d.@5s. per bbl.

At the action sale of Scranton Coal on Wednesday 125,000 tons were disposed of promptly, mostly within the range of 2.32½@2.90. (Pea size selling down to 1.40@1.57½), indicating a steady market for Stove, a firmer range for Chestnut, and lower figures for other sizes, as compared with the latest circular quotations.

☞ The total exports of barley and rye from Canada to the United States during the year ending June 30, 1875, was 5,413,844 bushels, valued at $5,359,341; for the year 1876 these exports amounted to 10,164,551 bushels, valued at $7,426,827, an increase of nearly twice the amount in quantity, but a great falling off of the price per bushel. Almost the entire exports of barley and rye are to the United States, only 6,603 bushels going to all countries during the year 1876.

Lake Superior Ship Canal.

The following decision has been rendered by the United States Supreme Court:

No. 180. George Jerome and Fernando C. Beaman, Assignees, &c., vs. Thomas N. Carter, Trustee—Appeal from the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Michigan—There are no less than twenty-seven assignments of error in this case, but the subjects of real controversy are few. The bill is an ordinary one for the foreclosure of a junior mortgage covering the canal and franchises of the Lake Superior Ship Canal, Railroad and Iron Company, and covering also two separate bodies of land, each containing 200,000 acres. The mortgage was given expressly subject to two prior mortgages, one dated July 1, 1865, upon the canal and one of the bodies of land, and the other dated July 1, 1868, upon the canal and the other body of 200,000 acres of land. Each of these prior mortgages was made to secure the payment of the company's bonds of even date therewith, amounting to the sum of $500,000 and all the bonds were issued and they are now outstanding. The first of these prior mortgages is known as the Sutherland mortgage. Default having been made in the payment of interest upon the bonds secured by that, John L. Sutherland, the trustee, filed his bill to foreclose it, making all the subsequent mortgagees parties, and they all appeared. In that case Isaac H. Knox was appointed receiver of all the property covered by the several mortgages, and subsequently, in order to obtain the money necessary for completing the canal, by order of the Court he was authorized to create, issue and sell certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $500,000, to be secured by a mortgage which he was empowered to make covering all the property and which was to be prior in right to all other mortgages. Pursuant to this authority the receiver did issue and sell such certificates and for their security executed the mortgage directed by the Court. These certificates are now all outstanding. Such was the condition of affairs when the present bill was filed. But the company having afterward gone into bankruptcy a supplemental bill was exhibited, making the assignees in bankruptcy parties defendant, and they appeared and made defence, and they are the only parties appellant. It is now contended, on their behalf, that the bill cannot be sustained because the prior mortgagees were not made parties. This position cannot be sustained. It is undoubtedly true there are cases to be found in which it was ruled that prior incumbrances were necessary parties to a bill for the foreclosure of a junior mortgage but in most of these cases the circumstances were peculiar. Where the effort of the junior mortgagee is to obtain a sale of the entire property or estate, and not merely of the equity of redemption, there is reason for making the prior incumbrances parties, for they have an immediate interest in the decree. And so, when there is substantial doubt respecting the amount of the debts due prior lien creditors, there is obvious propriety in making them parties that the amount of the charge remaining on the land after the sale may be determined, and that purchasers at the sale may be advised of what they are purchasing. But the bill in hand has no such peculiarities. The prior mortgages were not due when this bill was filed, and without the consent of those mortgagees nothing more than the equity of redemption could be sold under any decree made in the case, or under the decree which was sought. Nor is there any doubt entertainable respecting the amount due under the prior mortgages. Indeed the company is estopped by the provisions of its mortgage, of which the complainant is trustee, from asserting that the entire amount of the two $500,000 mortgages, and of the receiver's mortgage was not outstanding when the present mortgage was made. The full indebtedness was acknowledged by making the junior mortgage expressly subject to it, and as there is no evidence that any portion of it has been paid, it is not admissible for the mortgagors or their assignees in bankruptcy to deny it now. (Bronson vs. the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company; 2 Wall, 283.) Apart from the exceptional cases we understand the general rule to be that in a suit by a junior mortgagee to foreclose a mortgage, prior mortgagees are not necessary parties. So it has been held in England in Rose vs. Page, 2 Sim., 471; Richards vs. Cooper, 5 Beaven, 304; Delabere vs. Norwood, 3 Swanston, 144. The ruling of the Court, that there is merit in the objection to the decree, because the mortgagors were declared bankrupt after the bill was filed, is sustained, and also other rulings on minor questions and touching the ascertainment of liens on the property anterior to the mortgage. Affirmed. Mr. Justice Strong delivered the opinion.

Union Pacific Railroad.

The Government Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company submitted their Annual Report to the Secretary of the Interior on the 19th inst. From this we learn that the road is in much better condition in every important particular than it ever has been. The earnings are considerably in excess of the earnings of any previous year.

The business of the road in all its branches is constantly increasing, especially in the matter of the transportation of cattle; more than seventy-five thousand head were brought East this year. The directors suggest that this illustrates the extent to which the wild lands of the road are devoted to grazing. The company has obtained entire control of the coal interests along its line, which hitherto were in the hands of a monopoly of the old directors of the road, known as the Wyoming Coal Company. The directors say that the extravagant charges of that company made it a very oppressive monopoly, injurious to the road and to the general Western interests. The organization of this monopoly was shown in the credit mobilier investigation. The abolition of this monopoly enables the road to obtain its coal supplies at a dollar and thirty cents a ton instead of four dollars, which it was formerly compelled to pay the company. This change alone has been worth $25,000 to the Government during the year in decreasing the expenses, and thus increasing the net earnings. The total saving resulting from the monopoly is estimated at $200,000.

The wooden bridges of the road are being rapidly replaced with iron. The largest bridge, that on the summit at Dale creek, near Sherman, which is one of the largest railroad bridges in the world, has been replaced by iron. The operating expenses have been decreased $50,000.

The directors report that the road, as to construction and equipment, compares favorably with the best Eastern roads. The passenger rolling stock is ample and of excellent character. The freight cars have not been sufficient to meet the wants of the rapidly increasing business, and many cars have been used from the connecting Iowa roads. The company now intend to take control of all express and sleeping car business over its lines. The express has already passed into the hands of the company, and has proved very successful. The Pullman car contract has still three years to run, when the company will decline to renew it.

The Government is now withholding the entire sum due for the transportation of troops, officials and Government material, until the pending five per cent. suit is settled, and the question as to what constitutes net earnings decided. An early decision of this case is expected. The directors submit their views in full as to final settlement with the Government of the principal and interest due at the end of thirty years. They are confident that the prosperity of the road and its improved financial condition will enable them to discharge both principal and interest of this debt when due without embarrassment.

The directors estimate that the sum annually received by the Government for transportation is between four and five hundred thousand dollars, with nearly five hundred thousand on account of the five per cent fund. They think that, with the increasing business of the road, the Government will receive fully one million dollars from the present source, through the operation of existing laws. The directors, as a means of settlement of all pending questions as to the payment of the principal and interest of this debt, recommend the enactment of a law providing for the payment of a half million dollars semi annually in addition to what is received now under existing law, and that this be held as a sinking fund after extinguishing the debt due the Government. A carefully prepared statement upon this subject accompanies the report. This statement, the directors claim, shows that when the bonds are due the entire debt will be paid with the exception of about $9,000,000, which would soon be extinguished by the transportation account and the five per cent fund. The Secretary is understood to regard the recommendations with favor.

Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn Railroad.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of this company, held in Boston on the 18th inst., the following gentlemen were elected directors for the ensuing year: Edwin Walden, John G. Webster, John B. Alley, Edward Tyler, David Loring, T. B. Dix, Henry Breed, David L. Webster, George F. Tripp, Charles W. Slack, A. B. Martin, Nehemiah Gibson.

The report of the treasurer, John G. Webster, which was submitted, gives the following statements:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Total construction investment | | $590,667 30 |
| Estimated for land unsettled | | 20,000 00 |
| Total permanent investment | | $610,667 30 |
| Total debt | | $230,570 81 |
| Less cash and assets | | 18,421 27 |
| Balance of debt incurred for construction | | $212,149 54 |
| Receipts from passengers | | $112,890 30 |
| Receipts for rent | | 2,181 46 |
| | | $115,071 76 |
| Railroad expenses | $72,259 00 | |
| Ferry expenses | 16,078 89 | |
| | | 88,337 89 |
| Balance of net earnings | | $26,733 87 |

President Walden stated that the sum of $610,667 30, given as the total permanent investment in the above report, represents the total cost of the road, and that the sum of $212,149 54 represents the actual balance of the debt as far as it can be determined. The debt is really $230,570 81, against which there are certain assets which cannot be conveniently turned into cash, which make the actual balance $212,149 54, as stated. Two years ago it was expected that the road could have been built and equipped for the amount of the capital stock. Added to this are the temporary loan, the balance of the profit and loss account and the unsettled land claims, making the total cost of construction $610,667 30.

On motion, the action of the stockholders, at a special meeting held on the 5th of September, in regard to giving a mortgage on the property of the corporation for a sum not to exceed $350,000, was ratified. The rate of interest on these bonds has been fixed at six per cent. It has been resolved not to sell the bonds at a sacrifice, as has been proposed, but to give them as collateral to such stockholders as will loan money to the company for a short period to meet outstanding claims. The proposition is to give $1,000 in bonds as security for a loan of $700, and to pay interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum. Stockholders have already subscribed an amount lacking only about $30,000 of the sum needed.

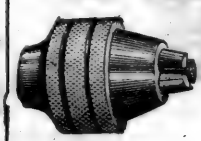
☞ The managers of the Central Vermont Railroad have laid 5000 tons of steel rails between St. Johnsbury and Montpelier, and graded and newly ballasted the road bed. Next season steel rails will be laid from Montpelier to West Hartford, which will complete a continuous steel rail from St. Albans to White River Junction. The difference in cost of the two rails is about one-fourth.

☞ At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Vermont and Canada Railroad, held at Bellows Falls, Vt., on the 19th inst., the old board of directors was elected, consisting of Edward Bangs, Bradley Barlow, John Curtis, John N. A. Griswold, William Mixter, James R. Nichols and Samuel Wells. But little discussion was had upon subjects pertaining to the interests of the road, and a much more hopeful feeling in regard to the interests of the corporation than for a number of years before was manifest.

☞ The right of way for the Columbus and Gallipolis Railroad, from McArthur to within twenty miles of Columbus, has been secured, and the prospects are now favorable to an early completion of the line. The work is progressing on the southern division between Gallipolis and McArthur, and the remaining fifty miles will soon be put under contract.



☞ A bed of natural cement, equal to the Italian, is said to have been discovered at Turner's Falls, Mass., in digging a canal. It is the first which has been discovered in this country, and it is thought will supersede the imported article.

United States Supreme Court.

The following decisions were rendered in the United States Supreme Court on the 22d inst.:

No. 20—Pratt, &c., vs. the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada.—Error to the Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.—This was an action to recover from the company damages for a violation of its duty in respect of property shipped from Liverpool to St. Louis, and carried over its road from Montreal to Detroit. The goods are stored by the company upon their arrival at Detroit in the freight depot there, and were destroyed by fire the next night. The question was whether this was a good delivery to the Michigan Central Railroad, the succeeding carrier, as claimed by the defendant. The court hold that where a carries allows goods to be deposited in such a way without notice, the deposit of goods amounts to notice and is a delivery. Hence the succeeding road was in charge of the property and the defendant was entitled to judgment in his favor. Affirmed. Mr. Justice Hunt delivered the opinion.

No. 2—Keystone Bridge Company vs. Phœnix Iron Company.—Appeal from the Circuit Court for the Eastern Pennsylvania District.—This was an action for an infringement of a patent for the construction of iron bridges. The court below dismissed the bill on the ground that it was not shown that defendants had done more than to manufacture iron used in the construction of bridges on the principle of the patent. The court here affirm the decree, but for the reason that the patentee cannot show that this invention is broader than is stated in his claim upon which the patent is granted, which it is said was attempted in the case. Mr. Justice Bradley delivered the opinion.

The Mexican Railway.

The Mexican Railway is the only great work of the kind in the Southern Republic. There are, however, several local and suburban railways in the Valley of Mexico, in all about 50 miles. The constituents of the Mexican Railway are as follows:

| | Miles. |
|---|---|
| Main Line—Vera Cruz to Mexico. .... .... | 263¼ |
| Branch Lines— | |
| Apizaco (87 m. E. Mex.) to Puebla.. .... | 29¼ |
| Junction (9 m. W. Vera Cruz) to Jalapa.. | 70¾ |
| Total length of all lines.. .... .... .... | 363¼ |

Rolling stock—Locomotives, 43; passenger cars, 61; and freight cars, 412.

The works on this railroad are notable for their vast structures rendered necessary on account of the mountainous character of the greater length of the line. Steep grades and short curves occur chiefly in the sections 50 to 100 miles west of Vera Cruz. The difference of level between Vera Cruz and Paso del Macho, 47¼ miles, is 1,559¼ feet; in this section the maximum grade is 2½ per 100, and the sharpest curves are 600′. From Paso del Macho to Boca del Monte, 60 miles, the difference is 6,342½ feet, and the following are the prevailing grades: 7.61 miles—2 per cent, or 113.6 feet per mile; 9.14 miles—2½ per cent, or 132 feet per mile; 5.89 miles—3 per cent, or 158.4 feet per mile; 1.55 miles—3½ per cent, or 184.8 feet per mile; 13.95 miles—4 per cent, or 211.2 feet per mile.

This makes a total of 38.14 miles of heavy grade. On the remaining 21.86 miles the incline is mostly 1.5 per 100, or 80 feet. The curves vary from 400′ to 225′, the latter being the sharpest curve on the whole line. The works are large and very important consisting of 27 iron bridges and viaducts; 16 tunnels and 96 arch and open culverts. The length of tunnel is 2,941.3 feet and of bridging 4,321.2 feet. In respect of solidity and originality of construction these works are equal to any in Europe or the United States. Between Boca del Monte and the City of Mexico the line is comparatively straight and level, the grade nowhere exceeding 1.5 per 100 nor the curves 900′ radius. No very steep grades occur on the Puebla branch, the maximum being 1.5 per 100, or 80 feet to the mile; the sharpest curve is 400′ radius. At Vera Cruz is a mole built of iron, 725 feet long, and 60 feet wide at the end standing in the sea. There are three tracks on this mole, along the cranes used for loading and discharging of vessels and launches. As the larger class of vessels cannot reach the pier, the company have provided for their use two steamtugs and five launches. The total weight of iron used in constructing this mole was 553 tons.

The Mexican Railway is owned by an English company. The capital account is made up as follows:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| £480,000 | 8 per cent bonds | A, sold for | £365,997 |
| 1,063,800 | 7 " | " B, " | 730,589 |
| 251,805 | 7 " | " C, " | 176,260 |
| 700,000 | ordinary shares paid to original Co. | | |
| 724,620 | " " | subscribed by Gov't. | |
| 828,100 | " " | issued in £20 shares | |
| 2,554,100 | pref. 8 p. c. shares issued in 1874 | | |
| 1,011,960 | 2d pref. 6 p. c. shares issued in 1874 | | |
| £7,564,386 | = $37,821,900, or at the rate of £20,824 or $104,120 per mile. | | |

The Mexican Railway was completed from the City of Mexico to Puebla September 21, 1869, and the whole main line to Vera Cruz in December, 1872. The Jalapa Branch was opened for traffic June 17, 1875. A line from the City of Mexico to the Pacific at San Blas, about 700 miles, is projected.

The company's report for 1876 compares the traffic accounts of the main line, including the Puebla Branch (292½ miles) for the years 1875 and 1876 as follows:

|---|---|---|
| Passengers .... .... .... .... | £90,101 | £65,880 |
| Merchandise .. .... .... .... | 291,541 | 276,148 |
| Pulque ... .... .... .... .... | 60,481 | 57,622 |
| Sundries .. .... .... .... .... | 31,999 | 35,980 |
| Traffic receipts... .... .... | £474,121 | £435,629 |
| Traffic expenses.. .... .... | 249,886 | 233,621 |
| Net earnings... .... .... | £224,235 | £402,008 |

The traffic expenditures in 1875 were 52.70 and in 1876, 53 62 per cent of traffic earnings.

The train mileage in 1875 and 1876 compares as follows:

| | 1875. | 1876. |
|---|---|---|
| Traffic train miles.. .... .... | 514,873 | 542,855 |
| Total train miles.... .... .... | 420,777 | 436,546 |

The approximate total tonnage carried on the line in 1876, exclusive of luggage, carriages, live-stock, articles not charged by weight and the company's materials, was 123,576 tons of 1000 kilogrammes. Passengers carried, 238,932.

The gross amount received from the Mexican Government for subvention was £31,459.

Operations on the Jalapa Line were suspended on account of the revolutionary condition of the country. The total traffic for the year 1876 amounted only to £5,289, which was earned by an expenditure of £7,468. Deficit, without charging the line with general expenses, £2,179.

Notwithstanding the internal disturbances, to which allusion has been made, this railway is really a success. It does not as yet, indeed, pay all charges for interest; it pays nothing on a part of its bonds, nothing on its preferred stocks; nothing on its ordinary stocks. Yet there is a vitality in the country that promises well for a rapid development of its vast resources, and which aided by the new mode of transportation must become at no distant period the solid support of this great work. Classes A & B of the bonded debt were paid full interest.

What the Appointment of Receiver Means.

The Lamoille News, in mentioning the fact of the appointment by Judge Ross of St. Johnsbury, Vt., of Col. A. B. Jewett and A. W. Hastings as Receivers of the Portland and Ogdensburg Railroad, on the petition of the first mortgage bond holders, says:

We had a dim idea of the significance of the act, and yet were quite ignorant of just what the appointment of a receivership meant, and supposing that others might also not know clearly what it implied, we have made some inquiries and give the result of our questioning. The appointment of receivers is of the nature of the foreclosure of a mortgage, but instead of securing a decree with the usual year's time for redemption, the appointment of receivers is secured, who immediately take possession of the road and run it in the interest of the mortgagees. The officers and directors of the road then have no more to do with the road whatever. The receivers, out of the earnings of the road, first pay themselves; secondly, pay the running expenses of the road; thirdly, the interest on the preferred bonds; fourthly, the bonds themselves; and, after the road has earned enough to do that, the first mortgage bondholders come in for their share of the spoils. Some people are anxious to know how it will effect those who hold claims against the Railroad Company. It cuts off those claims, and they can no longer be secured by levying on wood, ties, etc., and by trusteeing agents. The claims of employes, however, are different from these, since by special statute, they are secured by the rolling stock, which they can hold until their claims are met. The move may yet lead to controversy, since there are four or five hundred thousand of the first mortgage bonds which did not give their consent to issue preferred bonds. How they are to be appeased may be the next difficulty.

Boston and Albany Railroad.

The gross receipts from operations of the Boston and Albany Railroad for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1877, were: from passengers, $2,682,124; from freight $3,773,319; from other sources, 306,705—total, $6,762,148; the expenses during the same time were $4,595,046—leaving a net balance of $2,167,102. For the year ending September 30, 1876, the earnings were $7,074,758, the expenses $4,682,994, and the net balance $2,-391,764—showing a decrease in earnings of $312,-610 a decrease in expenses of $87,948, and a decrease in net balance of $224,662. Dividends amounting to eight per cent for the year has been declared, viz: four per cent payable May 15, 1877, and four per cent payable November 15, 1877, on the capital stock of $20,000,000. In most of the important items of receipts and expenses there is a falling off, though for two years the tonnage of freight, notwithstanding the opening of the Tunnel route, has been constantly increasing, the number of tons of freight carried in 1875 being 2,439,472, in 1876 2,641,274, and in 1877 2,601,-657. The total number of passengers carried was 5,298,851, against 5,578,395 last year. The number of miles run by passenger trains was 1,898,- 903, freight trains 3,566,168, and gravel trains 80,662, a total of 5,045,728; last year's total being 4,983,880, or about 60,000 miles less. The average rate of passenger fare was 2.31 cents a mile, a reduction upon last year's average of six tenths of a mill. The average rate per ton per mile for local freights was 1.94 cent, against 2.21 cents in 1876, for through freight 85-100 of a cent, against 96 100 of a cent, and for all freight 1 16 cent. During the year nine miles of new side track and 20 iron bridges were built. The road now has 248 locomotives, an increase of 4; 244 passenger, mail and baggage cars, the same number, and 5087 freight cars on a basis of eight wheels, the number a year ago being 4816. The number of regular employes of the road now is 4399, 126 less than September 30 last year and 536 less than in 1875.

Chicago, Danville and Vincennes Railroad.

The gross earnings of this road for the year ending December 31, 1876, were $872,166, the operating expenses (65.51 per cent) $571,363, and the net earnings $300,803. For the year ending December 31, 1875, the gross earnings were $756,865, the expenses (66.86 per cent) $506,077, and the net earnings $250,788—showing an increase in earnings of $115,301, an increase in expenses of $65,286, and an increase in net earnings of $50,015. During the first five months of the year 1876 the road was operated by the railroad company and the preceding receivers, and during the last seven months by the present receiver.

The number of miles operated during both years were the same, viz: Main Line, Dalton to Danville, 108 miles; Indiana Branch, Bismark to Coal Creek, 24 miles; leased: Pittsburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway, in Chicago, double track, 6 miles; Chicago and Southern Railroad, Chicago to Junction, 20½ miles—making the total number of miles owned, leased and operated, 158½.

The total number of tons moved was 485,705, of which 232,943 tons were coal, and 252,762 tons other freight. Number of tons moved one mile north, 40,475,556; do. south, 12,742,129—total, 53,217,695; of which 29,763,618 were local, and 23,454,077 foreign. The total tonnage in 1875 was 357,055, and the total number of tons moved one mile, 40,873,607.

The average gross earnings per ton per mile in 1876 was 1.33 cent; in 1875, 1.49 cent; in 1874, 1.73 cent; in 1873, 1.94 cent; and in 1872, 2.12 cents. Had the same average rate been obtained in 1876 as in 1872, the earnings would have been $420,419 greater, making gross earnings $1,292,586, instead of $872,166, and this without any increase in the expenses. The net earnings for the year would have been $721,222, instead of $300,802, and the percentage of expenses to earnings 44.21 per cent, in place of 65.51. The same rate as received in 1875 would have produced $85,148 more revenue in 1876.

The gross earnings for the year 1876, as stated above, were $872,166, while the cash receipts appear from the balance sheet to have been $995,422—an excess of cash receipts over gross earnings of $123,256. This excess represents earnings previous to January 1, 1876, which were collected during the year, and also sums that were paid back in over charges, drawbacks, switching, &c. Although the amounts for these latter charges were actually received in cash, they were repaid the same way, and whenever a sum was collected which it was known would be repaid in full, it was not included in earnings.

The deductions from net earnings in 1876 were: insurance and taxes $18,201; rental Pittsburg, Cin. and St. Louis Railway, $29,310; rental Chicago and Southern Railroad, $24,922; rental Chicago station grounds, $6,201; rental freight cars, $30,088—total, $108,724.

The additions to property consisted of: permanent improvements to road, $34,692; new construction ordered by Court $7,114; purchase of freight cars, $37,561—total, $79,368.

Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington R. R.

The gross earnings of this road for the year ending June 30, 1877, were $1,049,368, the operating expenses (71.66 per cent) $752,018, and the net earnings $297,350; from which deduct rental, taxes and guarantees, $40,639—leaving net profit of Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington line, $256,711; to which add $20,270 interest on daily balances, and $2 185 profits operating Shelby Railroad, making net profits subject to order of court $179,166.

The equipment consists of 31 locomotives, 24 passenger, 14 baggage and express, 188 box, 120 stock, 105 platform, 20 gondola, 10 caboose, 1 pay 1 yard, 1 derrick, 1 wrecking, 27 road, and 8 boarding cars.

The number of passengers carried was 385,780; tons of freight, 298,253. Receipts per passenger per mile, 3.001; do. per ton per mile, 2.837. The receiver, in his report, says:

The rates received on the Lexington line were much better than on the Cincinnati line, the average receipts per train mile on the former being $2.4360, against $1.4211 on the latter. The chief business of the Cincinnati line is through, and of the Lexington line, local. The earnings for the two years were:

| | 1877. | 1876. |
|---|---|---|
| Passengers | $427,006 | $443 894 |
| Freight | 566,388 | 508,561 |
| Express and mail | 50,944 | 54,483 |
| Telegraph, etc | 5,029 | 4,747 |
| Total | $1,049,368 | $1,011,687 |
| Operating expenses | 752 018 | 734,798 |
| Net earnings | $297,350 | $276,889 |

The earnings and expenses were divided between the Lexington and Cincinnati lines, as follows:

| | Gross earnings. | Expenses. | Net earnings. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Lexington line | $482,564 | $258,462 | $229,102 |
| Cincinnati line | 566,804 | 498,556 | 68,248 |
| Total | $1,049,368 | $752,018 | $297,350 |

There were used in renewals last year 2,498.86 tons iron rails, 16.34 tons steel rails and 87,877 new ties. There are yet in the track between Lagrange and Lexington 33 miles of iron rails laid in 1849 and 1850 and still in good condition, though beginning to wear out rapidly.

The Newport and Cincinnati Bridge is operated under a guarantee of $75,000 annual traffic; the actual traffic last year was $53,070, leaving a deficiency of $21,929, half to be met by this road. To meet this, however, an arbitrary charge on freight over the bridge is retained, which amounted to $20,380, leaving a net profit of $9,415.

The Louisville Railway Transfer showed for the year earnings of $51,525, expenses, $19,531, net earnings, $31,993; interest, etc., $30,146—leaving net profit of $1,847. The Elizabeth, Lexington and Big Sandy earned $58,401, expenses, $39,637, net earnings, $18,764; rental, $19,467—loss for the year, $703.

Central Saratoga Railroad.

Articles of association have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State of New York, forming a company called "The Central Saratoga Railroad Company," to build a railroad from Schenectady to Saratoga Springs. The line is intended to be run in the interest of the New York Central, and will form a new route from New York to Saratoga Springs via Albany and Schenectady. The estimated length of the line is 25 miles, and the capital stock $500,000. The Directors are William H. Vanderbilt, Cornelius Vanderbilt, William K. Vanderbilt, Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Augustus Schell, Samuel F. Barger, Chauncey M. Depew, James H. Rutter, John M. Toucey, Edwin D. Worcester, Charles H. Fisher, James Tillinghast, and De Witt Tuthill.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

It is authoritatively stated that a plan has been devised for the reorganization of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey. The time for the payment of the floating debt is to be extended to 1880, both principal and interest to be paid in 12 installments. The holders of the second mortgage bonds are to receive for two years interest preferred stock to the amount of $2,800,000, being 7 per cent. on $20,000,000 of bonds, the stockholders to pay an assessment of $10 per share, for which they are to receive preferred stock to the amount of $2,000,000, and 10 per cent of the present capital stock is to be converted into preferred stock—$2,000,000. The plan will not, however, result in a return to the Lehigh Navigation Company of its canals and railroads.

Lehigh Coal and Nav. Co.

The holders of the debenture loan of the Lehigh Coal and Nav. Co., maturing on the 10th of December next, have submitted to the company a proposition to extend the payment of two-thirds of the loan and to accept payment of the remaining one-third in consolidated mortgage 7 per cent bonds of the company at par. The part to be extended is to be payable in equal instalments in two, three, four and five years, and to be secured by a mortgage of real estate and personal property in trust to a nominal value of double the amount of the debt. It is said that the proposition is acceptable to the company and it is thought will be generally assented to by the loan holders, who now have no security at all for their loans. The whole amount of the loan is $762,779.

☞ At a meeting of the directors of the Baltimore and Hanover Railroad Company, held at Hanover, Penn., on the 23d ult., Capt. A. W. Eichelberger was elected president, L. F. Milsheimer secretary, and R. M. Wirt treasurer. The route was not finally agreed upon, but it is expected to be at an early date, and a portion of it put under contract at once.

☞ An iron steamship, built by the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company, of Wilmington, Del., for Mr. Charles Morgan, of New York, was launched on the 27th ult.

☞ The first train on the Louisburg Railway was run on the 24th ult. over the entire line from Sidney, Nova Scotia, to Louisburg, Cape Breton.

Memphis and Charleston Railroad.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company, held in Knoxville, Tenn., on the 10th of October, it was voted to ratify and approve the agreement made by the board for the lease of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. The contract is thus alluded to in the recent annual report of the directors:

Your board of directors have entered into a contract with the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company for a lease for twenty years of the road of that company under which the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company agrees to operate the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, for account and risk of the latter, and account to it for all net proceeds. It will not be a source of any direct profit to your company, but it is believed it is alike beneficial to the interests of both parties to it to have the unified management and interchange of business, provided for in the lease, carried into effect and continued under it. The lease can be terminated at the option of either party to it on six months' notice; provided, however, that in case you elect to exercise the option which you have of, from time to time, making advances to that company of funds (you are not bound to advance anything), such advances so made, if any, must first be refunded, with interest, before the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company's notice for a cancellation becomes operative.

East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia R. R.

The gross revenue receipts of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad for the year ending June 30, 1877, were $1,010,079, the operating expenses and taxes $668,923, and the net revenue $341,156; from which deduct interest and exchange, $283,709, leaving a balance of $57,447. The sum of $170,002 has been expended for renewals, betterments and taxes, (including 3,000 tons new iron rails, and 111,000 new crossties), and charged in the expenses as above stated. Compared with the previous year there has been a decrease in gross revenue of $64,905, a decrease in expenses of $46,471, and a decrease in net revenue of $18,433. The bonded debt shows the following changes since the last report:

1. The redemption of $135,300 of 6 per cent divisional bonds (East Tennessee and Georgia Railroad Company), matured July 1, 1876.

2. Sale of $37,000 of the first mortgage 7 per cent issue, less $27,000 of that issue bought for sinking fund account, making a net reduction of $125,300 in the bonded indebtedness of the company. This leaves in the treasury and in the sinking fund $481,000 of bonds of the first mortgage 7 per cent issue, $277,000 of which the company may dispose of at its option.

There are also in the treasury $229,000 7 per cent Western North Carolina Railroad bonds, on which interest is paid semi-annually, that can also be sold as soon as satisfactory prices can be had for them. We do not think this will be a great while, as their intrinsic value is such as to secure for them a market at no very distant time. They are a first mortgage lien at the rate of about $7,000 per mile on completed road, which will be reduced to about $5,000 per mile by the completion of the line now being built to Paint Rock, which is covered by the mortgage securing these bonds; and in addition to this security, the coupons are receivable for all dues to the State of North Carolina, which gives increased value to them for home or North Carolina investment. A floating debt of about $128,000 has been created by the redemption of bonds, as previously stated. This should be funded by the sale of first mortgage seven per cent bonds, or also discharged by the proceeds of sale of the Western North Carolina bonds, as soon as either can be disposed of at satisfactory prices. The return of our first mortgage seven per cent bonds from Europe, caused by the general want of confidence in American railroad securities, and the pressure to make sales resulting therefrom, has reduced the price of our first mortgage seven per cent bonds from about 94 to 90 cents on the dollar, and rendered it more or less difficult to effect sales at the reduced price.

The entire floating debt, however, in excess of cash and cash assets on hand is not large, and the proceeds of the Western North Carolina bonds sold at 85 cents would suffice to pay all of it of every class whatsoever, and in the meantime the interest received on these bonds will more than equal the cost of carrying our small floating debt.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Railway.

The Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Railway Company is the successor of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway Company. The property of the latter company, owing to default in payment of interest due Nov. 1, 1873, was sold under a decree of foreclosure on the 22d of June, 1876, and bought in in trust for the bondholders. Articles of incorporation were filed on the same day, and a new company formed to be known as the "Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Railway Company of Iowa." The transfer of the property was confirmed by the U. S. Court on the 20th of July, 1876. The new company was organized upon the basis of $10,000,000 capital stock and $6,500,000 first mortgage five per cent bonds. The plan of reorganization proposed the exchange of the old bonds, consisting of: $5,400,000 main line; $2,200,000 Milwaukee Division; $1,800,000 Pacific Division; and $800,000 Muscatine Division—in all, $10,200,000—for the new securities, as follows: for each Main Line bond, $800 in bonds and 7 shares of stock; for each Milwaukee Division bond, $500 in bonds and 5 shares of stock; for each Pacific Division bond, $250 in bonds and 2½ shares of stock; and for each Muscatine Division bond, $300 in bonds and 3 shares of stock. At the date of the annual report, June 30, 1877, this plan of reorganization has been accepted by the holders of $5,088,000 Main Line bonds, $2,067,000 Milwaukee Division bonds, $1,683,000 Pacific Division bonds, and $659,000 Muscatine Division bonds. In exchange for these bonds the securities of the new organization had been issued as follows: 52,085 shares of stock of $100 each, and $5,712,350 first mortgage 5 per cent bonds.

The gross earnings from operations of the road for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1877, were $967,483, the expenses $771,063, and the net earnings $196,420; for the preceding year the earnings were $1,329,200, the expenses $892,600, and the net earnings $436,600—showing a decrease in gross earnings of $361,716, a decrease in expenses of $121,536, and a decrease in net earnings of $240,179.

The number of passengers carried during the year was 25,809; number carried one mile, 7,834,138. Tons of freight carried one mile, 25,835,438. Average rate per passenger per mile, 3.37 cents; do. per ton per mile, 3.78 cents.

The net earnings of the company for the year ending June 30, 1877, as stated above, were $196,420, to which add receipts from miscellaneous sources, $25,060—making the net income for the year $221,481; of which there is due in the shape of current accounts and bills receivable the sum of $42,674, making the actual cash net income for the year $178,807, of which the company has on hand in cash $18,088. The expenditures have amounted to $400,364. The indebtedness of the company, consisting of current accounts and bills payable, amounts to $234,640. The President in his report, of which the above is an abstract, says:

The first fiscal year of this company's existence, has been one of not only very small business and low rates, but of disaster and misfortune. The crop of the year 1875 was a partial failure. Following upon this, the wheat and oat crop for the year 1876 was an almost entire failure. The effect of this state of things can be appreciated when it is remembered that the B., C. R. & N. Railway is what is termed a "grain road,"—that is, dependent almost entirely for its income upon the business of hauling grain. This condition of things, together with the decreased earnings consequent upon the enforced operation of the Granger Tariff Laws over the whole State of Iowa, reduced our revenue very largely, not less in amount, it is believed, than $350,000 gross and $250,000 net.

In the month of April, 1876, portions of the track, and several bridges were washed away by floods. During the month of July, 1876, before the damage of the April disaster had been repaired, there came another storm and flood, which washed out abutments, carried away bridges and destroyed embankments on every division of the road.

Under the previous management, the property and physical structure of the railway had been allowed to run down.

To repair the damage caused by the misfortunes alluded to, and to put the property in proper condition has cost a large sum of money. But the money has been well spent, and the work has been well done—so well done, indeed, that, as a matter of fact, a large portion of the railway has been actually rebuilt.

In order to meet the requirements of the company's business, due to the increased track mileage, it will be necessary, as soon as the company's financial condition will permit, to acquire considerable additional rolling stock. To put the equipment upon a proper footing, there should be purchased 4 freight locomotives, 200 box cars, 2 passenger coaches, 2 combination (smoking and baggage) cars, 5 way or caboose cars.

It appears that the loss in revenue in 1877, as compared with 1876, was occasioned as follows, viz:

|---|---|
| Actual decrease in grain shipments, stated in money value | $194,495 |
| By reason of the legislation and consequent reduction in rates | 109,580 |
| Because of floods and of depression in business | 50,000 |
| Thus making a total estimated loss of | $354,075 |

It has been shown that the property which we had all of us hoped would earn at least $400,000 during the past year, has earned but $200,000. This fact is disappointing, far more so to the management than to you. But it should not be discouraging. To-day the affairs of the company are in a healthy condition. All the litigation incidental to the foreclosure of the old mortgage, except that of the cases already referred to, has been successfully closed up. The plan of reorganization has been accepted by the holders of nine tenths of the old bonds, who have exchanged their bonds for the securities of this company.

We are building 25 miles extension on the Pacific Division. This extension will carry the road into the centre of the best wheat region in the State, and when completed will add largely, it is believed, to the business of the road. It will be completed in September.

The work of building the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad has been begun. It will be pushed with vigor, and finished, it is hoped, by the 1st of October. When finished, the cars will run through upon one continuous line, under virtually the same management, from Burlington to Minneapolis. The construction of the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad will bring to our road, it is confidently anticipated, considerable business, which will materially add to its revenue.

Vermont Central and Vermont and Canada Railroads.

The decision of the Supreme Court of Vermont in the case of the Central Vermont Railroad, managers vs. the Vermont and Canada Railroad on the petition to sell both roads to pay the trust debts and other debts of the management, was rendered by Judge James Barrett, at Montpelier, Vt., on the 30th ult. He began by saying that the opinion was concurred in by all the Judges in the case. The case has been pending since January, 1861. It now comes up on appeal from a pro forma decision of the Chancellor, and this is the first time it was ever in this court, or before any Judge of the court, except as Chancellor. The petition of the Central Vermont Railroad to sell both roads and equipments to liquidate the debts accruing under the Receiver's petition is brought upon assumption that the Central Vermont managers are Receivers of both roads in succession. The question is whether, upon the law and the evidence, the petition should be allowed or dismissed. In summing up the decision, as given by the court—they have decided to deny the prayer of the petitioners for the sale of the Vermont Central and Vermont and Canada Railroads, on the ground that no power rests in the court to order such sale in the present form of application. The court also decided that the decree of 1864 changed the character of the Receivership from that appointed by the court under the decree of 1861 to a Receivership constituted under an agreement of all parties, and whatever has been done by the various decrees of the court since that date has been done with the consent and approbation of the parties themselves, and that all the parties were in subjection to it.

New Route from Providence to Lowell.

In order to make another and much shorter line of communication between Providence and Lowell, and other important points in that direction, it is now in contemplation to build a railroad from Franklin to Metcalf Station (distance six miles), on the Boston and Albany branch railroad. At Metcalf Station the line will be direct to South Framingham, (over the Boston and Albany) where a road is already running to Lowell. This new line will bring Providence fifteen miles nearer to Lowell than now by railroad travel, and consequently to all other points in the great northeast. So important is this connection regarded, that $50,000 are already pledged for the work; and as the highest estimate of cost for building the link to Metcalf Station is $15,000 per mile—or say $100,000 for all—it will be seen that one half the entire cost is already as good as raised, and that too, as we know, almost without an effort. So great are the interests involved in this enterprise—those of Providence people perhaps more than all others—that it is not to be too confident to say that the full sum can be had almost at a day's notice.—Franklin (R. I.) Register.

Vertical Steam Engine.

The annexed engraving represents a vertical steam engine of 10 H. P., designed and constructed by the New York Safety Steam Power Company of 30 Cortlandt St., in this city, who were awarded a Centennial Exposition medal for engines and boiler. A glance at the accompanying engraving will show how neat a form for a vertical steam engine has been adopted by this company. The general appearance alone is attractive for its excellent proportions, neatness, symmetry and compactness; there are no sharp corners, no superfluous ornamentation, no complication of fittings.

The arrangement allows of easy access to the moving parts and bearings and the simple mechanism is perfectly fitted and finely finished. There is no other style of vertical engine which occupies so little room, and those parties who have only partially copied the general design have not put into the market any improvement over the original one. This 10 H. P. engine has a cylinder of 7 inches diameter, stroke 9 inches, makes 160 revolutions per minute, has a wheel 42 inches diameter by 7½ inches face which weighs 565 pounds. The company construct engines of this description from two to one hundred and twenty horse power and each engine is fitted with governor, stop-valve, cylinder oil cock, drip cocks, and a full set of oil cups and wrenches.

Besides vertical engines and boilers the company construct horizontal engines, and combined engines and boilers, all of exceedingly neat pattern, also vertical engines with link reversing motion especially designed for steam yachts. The dimensions of their steam yachts, launches, boilers and engines with a full list and description of their machinery will be sent on application.

Long Island Railroad.

An order of Justice Gilbert, of the Supreme Court, Kings county, was filed in the County Clerk's office, Brooklyn, on the 26th ult., appointing Thomas R. Sharpe receiver of the Long Island Railroad Company. The action in which the order was made was instituted by James Wood Wright against the company named. James Muiry and Samuel B. Smith got judgment against the defendant for $56,100 78 on October 28, 1874, which was recently assigned to plaintiff. An execution was issued May 23, 1877, which the Sheriff of Queens County returned with the indorsement that the defendant had no property in the latter county from which to satisfy the execution. Action was then brought to sequestrate the defendant's property and for a receiver of the railroad and all its personal and real effects and rolling stock. The bond of the receiver was fixed at $100,000. The sureties, who qualified in $200,000 each, are William B. Dinsmore and John Hoey.

Setting an Example.

The following, from the Philadelphia Ledger, probably has reference to the recent interference of the Lawrence and Newcastle Railroad (a leased line of the Pennsylvania Company,) with the laying of the track of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad at Mahoning town:

Railroad employees of rival companies are not likely to quarrel about "frogs" and intersections unless ordered to do so by their employers, or the representatives of the latter. And, after they have been drilled a few times to tear up opposition lines and effect by force that for which legislative or judicial authority cannot be obtained, it will be difficult to teach them that the same methods are not to be employed in settling little difficulties about wages and hours of work arising between themselves and the companies which employ them. In short, the officers of railway companies, and the superintendents and contractors employed by them, should set their employes a good example of submission to law, and an avoidance of all appeals to force.

☞ Charles D. Freeman has been elected President, and D. M. Zimmerman Secretary and Treasurer of the Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company. The directors are: John Lucas, Andrew K. Hay, James B. Dayton, Enoch A. Doughty, T. H. Dudley, Samuel C. Cooper, G. T. Da Costa, Chas. D. Freeman, John F. Starr, William C. Houston, John A. Merritt, George W. Steever and Joshua R. Jones.

☞ The Cape May Narrow Gauge Railroad Company have filed in the office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey a map of their route, to extend from Camden through Blackwoodtown, Turnersville, Cross Keyes, Stanton, Newfield, Vineland, Millville, Port Elizabeth, Dorchester and Goshen Creek, to Sea Grove and Cape May.

Financial and Commercial Affairs.

No very important changes have occurred in the Money line during the week. Reports of financial and commercial failures and embarrassments have been few, and of little moment, thus to some extent serving to strengthen confidence. Lenders have been comparatively liberal of accommodation to really responsible borrowers, whose wants have been apparently less urgent, partly owing to the tamer movements at the Stock Exchange, where toward the close the dealings fell off considerably in magnitude and interest. Call loans were quoted here at the close at 5@7, in most instances at 6@7 per cent, and very choice to prime mercantile credits were rated at 7@9 per cent per annum for the best names. The City bank exhibit of last week indicated a falling off in the loan and discount average of $1,896,400, and an increase in the item of circulation of $495,700. The average of deposits was further reduced $1,712,800. The legal tender reserve fell off $714,200; and the specie average was augmented $802,500. The City bank net reserve of specie and legal tender notes now shows an excess over the legal requirement of reserve to liabilities of $8,095,315, as against $7,578,825 the preceding week. The City bank exchanges in currency reached $437,387,453, or a daily average of $72,897,909. Currency is coming in from various points at the West, while the outflow to the South continues.

On Wednesday of this week the cash balances of the Treasury Department at Washington were of Currency, $17,976,002; special deposit of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $46,835,000; Coin, $128,453,706, including of Coin certificates, $33,815,000.

The outstanding amount of legal tender notes is $356,914,932. The National bank circulation is now $317,309,924 of currency notes and $1,432,120 of national gold bank notes. National Bank notes received at the Treasury Department last week for redemption were to the amount of $3,822,000. New national bank circulation has been issued during the month of October to the amount of $3,080,000, against which legal tenders to the aggregate of $2,424,000, or 80 per cent, are to be retired.

Government securities have been more sought after, chiefly on investment account, and have been quoted firmer, on lighter off-rings of the favorite issues. At the close on Wednesday the current quotations were as follows:

United States currency sixes, 121@121¼; do. 6s, 1881, registered, 110⅛@110¼; do. coupon, 110⅝@110⅞; do. 1865, new, registered, 105⅝@105⅞; do. coupon, 105⅝@105⅞; do. 1867, registered, 108¼@108⅜; do. coupon, 108⅜@108½; do. 1868, registered, 109¾@110; do. coupon, 109¾@110; do. ten-forties, registered, 107⅝@107¾; do. coupon, 108¼@108¾; do. five per cents, 1881, registered, 106¾@107; do. coupon, 107⅛@108; do. 4½ per cents, 1891, registered, 105¼@105⅜; do. coupon, 105¼@105⅜; do. 4 per cents, 1907, reg., 102¼@102⅜; Central Pacific Gold Bonds, 106½@107.

The amount of U. S. bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the National Bank circulation is $341,853,300, and $14,990,500 as security for public deposits.

The U. S. Sub-Treasury receipts in October were $71,616,655 (of which $8,810,552 from customs); payments, $70,680,990, (of which $1,034,678 of coin interest.)

The aggregate of the outstanding U. S. currency of all denominations, November 1st, was $373,292,734; including of old demand notes, $63,702 50; legal tender notes, $354,490,892; one year notes of 1863, $54,315; two year notes of 1863, $16,150; two year coupon notes of 1863, $23,950; compound interest notes, $291,150; fractional currency, $18,352,674 66.

State Bonds have been in fair request, and held with more firmness in the instances of the more popular loans, the offerings of which have been on a reduced scale. The favorites of the Railway Mortgage loans have been more freely purchased and quoted as a rule firmer. And in the line of Railway and Miscellaneous share property the business of the week has been less extensive on a weaker and variable market, closing heavily, under more or less of pressure from speculative sources. The falling off in the arrivals of wheat at prominent points in the interior has been used against the credit of the leading grain carriers.

Gold has been very moderately dealt in, and has varied little in price. Speculation has shown an utter lack of animation. The extremes of the price during the week have been 102⅝@102⅞, closing on Wednesday at 102¾, as against 102¾ on Wednesday of the preceding week. The specie outflow last week was only $248,780, making the total exports of specie hence since January 1, $23,792,106, against $41,485,204 the same time in the preceding year. The imports of specie at this port last week were $54,018, and since January 1st have been $12,482,179 as against $8,528,624 same time last year. The Customs demand for gold last week reached $1,675,000 or an average of $279,167 per day.

A much better supply of Foreign Exchange has been reported during the week, resulting from the more extensive produce exports. The demand has been moderate and the market toward the close quoted again weak and irregular. Bankers' sixty day bills on London closed on Wednesday at $4 80@$4 80⅛; sight bills on London at $4 84¼@$4 84¾ to the £ sterling. The week's imports of Dry Goods and general merchandise were to the specie value of $4,873,773 as against the very moderate amount of $2,901,027 the corresponding week of 1876. The week's import entries of Foreign Merchandise at New York included $929,015 of Dry Goods, and $3,944,758, of General Merchandise. The week's export of Domestic Produce and Miscellaneous Goods from this port were to the very liberal aggregate of $7,808,869, against $6,901,516 same week in 1876. Included in the exports of the week were about 59,000 bbls. Flour 1,900,000 bushels Wheat, and over 6,000,000 gallons Petroleum.

The income of the Government from internal revenues last week was about 2¾ millions, and from Customs last week again about two millions.

The exports of coin and bullion from San Francisco from Jan. 1 to Oct. 1 were $45,029,904 67.

More activity has been reported in the leading kinds of domestic produce, especially in Breadstuffs, Cotton and Provisions, but at variable prices. The receipts of Wheat at this port have been unusually heavy, resulting in a further decline in prices, though the market has been kept well under control by leading speculative operators, interested in sustaining it. The export movement has been very extensive. Provisions have been quoted stronger toward the close. Petroleum quoted lower. Naval Stores have been in more request. Foreign merchandise has been moderately active and quoted generally steady.

Metals have been fairly active and generally steady as to values. Eglinton Pig Iron quoted at $21@$24 50; Glengarnock $24 75@$25; Coltness $26 50@$27; No. 1 American Pig at $19@$20; No. 2 do. at $17 50@$18 50. Forge $16 @$17; American Rails at works $34@$38. Old Rails $18 @$19. Wrought Scrap $22@$23. Steel Rails, on the basis of $45@$47, with 12,000 tons reported sold to Eastern and Southern Railroads on p. t. Ingot Copper quiet on the basis of 17¾@17⅞ for early delivery.

Hardware, Boots and Shoes and Dry Goods have been less freely dealt in, but have not varied much as to values, in the instance of more important kinds of stock.

Under more liberal offerings of room on berth and tonnage on charter, Ocean freights have been quoted generally easier as to rates, on a moderately active inquiry for accommodation, chiefly from the Grain and Petroleum interests. Liverpool steamer rates at the close for Grain, quoted at 9d. Provisions, 40s.@50s.; Leather, 65s.@70s. Measurement Goods at 22s. 6d.@30s. per ton; Cotton, 11-32d. per lb. Liverpool, by sail. Cotton, ¼d.; @9-32d. Grain, at 8¼d.; Measurement Goods 15s. @25s.; Tobacco 27s. 6d.@32s. 6d; Grain rates on charter hence for Cork and orders left off at 6s. 6d.@7s. 3d.; for the Continent at 7s.@7s. 6d.; and from Baltimore for Cork and orders, 7s. 3d. and from Philadelphia at 6s. 9d.@7s. per quarter. Refined Petroleum hence for Cork and orders, 4s. 9d.@5s. 3d.; for the Continent, 4s. 3d.@4s. 9d. per bbl.

Pennsylvania Railroad.

At a meeting of the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., held in Philadelphia on the 31st ult., the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That notwithstanding the fact that the lines of this company are moving a large traffic, and at better rates than have prevailed during some time past, the Board of Directors deem it inadvisable to declare a dividend upon the capital stock at this time, believing it to be for the best interests of the shareholders to devote the net earnings to the restoration of the property, including the equipment, from the severe losses sustained, directly or indirectly, during the riots of July, 1877, and to the reduction of the floating obligations of the company.

☞ A despatch from Ottawa, Canada, says a party of American capitalists are there with the object of obtaining possession of, completing and running the Montreal and Ottawa Junction Railway, taking bonds and municipal grants as security.

☞ The sale of the New York and Oswego Midland Railroad has again been postponed to the 11th of January, 1878.

☞ Thomas W. Sharp and Frederick D. Tappan have been appointed Receivers of the Southern Railroad of Long Island.

☞ The Naugatuck Railroad is said to be the first road in the State of Connecticut to be equipped its whole length with steel rails. The New London Northern Railroad has put in this year steel rails to some distance above Yantic, and will continue the work next year to South Windham. The Housatonic Railroad has steel rails over half the line in the State and a portion of it in Massachusetts, and will lay about ten miles a year till all the iron rails are replaced.

☞ The gross earnings of the Southern Minnesota Railroad for the month of September, 1877, were $123,851, the expenses $41,683, and the net earnings $81,668. From January 1, to September 30, 1877, the earnings were $425,624, the expenses $272,434, and the net earnings $153,190. In 1876, the net earnings in September were only $8,676, and for the year to that date $127,506.

☞ The earnings of the Cincinnati Southern Railway for the fractional quarter ending September 30, 1877, were $61,709, the expenses $23,759, and the net earnings $37,950; from which deduct interest on capital paid in at 10 per cent per annum, $2,257, and 10 per cent of balance for operation of line, as per contract, $3,569—leaving a balance due trustees of $32,123.

☞ The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company pay interest due November 1, on $468,000 (Pottawatomie L. G.) 7s of 1879, half, or 1¾ per cent, cash, and the other half in five-year scrip, interest annually at 7 per cent. They also pay interest, Nov. 1, on $8,260 Pottawatomie 7 per cent scrip due 1881.

☞ Articles of association have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey of the Somerset and Essex Railroad, to run from Bridgewater, on the Bound Brook Railroad, to Roseville, near Newark, on the Morris and Essex Railroad, with a capital of $1,000,000, divided into $100 shares.

☞ The purchasers of the Peoria and Rock Island Railroad at the recent foreclosure sale have organized a new company to be known as the Rock Island and Peoria Railroad Company. The capital stock is fixed at $1,500,000. The offices of the new company will be at Rock Island, Ills.

☞ The Jackson, Miss., Tribune says that the sale of the Mississippi Central Railroad to the Illinois Central Railroad Company has been enjoined, and there is now a strong probability that Gen. Neely's receivership will be continued two years longer.

☞ The receipts of the Chicago, Danville and Vincennes Railroad from May 1, 1877, to August 31, 1877, were $67,045, and the disbursements $77,219. Balance on hand August 1, 1877, $20,386.

☞ The receipts of the Chicago and Pacific Railroad for the months of July and August, 1877, were $43,113 25, and the disbursements $32,570 13. Balance cash on hand $10,543 12.

☞ The earnings of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad for the month of September, 1877, were $322,896 09, the expenses $186,286 45, and the net earnings $136,609 64.

Railways as Pioneers.

The following is that portion of the Report of the Surveyor General of California to the Department at Washington, relating to railroads:

These civilizers of mankind have been in California, like everywhere else, potent agents in developing the slumbering wealth of the country. Mountains have been bored; burning deserts have been crossed; valleys, almost inaccessible to the agricultural pioneer and remote from the highways of commerce, have been reached by the iron horse; thriving settlements and villages have sprung up, and the cheerful voice of prosperous industry is now heard where a short time since the wild beast had his lair. Probably nowhere on earth has the railroad builder shown so much enterprise, and taken so many risks as in California.

Generally, railroads are only built through well settled counties, but in California, in many instances, they have been laid through regions almost destitute of population, the projectors trusting to the subsequent settlement of the country to make a profitable carrying business.

This is especially true, in relation to the Southern Pacific Railroad, which, during the last year, was completed as far as the Colorado river. This road has been constructed in the most substantial manner and at immense expense, through arid plains, over rugged mountains and hundreds of miles across burning deserts, as far as the town of Yuma, on the Colorado river, through a country that can give but little carrying business until redeemed by irrigation from the dominion of desolation. A large amount of the profits of the paying roads of California, must have been expended in the construction of this road; and large sums must still be expended in defraying the expenses of the running thereof before it can be made profitable, by reaching the rich agricultural and mineral regions of Eastern Arizona.

Railways of the United Kingdom.

BOARD OF TRADE ANNUAL REPORT.

The total mileage for the United Kingdom at the end of December, 1876, was 16,872 miles, including 11,989 miles for England, 2,726 for Scotland, and 2,157 miles for Ireland. The increase for the United Kingdom over the total in 1875 is 214 miles, which is much the same amount of increase as in 1875 over 1874. The percentage of increase is in both cases about 1.3 per cent., which is a small rate of increase as compared with what has often been witnessed, and much smaller than the rate of increase in 1874 and 1 or 2 years just previous. Almost the entire increase in 1876 has been in England and Wales, the increase in Scotland being 5 miles only and in Ireland 9 miles. The increase of double mileage is greater than the increase of the whole mileage. Of the above total of 16,872 miles the number of double miles was 9,169, and of single mile, 7,703; and comparing these with the corresponding details for 1875, we find that while the increase of double miles has been 271 there has been a decrease of 57 miles in the single mileage. In the absence of information on this point from the respective railway companies it is impossible to say whether the increase of double mileage is due for the most part to absolutely new constructions, or to the conversion of existing single mileage into double mileage. But it is evident from the increase of double mileage exceeding the increase of the whole mileage that the latter process is going on to some extent, and probably it is believed to a considerable extent. At the same time the similar process of lengthening sidings, and converting double into treble or more lines, is going forward, as we may infer from the fact that, while the addition to the mileage of railways in 1876 was only 1.3 per cent., the percentage addition to the capital, as will presently be noticed, was considerably greater.

The total nominal capital of the railways at the above date in 1876, was £658 214,776. As compared with the total on the corresponding date in 1875—£630,223,494—there is an apparent increase of £27,991,282 or about 4.4 per cent. A portion of this increase is only nominal, nearly £8,000,000 of it being due to an increase of the nominal capital of the North British and Caledonian Railways in connection with conversion operations. Still, making a deduction on this account, the remaining increase of about £20,000,000 amounts to 3.1 per cent., which is a considerably higher rate of increase than that of the mileage open for traffic, and so far confirms the suggestion that a considerable part of the increased capital of railways is expended on lines already open for traffic. It cannot be doubted that there is a steady increase of the capital cost per mile of open railway in the kingdom, and, as has been pointed out by Captain Tyler in his reports, there is a sufficient reason for an increase of this sort in the addition of sidings and other accommodation to exising lines to meet the increasing traffic. The principal part of the nominal as well as nearly the whole amount of the real increase in the capital in 1876 is in the guaranteed and preferential as distinguished from the ordinary share capital, and in the loans and debenture stock.

The amount of the guaranteed and preferential capital was in 1876 £228,907,992, or an increase of £16,714,668 as compared with 1875, while the amount of the loans and debenture stock was £167,297,901, or an increase of £3,868,461 as compared with 1875, making together an increase of £20,583,131 out of the above increase of £27,991,282 in the whole capital.

The amount of the ordinary capital again in 1876 was £262,008,883, or an increase of £7,408,161 as compared with 1875, but the greater part of this increase is apparently an increase of nominal capital only in connection with the conversion operations above referred to. Carrying the comparison a few years back it would seem that the ordinary capital of railway companies, although it is swollen to some extent by nominal additions, is nevertheless increasing very slowly in comparison with the guaranteed and preferential and the loan and debenture capital. In 1870 the ordinary capital of the companies was £229,282,150, so that the increase in 1876 to £262,008,883 amounts to £32,726,733, or about 14.3 per cent. In the same period, however, the guaranteed and preferential share capital increased from £158,692,084 to £228,907,992, an increase of £70,215,908, or about 44.2 per cent.; and the loans and debenture stock increased from £141,934,429 to £167,297,901, an increase of £25,363,462, or about 17.9 per cent. Even, therefore, if we make no allowance for that portion of the increase of ordinary capital which is only nominal, it would seem that its increase is considerably slower than that of other classes of capital. The proportion to the whole capital of railways is consequently diminishing. While it constituted in 1870 about 48 per cent of the capital, its proportion in 1876 was only 40 per cent. On the other hand, while the proportion of loans and debenture stock to the whole capital has slightly diminished in the same period, there has been a considerable increase in the proportion of guaranteed and preferential capital—viz, from 30 to 35 per cent. It has to be remembered, besides, that a considerable portion of the above ordinary capital, being the capital of lines leased by other companies, might more properly be classed as guaranteed or preferential, so diminishing the proportion of capital invested in railways which is not in some form or other guaranteed.

The item of "loans," which has been decreasing of late years, has now been reduced to a comparatively small amount. The total is now only £32,552,415 out of the above sum of £197,297,901 of loans and debenture stock together, the reduction effected in 1876 alone having been about £8,000,000. The transformation of "loans" into "debenture stock," which has been going on for some years, is thus approaching its completion, and the danger to railway finance from the existence of a large floating debt has to all intents and purposes disappeared. In addition many of the companies have effected a considerable economy by issuing their debenture stocks at lower rates than the average rates of interest on their loans.

The total receipts from railways working, excluding miscellaneous receipts of various kinds, amounted to £59,917,898, or an increase of nearly a million over the previous year; the working expenditure at the same time amounted to £32,472,729, or an increase of £274,000 over the previous year; and the net earnings amounted to £27,445,139, or an increase of £661,000 over the previous year. This last increase is at the rate of 2½ per cent. only, while the increase of nominal capital, as we have seen, amounted to about 4¼ per cent. The result, accordingly, is, that in spite of the increase of net earnings, there is a small reduction in their proportion to the total share and loan capital. The proportion amounts to 4.17 per cent, as compared with 4.23 per cent, in 1875. The proportion of net earnings to real capital has probably fallen off in a still smaller proportion, a portion of the increase of capital, as we have seen, being altogether nominal, and due to conversation operations. These are the net earnings from railway working alone. The corresponding figures, including the entire earnings of railway companies from miscellaneous sources, exhibit much the same changes, although the amounts and percentages are rather larger.

The gross receipts were £62,215,775, an increase of £978,775 over the previous year; the working expenses were £33,535,509, an increase of £314,781 over the previous year; and the net earnings were £28,680,266, which is an increase of £663,994. In consequence of the increase of capital, however, the percentage of the increased net earnings to the total share and loan capital is rather lower than it was the year previous, being 4.36, as compared with 4 45 per cent., but this falling off is also subject to the observation already made as to the increase of nominal capital. Altogether, neither in the net earnings from railway working alone, nor in the net earnings from all sources, was there any material change in the position of the companies as compared with the previous year. The net earnings are still rather smaller in proportion to the whole capital than they were in 1872 and 1873, when they amounted to 4.52 and 4.35 per cent, respectively for the railway working alone, and to 4.74 and 4.59 per cent. for the whole working; but in amount they have greatly increased since those years, their proportion to capital being kept down by the large simultaneous increase of capital.

With regard to the amounts and rates of interest or dividend paid on the various descriptions of capital, the total interest and dividend appears as £29,224,083, or in the proportion of 4.44 per cent. on the total capital, as compared with the above sum of £28,680,266, being the net earnings from the whole working of railways, which is in the proportion of 4.36 per cent. But the difference thus arising is inappreciable for the purpose in view, which is to compare amongst each other the returns obtained by the various descriptions of capital. Of this total of £29,224,083, then, it appears that the sum of £7,124,511 was paid to 'loans and debenture stock,' an increase of £167,000 as compared with the previous year, but the proportion to the 'loan and debenture capital' remaining the same—viz, 4.26 per cent. The sum of £10,259,719 was paid to the guaranteed and preferential capital, this being an increase of £625,000 as compared with the previous year, but the proportion to be guaranteed and preferential capital falling from 4.51 to 4.48 per cent.—partly, no doubt, in consequence of the merely nominal additions to the capital which have been made. The payment to the ordinary capital, however, shows a falling off in the amount as well as in the proportion as compared with the previous year, the reduction in amount being from £12,018,009 to £11,839,853, and in proportion to ordinary capital from 4.72 to 4 52 per cent. This last reduction is, no doubt, partly apparent only, as part of the increase in ordinary capital has been nominal only; but the reduction is real, at least to the extent that the amount paid to the ordinary shareholders has been diminished. The ordinary shareholder receives on the average rather a better dividend than the holders of other railway capital.

A statement of the different rates of interest paid to shareholders of ordinary capital shows that while 38¾ millions of capital received no dividend at all, 13 millions of capital received not more than 1 per cent., 4¼ millions 1 to 2 per cent., 10 millions 2 to 3 per cent., 26¼ millions 3 to 4 per cent., 26¼ millions 4 to 5 per cent., 70¼ millions 5 to 6 per cent., 44¼ millions 6 to 7 per cent., 21 millions 7 to 8 per cent., 1¼ millions 8 to 10 per cent., 5 millions 10 to 12 per cent., and upon a small amount of the capital between 12 and 13 per cent. was paid. It would appear from this that not only is the average payment about 4¼ per cent., but the greater part of the capital receives about the average dividend; the average is not made up by the fusion of opposite extremes. Of the whole ordinary capital, indeed, no less than 189 millions receive dividends varying between 3 and 8 per cent.; and as regards capital receiving no dividend, it must be remarked that a considerable amount of capital has been at various times issued at an enormous discount. Of the capital returned as unguaranteed, amounting to 81 millions, 19 millions received interest at 3 to 4 per cent., and 48¼ millions interest at 4 to 5 per cent., so that it appears that the principal part of this description of capital receives about an average rate. Of the preferential capital (148 millions) 9 millions received no dividend, but the largest portion (106¼ millions) received between 4 and 5 per cent. Of the 167 millions loans and debenture stock, too, 101 millions received 3 to 4 per cent., and 62¼ millions 4 to 5 per cent., leaving only a small amount receiving an exceptional interest. The above results do not show any noticeable change when compared with previous years, as the proportions at the different rates are about the same.

Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette R. R.

The gross earnings of this road for the year ending June 30, 1877, were $1,311,209, the expenses (59.14 per cent.) $775,426, and the net earnings $535,783. For the year ending June 30, 1876, the gross earnings were $1,637,061, showing a decrease in the last over the previous year of $325,851. The report of the receiver, from which the above is obtained, says:

As compared with the preceding year, our tonnage has decreased 26 per cent and our rates 1 per cent. We carried one mile 38,803,669 tons of freight, at the rate of 1.71 cents per ton per mile, against the rate of 1.73 last year. Of this 23,561,823 tons were carried eastward, at the average rate of 1.57 cents per ton per mile, and 15,241,846 tons westward at 1.94 cents per ton per mile. We carried 258,479 tons of freight east, against 330,924 tons the year before, and 168,329 tons west, against 227,469 tons the year before. As compared with 1873-1874, the best year this company ever had, there is a loss of 31 per cent in tonnage and 40 per cent in revenue. We carried 564,864 passengers, at the average rate of 2.59 cents per mile, against 2.70 cents last year. We have not been able to reduce our passenger service, while the earnings have largely decreased. We have kept the trains on, hoping business would return. Our freight trains have earned $1 66 per mile run, against $1 70 the year previous. Our cost per mile for all trains has been 70 cents, against 67 cents the year previous. We have had no construction account during the year, and all payments, including receiver's salary and court expenses, have been charged to expenses. We have renewed 24 2 miles of track with steel, making 68.7 miles in all of steel in the main line. We have also renewed 2.2 miles with re-rolled iron.

☞ At an election held at St. Joseph, Mo., on the 26th ult., it was voted to transfer the city's stock in the bridge at that point to the Union Pacific Railroad Company, provided they make the terminus of the road there.

Massachusetts Central Railroad.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Massachusetts Central Railroad Company, held in Boston on the 31st ult., the following gentlemen were chosen directors for the ensuing year: Andrew H. Green, Josiah H. Reed, Darius R. Mangam, Joseph Pool, Daniel J. Sprague, of New York; John Wooldredge, Charles A. Cutting, James M. Stone, of Boston; Francis Brigham, of Hudson; J. Edwin Smith, F. B. Shattuck, of Worcester; Lewis J. Dudley, of Northampton; Henry F. Hills, of Amherst; James S. Draper, of Wayland; Franklin Bonney of Hadley; Charles M. Harris, of West Boylston; Hiram Wadsworth, of Barre.

From the report of the directors we learn that the condition of the company has much improved during the year, and that contracts have been made with N. C. Munson and D. N. Stanton, of New York, for the speedy completion of the road From the report of the treasurer it appears that there was due treasurer Sept. 30, 1876, $329 32; expenses to Sept. 30, 1877, $6,927 33; receipts for the year, $6,953 08; balance due treasurer $303 57. The balances of ledger accounts condensed into form prescribed by the Railroad Commissioners were given as follows:

|---|---|
| Cost of road | $2,765,534 33 |
| Notes and accounts receivable | 42,541 01 |
| Total | $2,808,075 34 |
| Credit by capital stock | $1,767,616 98 |
| Funded debt | 995,000 00 |
| Notes payable | 42,925 46 |
| Individual credits | 12,532 95 |
| Total | $2,808,075 34 |

From these balances it appears that the various items included under the title, "Cost of road," have increased during the year $4,482 12; that the capital stock credit balance has increased $240; that the credit balance of notes payable account has increased $13,564 34, and those of all individual accounts $74 25, while about $10,000 of the rents have been charged off to reduce the "cost of road." Coupons Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 remain unpaid, and the assessments due and unpaid amount to $1,242,383 07.

Madeira and Mamore (Brazil) R. R.

We are just in receipt of a cable telegram from London announcing the execution of the contract there between "The Madeira and Mamore Railroad Company," limited, "The National Bolivian Navigation Company," and Messrs. P. & T. Collins, contractors, of this city, by which the latter agree to complete the graduation, masonry and superstructure and furnish the equipment of the railroad of the first named company. This road is projected from the present head of navigation on the Madeira river, a branch of the Amazon, in Brazil, to Bananeira Falls, on the Mamore river, on the borders of Bolivia, and is about 180 miles long, embracing the falls and rapids, which now render navigation impracticable. It is designed as a narrow gauge road, with iron rails of 45 pounds per yard, and will be used to transport the products of the Atlantic slopes of the Andes to the navigable waters of the Madeira river and thence down the Amazon. By an agreement with the contractors the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company will supply all the rails and other iron work and materials that will be required to construct and equip the road. The payments to the contractors will be about three-quarters in cash, for which the money is now in hand, and the remainder in the debentures of the railway company, guaranteed by the Government. The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company will receive for the materials furnished, covering an amount of some five millions of dollars, the cash on shipment from the port of Philadelphia.—Phila Ledger.

Lehigh Valley Railroad.

The extension of a branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad from the borough of Shenandoah down the valley of the same name, some five miles in length to the borough of Girardville, is quite an event in Schuylkill county—first the building a railroad, itself, in the coal region is of interest, as they rarely occur now, then to have a rival of the Reading in its especial domain is quite a significant fact. The whole line of this travel is over the Girard lands of the city of Philadelphia, but developes no new territory not already opened by the Reading Company's branches. Of the ten collieries of the city lands half of them can ship over the present Lehigh railroad. Several did, but changed to the Reading railroad and now but one or two ship over the former. This new branch is not therefore properly a coal road, as the Reading own nearly all the land and collieries near its route except that of the city as named above. It is a great convenience, however, for passenger and merchandise traffic, having direct communication via the Lehigh with New York and other points eastward. We hope to see it extended to Ashland, also a branch from Tamaqua to Pottsville. The more roads the better for Schuylkill county. —Miners' Journal.

Russian Railways.

The aggregate length of line in Russia on the 30th of June, 1877, was 18,737 versts, against 17,694 versts on the 30th of June, 1876. There are now 54 distinct lines of railway in operation in Russia. The aggregate receipts on the whole system during the six months ending June 30, 1877, were 81,338,487 rubles, (4,345 per verst), against 67,437,790 rubles (3,811 per verst) in 1876, showing an increase of 13,900,697 rubles. Out of the 54 lines making up the Russian system, 15 only show any diminution in receipts. The net increase of the first half-year of 1877 over that of 1876 is 14 per cent.

Worcester and Nashua Railroad.

He has since decided that the cancellation of the large number of bonds, in exchange for preferred stock was a full compliance with the provisions of the mortgage.

Massachusetts Central Railroad.

It will be noticed that at the recent meeting at Boston of the Massachusetts Central Railroad six new directors from New York were placed upon the regular board, with Andrew H. Green at their head. He takes his position on the Board of Directors with the distinct understanding that he is at once to become President of the corporation. These New York directors were elected because they will doubtless be able to negotiate the bonds of the road so as to raise enough for its completion. Mr. Munson, the original contractor and a heavy owner in the Central, is understood to be the prime mover in securing their assistance. Mr. Green also specifies as part of the bargain that he shall bring his own engineers, competent men, in whom he has confidence, to do the necessary engineering. The plan of operations is to retire all the bonds already issued, and issue new bonds upon a first mortgage. The holder of the bonds has given the officers of the road a contract to deliver them at a certain price. The towns along the line that still have unpaid subscriptions will be obliged to pay up if the road is built, the failure to build having thus far been successfully held by them as a reason why they should not pay. This infusion of new life and capital into the road will be welcome news to the towns all along the line. It may renew the faith of some in the road to rehearse that all along its line and in its natural field for support there is double the population, manufactures and wealth that there is along the line of the Fitchburg road; that from Northampton to Boston, the Central crosses nearly a dozen railroads, and that from the point of junction its own line is the shortest route to Boston. The meeting of Wednesday was adjourned one month to allow the perfecting of these plans. Mr. Munson is very confident that something will now be done.—Boston Journal, Nov. 3.

Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington Railway.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says that an order of confirmation has been made in the sale of the Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington Railroad, and then adds:

The order states that the report of sale filed October 19th is approved and confirmed, and the Commissioner of the court is directed, on behalf of all parties interested, to execute a deed to the purchaser, the Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington Railway Company. In making the conveyance, the Commissioner shall recite the execution of the special covenant of the purchaser to the city of Louisville, by which it bound itself to the payment of the one hundred bonds of $1,000 each; also, the execution of the special covenant to Joseph Patterson to pay $7,000, being the amount unpaid of the bonds included in the mortgage to Guthrie, McKnight and Bowles, of the Louisville and Frankfort Railroad Company; also, the execution of the special covenant to Norvin Green, trustee, for the payment of 3,000 bonds of $1,000 each; also, the execution of twenty purchase bonds of $36,575 each, payable respectively from three to sixty months. The Receiver is continued in his office after he shall have turned over the property, for the purpose of collecting any money due him, defending any suits now pending against him, prosecuting any in which he is now engaged, settling his accounts, etc. The action is retained for the purpose of enforcing the performance of the covenants, closing up the affairs of the Receiver's office, and making a final determination of this action. The court reserves the power to resume possession of the property when the purchaser shall make default in the performance of the covenants or sale of bonds.

Southern Maryland Railroad.

The Circuit Court, which recently closed its session at Marlboro', Prince George's county, Md., passed an order rescinding the order of June last which directed the sale of the Southern Maryland Railroad, now being constructed between Washington and Point Lookout, Md. The order for the sale was issued in June by Judge Magruder at the instance of C. J. Harrah and others, of Philadelphia, in combination with the creditors of the road. Subsequently Chief Justice Brent granted an injunction upon the application of Van Riswick, Darling and other stockholders, restraining the sale, and, the case coming before the full bench at Marlboro', the order of sale was rescinded, as above mentioned. This decision sustains the claim of certain stockholders and Col. Samuel S. Smoot to $700,000 of the securities of the road under the contract of that gentleman with the company.

Railroads in Ohio.

On the 1st inst. there were but 3,000 feet of iron to lay to connect the two track-laying parties on the Scioto Valley Railroad. The unfinished portion was in section 9, below Stony Creek. It was expected that the iron for this portion would arrive on the 3d inst., when it would be at once put in position and the last spike driven, thus completing the road from Columbus to Portsmouth.

About five miles of the Tuscarawas Valley Railroad west from Bridgeport, is ready for the ties, while the bridges and other heavy work are being pushed forward with vigor.

An article is being signed to procure a charter to build a road from Urbana to Troy, and Eaton in Preble county.

An effort is being made by the people of Toledo to have the Ann Arbor and Toledo railroad opened. A large portion of the grading has been completed for some time. The road will enter Toledo in the vicinity of the Columbus and Toledo depot, and will, when completed, be of immense advantage to the latter road, as it opens up a new section of Michigan to the coal traffic.

The directors and stockholders of the Cincinnati and Eastern Railroad Company have agreed to render all the aid possible for the construction of the Hillsboro and Sardinia narrow gauge railroad, for the building of which all necessary subscriptions have been secured. This road will prove an important feeder to the Cincinnati and Eastern Railroad.

Regular trains are now run on the Dayton and Southeastern Railroad from Dayton to Musselman's, at their juncture with the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad.

Work on the Springfield, Jackson and Pomeroy road, is being rapidly pushed between Washington and Greenfield.

A narrow gauge road is proposed from Mc Connelsville to the Perry county coal fields.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger says that the litigation in reference to the lease of the United Companies of New Jersey to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company would seem to be at an end. The parties who applied to Judge Mitchell for an injunction to restrain the payment of the quarterly rent due on the 10th ultimo have authorized the discontinuance of that suit, and it will probably never be heard of more.

☞ A meeting of the Directors of the Manhattan Railway Company was held on the 6th inst. at No. 18 William street. William L. Scott, John Ross, and M. Courtright resigned as Directors, and in their places Cyrus W. Field, William T. Pelton, and A. H. Barney were chosen. Mr. Pelton was subsequently elected President of the company.

☞ The Waynesboro', Penn., Record says that the success of the Harrisburg and Potomac railroad is now assured. The Messrs. Dacy, of Boston, have articled for the building of the railroad bridge between New Cumberland, on the Cumberland county side, and Ewington, on the Dauphin county side of the Susquehanna river, below Harrisburg, and the completion of the road as far as Waynesboro.'

Northern Pacific Railroad.

Mr. H. E. Sargent has been appointed General Manager to fill the vacancy existing since 1875. His head quarters are at St. Paul, and he is charged with the general supervision of the local and operative affairs of the division. Gen. Thomas L. Rosser has been appointed resident engineer with headquarters at Brainerd. He is charged with the engineering works of the company in Minnesota and Dakota, and with the maintenance of permanent way and bridges. George G. Sanborn has been appointed General Freight and Passenger Agent, with headquarters at St. Paul. It is understood that work will be commenced at once on the road, with a view of reaching the coal fields, some 20 miles distant from Bismark, before winter sets in.

☞ The Pittsburg Chronicle says that the work of building the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad is progressing satisfactorily. The sub-letting has been awarded, and the entire line is now under contract. Ground has been broken on every section. The Ohio river bridge, opposite Rochester, is also progressing rapidly; the first of the four piers has reached a height of 10 feet above the foundation, and the coffer dam for the second one has been completed. The headquarters of the contractor have been permanently established in Rochester.

☞ The connecting rails at Greenfield, between Manchester and Keene, and the Wilton and Nashua (N. H.) Railroads, have been laid. The work will at once be commenced of laying the rails between Greenfield and Bennington. The contract has been given out between Bennington and Hancock. The work will be immediately begun. Two new depots are to be built, one at Bennington and one at Hancock. The work on the road is progressing finely. Mr. Daws, the contractor, is in hopes to complete the road according to the specification in the contract.

☞ The Shenandoah (Penn.) Herald says that a large force of men are employed grading a railroad track for the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, between Lost Creek and Girardville. It is the intention of the company to run the road to Ashland, but at present the track will only be laid to Girardville. It will be called the Lost Creek branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. The road to Girardville will be a continuation of what is known as the breaker siding.

☞ Negotiations are in progress for building a narrow gauge railroad from Quincy, Ill., north along the Mississippi river to Warsaw, over 35 miles. This road, when built, will connect at the former place with the Quincy, Payson and Southeastern Narrow Gauge Railroad to run across the State of Illinois to the Wabash river.

☞ The mortgage of the Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Kentucky Railroad Company, securing the sum of $200,000 to Thomas D. Measler, of Pittsburgh, and W. P. Hubbard, of Wheeling, was admitted to record in the Ohio County (West Va.) Clerk's office on the 31st of October.

Morris and Essex Railroad.

The following decision was rendered in the United States Supreme Court at Washington on the 29th ult :

No. 343.—State of New Jersey and the Morris and Essex Railroad Company vs. Yard, Commissioner of Railroad Taxation.—Error to the Court of Errors and Appeals of New Jersey.—In this case it is held that a statute of a State which declares that any charter of a corporation granted after its passage may be altered, amended, or repealed by the Legislature does not necessarily apply to supplements to a charter already passed, though the supplement be subsequent to the statute, nor does a provision in a supplement to the charter which says that this supplement (and the charter to which it is a supplement may be altered or amended by the Legislature) apply to a contract with the company made in a supplement passed long after. Such reservations to the right to repeal found in statutes, unlike similar provision in the constitution of a State, are only binding on succeeding Legislatures so far as they choose to adopt them, and a legislative contract may be made which is not repealable if the Legislature so intend. It is therefore, in any case, a question whether the Legislature making a contract intended that the former provision for repeal or amendment should become a part of the new contract by implication. In this case it is said the contract of 1865 for a specific rate of taxation is inconsistent with any such implication. There was a subject of dispute and a fair adjustment of the controversy for a valuable consideration on both sides. The contract assumed by the requirements of the Legislature spoke of a formal written contract signed by both parties, and the terms of contract —that this tax shall be in lieu and satisfaction of all other taxation or imposition whatever by or under the authority of the State—when viewed in the light of the whole transaction, do not admit an idea of the right of the State to revoke it at pleasure. Reversed. Justice Miller delivered the opinion. Justice Bradley took no part in the decision.

Railways of the United Kingdom.

BOARD OF TRADE ANNUAL REPORT,

The increase of receipts, says the report, apparently is divided in pretty equal proportions between the passengers and goods traffic. The receipts from passenger traffic amounted to £26,163,551, or £448,870 more than in 1875. The receipts from goods traffic amounted to £33,764,317, or £486,245 more than in 1875. The goods increase is rather the largest in amount, but the percentage of increase is not greater owing to the larger amount on which the increase has occurred. It appears, however, that these results have been obtained along with a larger proportionate increase of passenger train mileage than of goods train mileage.

The passenger train mileage was 105,919,000 miles, or 5,188,000 miles, (being 5 per cent.) more than in 1875. The goods train mileage was 106,139,000 miles, or 1,504,000 miles (being 1½ per cent.) more than in 1875. The receipts per train mile from passenger traffic have accordingly fallen from 60.06d. in 1875 to 58.63d. in 1876, while the receipts per train mile from goods traffic have increased from 75.32d. to 75.78d. The increase in the passenger traffic has thus in all probability not been beneficial in the way of an increase of net earnings to the railway companies, the increase of 5 per cent. in the working being far more than double the percentage increase of passenger receipts. The increase in goods traffic would, on the other hand, be profitable, being accompanied by a comparatively small increase in the working.

No doubt the increase of working expenses as above mentioned has been very small in amount, and has certainly not been in proportion to the increase of train mileage, but the smallness of the increase must be due to the diminution of the cost of working from other causes, but for which the additional train mileage would no doubt have added in some degree to the cost of working. An analysis of the increase of passenger traffic would seem to account for the addition to the working which has been necessary. It is almost exclusively an increase of third-class traffic, the receipts from both first and second class passengers, though not from other sources, having declined.

The receipts from first class in 1876 were £4,566,271 ; in 1875, £4,725,506 ; decrease, £159,235. The receipts from second class in 1876 were £3,659,116 ; 1875, £3,842,592 ; decrease, £183,476. The receipts from third class in 1876 were £13,615,961 ; 1875, £12,985,829 ; increase, £630,132. The receipts from season tickets in 1876 were £1,216,333 ; 1875, £1,151,248 ; increase, £65,185. The receipts from excess, luggage, &c. in 1876 were £3,102,590 ; 1875, £3,009,060 ; increase, £93,530. The pressure of the times, or other causes, has thus taken from the first and second class traffic and added to the third class traffic, for the accommodation of which traffic more trains than formerly have apparently been required. In any case, whatever may be the cause of the increase of passenger train mileage, the magnitude of the increase cannot but have neutralized to the railway companies the increase of receipts from that traffic ; and if that cause has not been the additional accommodation requisite for the great increase of third class traffic, it would be for those interested to endeavor in some way to account for the increase. It might have been possible to throw more light on this point if the companies gave returns of the numbers of different classes of passengers carried per mile ; but, in the absence of such returns, the facts as to passenger journeys would seem to support the inference that the increase of third class traffic on railways has added greatly to the amount of the working.

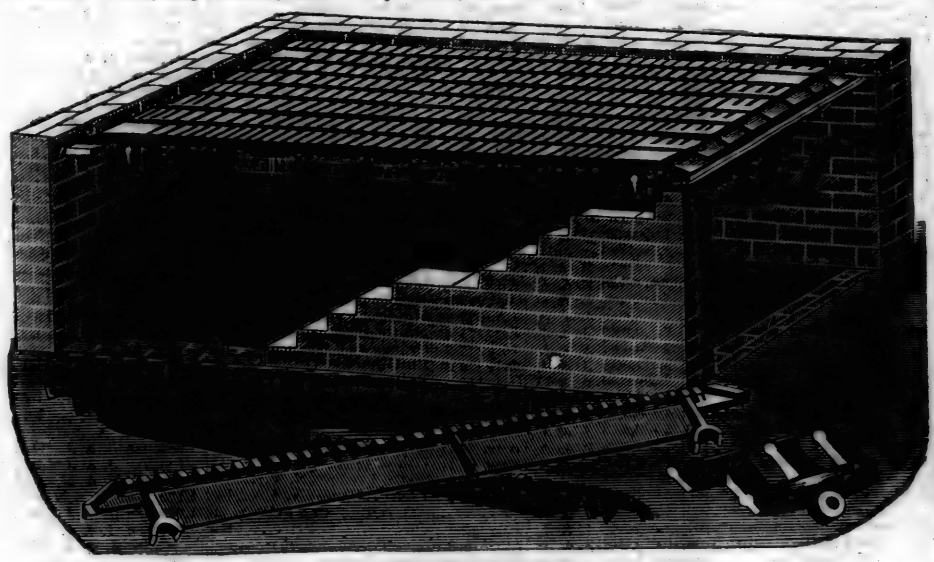
First class passenger journeys in 1876 were 44,859,066 ; in 1875 were 43,708,886 ; increase, 1,150,180. Second class passenger journeys in 1876 were 66,478,195 ; in 1875 were 70,525,171 ; decrease, 4,046,976. Third class passenger journeys in 1876 were 426,950,034 ; in 1875 were 392,741,177 ; increase, 34,208,857. Thus the third class passenger journeys have increased about 9 per cent. while first class passenger journeys have increased very little, and second class passenger journeys have largely decreased. Passenger journeys are, do doubt, a most incomplete test, but taken in connection with all the circumstances the facts concerning them appear to corroborate the probability of the great additional work thrown on the railway companies by the increase of their third class traffic at the expense of the other classes.

It is a curious circumstance that there is an increase of the first class passenger journeys along with a decrease of the receipts. Possibly this may be partly due to a disproportionate increase of short journeys ; but so far as an increase is not the occasion of the change, the falling off in the receipts would be due to a lowering of fares. The special decrease of second class passenger receipts and journeys is, perhaps, partly due to the continued effect of the abolition of second class carriages on the Midland railway system, the decrease in the journeys being almost exclusively in England and Wales, and not in Scotland and Ireland. But this cannot certainly be affirmed, as the Midland change had been in operation all through 1875. In Scotland it may be noted, contrary to the experience of both England and Ireland, there has been in 1876 an increase of both first class passenger receipts and journeys.

Analysing the goods traffic in a similar manner, we find that the increase of £486,000 is made up in the following manner : The mineral traffic is £13,520,213, or £114,930 and 0.9 per cent. more than in 1875 ; general merchandise, £18,985,090, or £354,610 and 1.9 per cent. more than in 1875 ; live stock, £1,230,948, or £26,400 and 2.2 per cent. more than in 1875. The increase is thus least of all in minerals and greatest in general merchandise and live stock, the amount of the latter traffic being insignificant compared with that of the other two classes. These proportions in the rate of increase of mineral traffic as compared with general merchandise are contrasted with the experience of the previous year, in which there was an increase of nearly a million over 1874 in the receipts from mineral traffic and of £255,000 only in the receipts from general merchandise, and are also different from the experience of 1874, in which there was a slight diminution of the mineral traffic, coupled with a moderate increase of the general merchandise traffic.

Coming to the working expenditure, we find that while the receipts per passenger train mile as above stated have fallen last year 1.43d. (from 60.06d. to 58.63d.), and the receipts per goods train mile have increased 0.46d. (from 75 32d. to 75 78d.) the receipts per mile generally have fallen 0 90d. (from 67.56d. to 66.66d.) This contrasts with a falling off of 0.75. in the expenditure per train mile (from 36.88d. to 36.13d.) In spite of some economy in the working, therefore, the net result per mile run to the railway companies was less in 1876 than in 1875 by the difference between 0 90d. and 0 75d., or 0 15d. per train mile. In the aggregate the net earnings have increased, but this was because a great many more miles were run, so that a less return per mile yields in the aggregate a larger sum.

The proportion per cent. of the expenditure to traffic receipts, though rather less than in 1875, was still very high, viz., 54.2 per cent. For the last four years the proportions have been—1873, 54 per cent. ; 1874, 55.6 per cent, ; and 1876, 54.2 per cent. ; all as compared with a proportion of only 48.8 per cent. in 1870. The difference of a penny per train mile, as may be remarked, amounts to about a million sterling, and of 1 per cent. in the proportion of expenditure to receipts to about £600 000, so that there would be an enormous addition to the net earnings of the companies if they could get back to anything like the level of 1870.



There was a slight increase in the rolling stock in 1876 as compared with 1875. The number of locomotives is 12,994, or 0.77 per open mile as compared with 0.75 in 1875. The number of carriages used for the conveyance of passengers only is 27,191, or 1.61 per open mile compared with 1.57 ; other vehicles attached to passenger trains 10,485, or 0.62 per mile compared with 0.61 ; wagons of all kinds for minerals, live stock, and general merchandise, 356,121, or 21.11 per mile compared with 20 85 ; and all other carriages and wagons not previously included, 10,780, or 0.64 per mile compared with 0.61 ; the total of vehicles, excluding locomotives, being 404,527, or 23.98 per mile compared with 23.64. This increase of rolling stock is, of course, one cause of the increased capital expenditure per mile open, to which reference was made in the early part of this report. In conclu ion the report states :

The extent of the system has been increased very little during the year, only 1.3 per cent., but the double mileage has increased 3 per cent., showing the conversion of single into double miles. The capital at the same time has increased 4.4 per cent., but part of the increase is in nominal capital only ; and the capital per mile open has increased 3.1 per cent. The ordinary capital, however, has increased more slowly than the total capital, or only 2.9 per cent. At the same time the traffic has increased 1.6 per cent., or rather less than the rate of increase of capital ; but the working expenditure has increased more slowly still, or only 0.9 per cent. ; so that the increase of net earnings is 2 4 per cent., more nearly approaching the rate of increase of capital. The receipts, expenditures, and net earnings per train mile have all decreased slightly. The result is (1) a slight diminution of the percentage of net earnings on the whole capital viz., from 4.55 to 4.36 per cent., a reduction which would be still less in reality to those concerned, allowing for the increase in nominal capital as distinguished from an increase of actual capital outlay ; and (2) a rather larger, but still not a large, diminution of the dividend paid on the ordinary capital, viz., from 4.72 to 4.52 per cent., a diminution which would also be less if allowance were made for the infusion of merely nominal capital. These are the results in a year in which the increase of traffic has been at a lower rate than at any time since 1858, the average rate having been in that period 5.26 per cent., while last year it was only 1.59 per cent. They are also the results at a time when the rate of working expenses is at a high level compared with the whole period prior to 1872. The result to railway capitalists in the circumstances cannot be deemed unfavorable on the average, though the average is, no doubt, composed in part of some unfavorable extremes. As regards the public use of railways, the facts stated as to the increase of third class traffic, as well as of minerals and goods conveyed, would appear to show that that use has been increased in 1876 in a greater degree than the return to the owners of the railway system.

A Fuel-Saving, Steam-Producing, Oscillating Grate.

The grate illustrated here was patented February 13th, April 23d, and July 30th, 1872. Since that time it has been extensively introduced as a simple, reliable and economical shaking grate, especially designed for furnaces under marine, stationary and locomotive boilers; it is applicable, however, for all furnaces and may be justly claimed as one of the best oscillating grates ever invented; an investigation and trial will corroborate this statement. One person can easily operate the hand lever used in shaking up the fire. The movement breaks up the clinker and prevents its formation upon the bars. It sifts the ashes, levels the fuel, opens up and loosens the fire, and brings the entire body of burning material into uniform action. For further information apply to Alfred J. Wolf, 120 Wall Street, in this city, where the grate and its good features can be seen and understood. A bronze medal

THE ÆTNA GRATE.

(the highest premium for this class of exhibits) was awarded by the American Institute, New York, in 1876.

United States Supreme Court.

The following decisions, among others, were rendered by the United States Supreme Court at Washington on the 5th inst.:

No. 51. Lake Shore and Michigan Southern R. R. Co. vs. Rose, Collector, etc.—Error to the Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio. In this cause the Court affirms a judgment against the Company for the amount of a tax on certain interest paid to its bondholders, assessed a few days subsequent to the payment, holding that the proper construction of the internal revenue laws warranted the assessment and collection, the liability to taxation being intended to be continuous. The interest paid to the bondholders matured July 31st, 1870, and was paid to them within ten days thereafter, without any amount being withheld on account of taxes. The tax was assessed on the 14th of the same month. Mr. Justice Swayne delivered the opinion.

No. 241. Union Pacific Railroad Company vs. Durant.—Appeal from the Circuit Court for the District of Nebraska. This was the action of the Union Pacific Company to recover of Durant and wife the real estate conveyed to him at Omaha while President and General Manager of the road, on the ground that it was conveyed in trust for the company, and not for his own use. The court below sustained the title of Durant, but the decree is here reversed, the court holding that the conveyance to Durant was in effect conveyance to the company, and, in conclusion, remarking that the conduct of Durant, stripped of the verbiage with which it has been clothed, and viewed in its nakedness, strongly offends the moral sense of the judicial mind. Mr. Justice Swayne delivered the opinion.

No. 87. Henry County vs. Nicolay.—Error to the Circuit Court for Western District of Missouri. This was the affirmance of a judgment against the county, obtained on bonds issued in aid of the Clinton and Memphis branch of the Tebo and Neosho Railroad, the Court concurring with the construction given to the provision of the Constitution relied on to defeat the bonds by the Courts of the State, that it does not apply to branch roads built under the act granting the original charter. Mr. Justice Bradley delivered the opinion.

☞ It is expected that the first passenger train on the Montreal, Ottawa and Occidental Railway will reach Ottawa by the 12th inst. The run will be made in about 4½ hours. The road is substantially constructed and well equipped.

☞ The Stratford and Huron (Canada) Railway has been completed to the boundary of Ellice township, twelve miles north of Stratford. A train of cars has been placed on the line for local traffic.

☞ An effort is being made to run a branch line of the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway to Arthur Village.

Railways in Japan.

A report of the Secretary of the Belgian Legation in Japan states that the first railway opened in Japan was the Yokohama and Tokio, 18 miles long, of narrow gauge, and with carriages of light construction, similar to tramway cars. The journey from Yokohama to Tokio occupies about an hour. A prolongation from Tokio to Tagasaki is now being studied. The Kobe and Osaka line, 22 miles long, was opened in 1873, and that from Osaka to Saikio or Kioto in February, 1877. These two are of broader gauge, with substantial works, well built stations and the usual type of rolling stock. The three have been built and superintended by English talent, and the materials and rolling stock come from England. The line from Kobe to Saikio is to be completed by a line to Isuruga. The idea of connecting Saikio with Tokio is abandoned for the present, the treasury being too heavily loaded, the debt contracted to the date of the report having been 152 million yens, or 886 million francs. With regard to tramways, a Belgian Company is endeavoring to obtain the concession for one at Tokio.

Fuel Used to Smelt a Ton of Iron.

In January, 1876, the Cedar Point Furnace at Port Henry, N. Y., made iron with a consumption of 1.26 tons of anthracite coal to a ton of pig iron. The Crown Point Furnace at Port Henry, uses 1.64; the Bay State Iron Company, at the same place, uses 1.33, and the Fletcher Furnace, at Buffalo, uses 1.899 of anthracite and 0.28 ton of coke, or 1.427 tons of the mixture. In 1871, at the Glendon Iron works in the Lehigh Valley, Pa., an open top furnace used 1.19 tons of anthracite coal; in 1872, the same furnace with a small cone top used 1.825 tons; and in 1873, the same furnace with a double cone top used 1.205 tons. The Thomas Iron Company, in the Lehigh Valley, Pa., in the last six months of 1875, used an average of 1.75 (which at $3 41 a ton, cost $5 96); in the five years embraced in the period from 1869 to 1873 their average consumption was 1.978 tons.

☞ The Governor of Tennessee has issued a proclamation convening the Legislature in extraordinary session on the 5th of December, to enter upon the following legislative business: To consider the recommendation of the arbitrators, in conference at New York, March, 1877, to adjust the State debt by the issuance of new 6 per cent bonds at the rate of 60 per cent of the total amount of principal and past due interest; to levy tax sufficient to meet the interest on the new bonds; to provide a sinking fund for the extinguishment of the debt and a more efficient collection of revenue.

☞ The Hastings and Dakota Railroad, now 74 miles in length, is to be immediately extended 30 miles beyond Glencoe, its present terminus. Ultimately this road is to reach the Missouri River.

☞ Buffalo is to have new and direct railroad connection with the Bradford oil districts of Pennsylvania, through the organization of the Olean, Bradford and Warren Narrow Gauge railroad.

☞ The final decree in the case of Duncan, Iselin & Wilson against the Mobile and Ohio Railroad was entered in the Circuit Court of the United States, at Mobile on the 1st inst., confirming the validity of the Tennessee substitution bonds. The opinion in this case was delivered some months since.

Financial and Commercial Affairs.

The observance of Election Day as a close legal holiday in financial and commercial circles restricted the business of the week, which was otherwise less animated, calling for less of aid in the loan and discount line, and Money was quoted quite generally easier for the borrowing interest. The changes in the city bank averages have not been important, outside of the decrease in Specie, and the reduction in the deposit lines. A moderate gain in legal tender reserve and an enlargement of the item of circulation were reported. Call loans were quoted here at the close at from 4@7, in most instances at 6@7 per cent to the Stock Exchange operators, and very choice to prime mercantile credits were rated at 6@8 per cent per annum for the best names. The City bank exhibit of last week indicated a falling off in the loan and discount average of $70,800, and an increase in the item of circulation of $480,600. The average of deposits was further reduced $1,483,800. The legal tender reserve was enlarged $296,800; and the specie average was diminished $1,386,500. The City bank net reserve of specie and legal tender notes now shows an excess over the legal requirement of reserve to liabilities of $7,876,575, as against $8,095,815 the preceding week. The City bank exchanges in currency reached $458,025,653, or a daily average of $76,337,609. Currency is coming in more freely from various points at the West; to the South the outflow continues, chiefly in requirements of the increasing volume of trade in Cotton.

On Wednesday of this week the cash balances of the Treasury Department at Washington were: of Currency, $17,317,028; special deposit of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $38,390,000; Coin, $132,852,829, including of Coin certificates, $34,676,100.

The outstanding amount of legal tender notes is $354,490,892. The National bank circulation is now $317,567,111 of currency notes and $1,432,120 of national gold bank notes. National Bank notes received at the Treasury Department last week for redemption were to the amount of $4,092,000.

Though not remarkably active, Government securities have been in fair request, chiefly on investment account, and values have been fairly supported, on quite moderate offerings of the favorite issues. At the close on Wednesday the current quotations were as follows:

United States currency sixes, 121½@122; do. 6s, 1881, registered, 110¼@110½; do. coupon, 110⅝@110¾; do. 1865, new, registered, 105¾@106; do. coupon, 105¾@106; do. 1867, registered, 108⅜@108⅝; do. coupon, 108½@108⅝; do. 1868, registered, 110@110½; do. coupon, 110½@110½; do. ten-forties, registered, 107¾@108; do. coupon, 108¼@108½; do. five per cents, 1881, registered, 106⅝@106⅞; do. coupon, 106⅝@106¾; do. 4½ per cents, 1891, registered, 105¼@105⅜; do. coupon, 105½@105⅝; do. 4 per cents, 1907, reg., 102¼@102⅜; do. coupon, 102⅜@102⅝; Central Pacific Gold Bonds, 106½@106¾.

The amount of U. S. bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the National Bank circulation is $343,811,900, and $14,945,500 as security for public deposits.

State Bonds have been quoted generally stronger in price, and have been in rather better request, especially in the instances of the more popular loans, which have been offered with reserve. The favorites of the Railway Mortgage loans have been moderately active, and as a rule quoted stronger. And in the line of Railway and Miscellaneous share property the business of the week has been on a restricted scale, and the fluctuations in price have been frequent, and, in instances, quite sharp, the market leaving off rather tamely and irregularly.

Gold has shown little animation and has been without important change as to price. Speculative dealings have been comparatively light. At the close the market ruled somewhat stronger though not active. The extremes of the price during the week have been 102⅝@102⅞, closing on Wednesday at 102⅞, as against 102¾ on Wednesday of the preceding week. Reports and rumors from Washington, relative to the probable course of legislation, on financial issues, have had thus far, slight influence on the general market. The specie outflow last week was only $261,657, making the total exports of specie hence since January 1, $24,053,763, against $41,681,754 the same time in the preceding year. The imports of specie at this port last week were $31,550, and since January 1st have been $12,513,729 as against $8,532,648 same time last year. The Customs demand for gold last week reached $1,503,104 or an average of $250,517 per day.

Foreign Exchange has been in moderate request and quoted weak in price, influenced, in part, by the extensive produce exports and resulting liberal supply of produce bills. Bankers' sixty day bills on London closed on Wednesday at $4 80@$4 80½; sight bills on London at $4 84@$4 84½ to the £ sterling. The week's imports of Dry Goods and general merchandise were to the specie value of $5,682,816 as against the very moderate amount of $7,550,080 the corresponding week of 1876. The week's import entries of Foreign Merchandise at New York included $854,891 of Dry Goods, and $4,778,425, of General Merchandise. The week's export of Domestic Produce and Miscellaneous Goods from this port were to the value of $6,089,004, against $4,583,849 same week in 1876. Included in the exports of the week were nearly 2¼ million bushels Wheat.

The income of the Government from internal revenues last week was about 2¼ millions, and from Customs last week again about two millions.

The public debt statement for November 1, showed a liquidation, in October, of $4,286,554.

The dealings in the leading kinds of domestic produce have been quite extensive, notably so in Breadstuffs, prices of which, after opening heavily, left off in favor of sellers, influenced in part by the more favorable tenor of the foreign advices. Provisions, Petroleum and Naval Stores have been quoted weaker. Cotton firmer, and toward the close brisker. Foreign merchandise has been quiet and quoted rather easier in price.

There has been recently a somewhat tamer movement in Metals, especially in Pig Iron, and new Rails, with prices, showing less firmness, Eglinton Pig Iron quoted at $24@$24 50; Glengarnock $24 75@$25; Coltness $26 50@$27; No. 1 American Pig at $19@$20; No. 2 do. at $17 50@$18 50. Forge $16 @$17; American Rails at works $34@$38. Old Rails $18 @$19. Wrought Scrap $22@$23. Steel Rails, on the basis of $45 @$47. Ingot Copper quiet on the basis of 17¾@17⅞ for early delivery.

Hardware, Boots and Shoes and Dry Goods have been moderately sought after and have been quoted generally easier as to values, though in the instance of more important kinds of stock the changes have not been of much importance.

Ocean freights have been less active and quoted generally lower. Liverpool steamer rates at the close for Grain, quoted at 8@8½d. Provisions, 35s. @45s.; Leather, 65s.@70s. Measurement Goods at 20s.@27s. 6d. per ton; Cotton, 5-16d.@ 11-32d. per lb. Liverpool, by sail. Cotton, ¼d @9-32 d. Grain, at 8d.; Measurement Goods 15s.@20s.; Tobacco 25s..@30s.; Grain rates on charter hence for Cork and orders left off at 6s. 6d.@7s.; for the Continent at 6s. 7½@7s. 3d.; and from Baltimore for Cork and orders, 7s., and from Philadelphia at 6s. 9d.@7s. per quarter. Refined Petroleum hence for Cork and orders, 4s. 4½d.@5s.; for the Continent, 4s. 4d.@4s. 6d. per bbl.

Erie Railway.

A decree of foreclosure and sale of the property, rights, franchises, etc., of the Erie Railway Company has been granted by Judge Donohue, in Supreme Court, Chambers. The decree was granted in the suit of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company against the Erie Railway Company and others, that being one of the two suits in which the Receiver's appointment was made about two years ago. The first sets forth the mortgages now on the company's property. These include what are known as the "old mortgages" on the Erie Railway proper, and in amount are as follows: First mortgage, $2,482,000; second, $2,174,000; third, $4,852,000; fourth, $2,937,000, and fifth, $709,500. The new mortgages are as follows: The sixth, made to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company on Sept. 1, 1870, $16,656,000, on which also $2,673,245 of interest is due; and seventh, containing two parts, one for $10,000,000 and the other for $15,000,000, on which $1,898,020 80 and $2,855,312 50 of interest became due, respectively, on the 1st inst. The amount due by the Erie Railway Company on these accounts amounts to $62,167,078 30.

The decree then recites the other suits which were brought by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, where the Erie Company has property, in aid of the suit in the Supreme Court here. These suits are now pending. A recital is then made to the effect that the bondholders of the Erie Company have appointed agents to form a new company under the laws of this State. To this new company, when organized, the decree authorizes the sale of the present company's effects to be made, provided the new corporation is the highest bidder. The decree also authorizes the transfer of a bid to the proposed new company, as well as the assigning of executory contracts. George Ticknor Curtis is appointed the Referee to sell the company's property. The Farmers' Loan and Trust Company is permitted to abandon and disclaim leasehold estates and interests on notice to the Referee. The sale of the property is to take place in this City, and is to be for cash. The property is to be sold subject to the Receiver's contracts. Ex-Judge James C. Spencer is to audit and pass upon the accounts of the Receiver of the Erie Railway, and the amount which may be found due to the Receiver, upon the accounting, is to be a lien on the property. In case a new company is formed by the bondholders, the Receiver may, by arrangment with the latter, take bonds and coupons for their face value, or pro rata, for the amounts found due him. The sale of the property need not be had until after the suits in the other States have been brought to judgment.

Vermont Central and Vermont and Canada Railroads.

The Boston Journal says that there is a general feeling of disappointment in that city among the holders of the bonds of the Vermont Central and Vermont and Canada Railroads. It was confidently anticipated that the permission to carry out the plan brought forward by the receivers would receive official sanction. The effect of the decision is interpreted differently by those having varied interests in these roads. No one pretends to decide what may be the possible effect upon the property, for it is not yet certain that a sale of the property virtually as now proposed may not be reached legally by adopting some other course. The court decides that as proposed to accomplish this end, the way sought was not the proper one.

St. Paul and Pacific Railroad.

It has long been an object to complete the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad to its connections with the Northern Pacific. The road is principally owned by Holland capitalists. For some time they hesitated to extend it beyond Breckenridge, but the extension has just been completed to Glyndon, 22 miles, from where it connects with the Northern Pacific and the Pembina line, 76 miles of which is already completed. The St. Paul and Pacific has a valuable land grant, and to secure that was one object of the recent completion. A branch from Brainerd on the Northern Pacific to Sauk Rapids, 65 miles south, has also been completed. At Sauk Rapids it connects with the St. Paul and Pacific line. Thus 87 miles have been completed as virtual extensions of the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad.

JOHN SHERMAN,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Wealth and Resources of Brazil.

The necessities of our own development have for many years been largely supplied by countries to which we send very little in return, and this has been conspicuously true of Brazil. We began paying large sums to that country twenty years ago, and we have followed on their rapid increase of production by a more rapid increase of our demand, until we now consume more than 60 per cent. of the entire production of coffee there—our share in 1876 being over 250,000,000 pounds, for which we paid, in gold, in Rio Janeiro, the large sum of $40,516,609. Our Minister to that Government, under date of July 31, 1876, gives the following statement of the actual export of coffee from Rio Janeiro to the United States and to Europe for three years, as follows:

| | 1873-4 Tons. | 1874-5 Tons. | 1875-6 Tons. | Total. Tons. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| To the U. S... | 77,065 | 105,434 | 99,657 | 282,156 |
| To Europe.... | 89,350 | 74,070 | 62,335 | 175,775 |

The excess to the United States for this period is thus shown to be 106,381 tons—a striking illustration of the great preponderance of our interests there, and of the supreme importance of our market to them.

The wealth of Brazil as a whole, and in detail for the leading provinces is much greater than is generally understood. At Para and the Amazon districts, India rubber is very largely produced and exported; at Maranhao, cotton and sugar in large quantities are added to the exports; Ceara is a rich province, with the same products; Rio Grande another, and next is Pernambuco, with an enormous production of both sugar and cotton. Further southward is Bahia, which is next to Pernambuco in the quantities of sugar and cotton, adding tobacco and a small amount of coffee. Espirito Santo, Rio Janeiro and San Paulo are the great coffee districts, producing, according to the official report of Dr. Moreira, over five hundred millions of pounds of cotton in the aggregate.

The distribution of this product as exported, is given by this author, as follows, for 1873-4:

| | Pounds. | Value. |
|---|---|---|
| Ceara | 2,127,782 | $323,153 |
| Pernambuco | 10,608 | 1,153 |
| Sergipe | 111,661 | 19,388 |
| Bahia | 7,483,124 | 991,548 |
| Espirito Santo | 13,953,804 | 1,266,040 |
| Rio Janeiro | 379,389,594 | 48,048,747 |
| San Paulo | 136,781,447 est. | 16,000,000 |
| Totals | 539,857,968 | $66,650,009 |

These totals are larger than the total export given in another place by the same author, which were:

| Crop Years. | Pounds. | Value. |
|---|---|---|
| 1871-2 | 301,345,796 | $35,111,209 |
| 1872-3 | 461,499,837 | 57,642,733 |
| 1873-4 | 370,447,990 | 55,086,268 |

The exports of sugar and cotton were also very large for the period of eleven years cited by the same author, 1864 to 1874, averaging 200 to 300 millions of pounds of sugar, valued at 10 to 15 millions of dollars. Cotton ranged from 75 to 150 millions of pounds yearly, worth 15 to 20 millions of dollars. Of these two products only a small proportion come to the United States, while of coffee nearly two-thirds was ours. The average price of coffee at Rio Janeiro remained at about 9 cents per pound from 1864 to 1869, rising in 1870 to 10 cents, and in 1871 to 15 cents. In 1872 it fell again to 9 cents, but rose in 1873 to 15 cents, and has since remained at 16 to 17 cents. The quantity produced in each of the several provinces has largely increased, and, the price being nearly doubled, the proceeds realized by the people of Brazil are four times as great as they were ten or twelve years ago, and they have greatly enriched the producers where coffee is grown.

The enormous importation into the United States from Brazil is shown by the following figures:

COFFEE FROM BRAZIL.

| 1875-76 | 389,789,246 | 56,788,997 |

The importation of coffee from other South American countries is large, Venezuela, Central American and Colombia furnishing in 1875 6 35,888,448 pounds, valued at $6,425,448. Some idea may be formed from these statements of the rapid increase in the annual drain for money to Brazil, which rose from eighteen millions of dollars, in 1869 70, to forty and a half millions, in 1875 6. We also import large quantities of hides, sugar and gums raw, the whole making our average annual tribute about forty five millions of dollars, against which the average offset has been but about seven millions in value of flour and provisions, chiefly flour. The following table will show how little revenue to the Treasury of the United States this enormous importation from Brazil now yields:

| | Free. | Dutiable. | Total. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1868-69 | $630,295 | $24,282,155 | $24,912,450 |
| 1869 70 | 477,506 | 24,698,453 | 25,175,959 |

The imports free of duty rose from less than half a million in 1869-70 to nearly 44 millions in 1876; a striking illustration of the results of neglecting this vast interest. Next to coffee the leading products coming to us from Brazil were in 1876:

Can I Obtain a Patent?

This is the first inquiry that naturally occurs to every author or discoverer of a new idea or improvement. The quickest and best way to obtain a satisfactory answer, without expense, is to write to us describing the invention, with a small sketch. All we need is to get the idea. Do not use pale ink. Be brief. Send stamps for postage. We will immediately answer and inform you whether or not your improvement is probably patentable; and if so, give you the necessary instructions for further precedure. Our long experience enables us to decide quickly. For this advice we make no charge. All persons who desire to consult us in regard to obtaining patents are cordially invited to do so. We shall be happy to see them in person at our office, or to advise them by letter. In all cases, they may expect from us a careful consideration of their plans, an honest opinion, and a prompt reply. TOTAL COST OF U. S. PATENT, ONLY $55. N. B.—These are by far the SAFEST, BEST and CHEAPEST terms offered by any responsible Patent attorney in the United States. For all further information, please address: HENRY GERNER & SON, 24 Barclay st., P. ☞ The directors of the United Companies of New Jersey have declined the offer of Mr. Carnegie to sell to them the stock purchased by him of the Longstreets—the directors being of opinion that the lease to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is valid, and that the stock is worth no more than the same amount of the stock in the open market.

☞ The Scioto Valley Railroad will be opened for business on or about the 3d of December between Columbus and Portsmouth. Thence to Huntington the distance is about 45 miles. The Portsmouth Tribune suggests that George D. Chapman, the constructor of the Scioto Valley, is the man to close this short gap.

☞ The directors of the Southeastern Railroad Company have made Asa B. Foster, Jr., manager of the road in the place of Hon. Asa B. Foster, deceased.

The Stockton and Darlington Railway was opened for traffic on the 27th of September, 1825. This was the first railway in Great Britain and the world operated by steam power, and it is from the date of the opening of this railway that the "Railway Age" takes its first departure. In the fifty years or half century completed in 1875 the length of railway constructed was about 180,000 miles, or about seven times the circumference of the earth at the equator. In Great Britain and its colonial dependencies there had been constructed 30,335 miles at a cost of £824,506,368 or in American currency $4,122,531,840, an amount far larger than the national debt of the United Kingdom. On the Continent of Europe nearly 70,000 miles had been opened. In the United States another 70,000 miles were found. The remainder of the total was distributed through South America, and Asia and Africa. All this mileage has cost a vast amount of mental and bodily labor and vast quantities of material; the money value of which it would be difficult to compute. Probably the 180,000 miles aforesaid cost on the average $50,000 to $55,000 a mile, or a grand total of $9,000,000,000 to $10,000,000,000.

Erie Railway.

The earnings of the Erie Railway for the month of August, 1877, were $1,271,180 83, the expenses $829,592 85, and the net earnings $441,587 98; for the month of August, 1876, the earnings were $1,267,008 94, the expenses $843,038 72, and the net earnings $423,970 22—showing an increase in earnings of $4,126 89, a decrease in expenses of $13,440 87, and an increase in net earnings of $17,567 76. The net earnings for the eleven months past of the financial year exceed those of the same period in the former year by $401,512.

☞ The Comptroller of the State of Tennessee has issued a statement showing the amount of the State debt, with accrued interest, to be $24,711,660. From this is to be deducted $1,199,180 due from the Mississippi Central Railroad, and $816,744 from the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad, leaving $23,195,736. Sixty per cent of this (at which rate it is proposed to adjust the debt), is $13,917,442, which, at 6 per cent interest, would call for an annual interest payment of $835,000.

The assessed value of the property in the State is $235,000,000.

New York Elevated Railroad.

All legal impediments to the expansion of this enterprise having been removed, the company now propose vigorous and uninterrupted work. About two miles of the double track on the west side have been completed, and it is expected that the remainder of the distance—from the Battery to Sixty-seventh street—can be finished before the 1st of January next. The double tracks will greatly facilitate the business of the road, doing away with the necessity of switch "turnouts," thus permitting trains to run up and down simultaneously. More trains can in consequence be run, and the new timetable will show such increased accommodations that the time lost in "waiting" will be reduced to a minimum.

On the east side branch the work is also progressing rapidly. Much difficulty is experienced in laying the foundations for the large columns because of the "made ground" over which the road passes for long stretches. In many places, in consequence, it is found necessary to use spiles, and below New Bowery concrete beds are frequently essential to supply a solid foothold for the support of the iron caps which act as bases for the columns. The route on the east side from the Battery will be through Front street, Coenties slip, along Pearl street, up New Bowery and Bowery and thence along Third avenue to Harlem. Along the route the road will cross the line of the New York approach to the East River Bridge, but precaution will of course be taken to avoid any interference with the same.

Connecticut & Passumpsic Rivers Railroad.

Compared with the previous year the gross earnings show a decrease of $32,958 20, with a decrease in expenses of $36,313 97, showing an increase in net income of $3,355 77, the report says:

The following statement shows the financial condition of the corporation, July 1, 1877:

|---|---|
| Mortgage bonds payable in 1893 | $1,186,500 00 |
| Mortgage bonds payable in 1881 | 123,000 00 |
| 6 per cent bonds due December 1, 1876, not presented for payment | 1,800 00 |
| Notes in bank for money borrowed to pay bonds which became due December 1, 1876 | 160,000 00 |
| | $1,471,300 00 |

It will be seen that the issue of $1,500,000 mortgage bonds of 1893, will cover all our indebtedness, and leave on hand belonging to earnings, $28,700.

By referring to the report of last year, it will be seen that $678,000 of the then reported indebtedness became due on the first day of December last, and in order to sustain and carry out the principle early adopted and always practised by this company, of meeting its obligations at maturity, the money was provided and in bank on that day, to pay all demands which could be presented.

Those bonds have all been paid and cancelled, with the exception of $1800, which have not yet been presented.

We were enabled to borrow the money for the time being, at a much less rate of interest than that borne by the mortgage bonds, thus making a saving to the corporation of several thousand dollars; and without calling in the aid of bankers or brokers, we have been able to dispose of the bonds at par, and at a premium, as fast as was desirable. We are now selling them at $103, and we feel warranted in saying, that in our judgment, there is no cheaper or better security on the market. We feel justified in congratulating the stockholders on the present financial condition of the company, that notwithstanding the very great depression in all branches of business which has existed for the last two years or more, we have been able, after keeping the road up in as good or better condition than ever before, and paying interest on all our indebtedness, to save enough from the net earnings to pay our entire floating debt, and leave a surplus for future contingencies of more than $50,000.

It would have been very pleasing to the directors to have declared and paid a dividend on the first of August, had they not deemed that a proper regard for the permanent interest of the corporation required the withholding of one more dividend. It is now thought that the financial condition is such that hereafter dividends may be resumed, and that the net earnings, after keeping up the property in good condition, and paying interest on the bonds, should be paid to the stockholders in semi-annual dividends.

There has been no change in our business relations with connecting roads since our last report, the arrangement with the Boston, Concord and Montreal road, in regard to the lease of the South Eastern, continuing as heretofore. The road and equipment have been kept in good repair, and the track, bridges and buildings are in better condition than a year ago; a long piece of trestle work on the Massawippi road has been filled, and the yard at Newport has been extended by filling near the wharf. Two hundred tons of steel rails, and seven hundred and ninety-nine tons of new iron rails have been laid during the year; seven thousand five hundred and three rails have been taken up, repaired and relaid; sixty-seven thousand three hundred and seventy new sleepers have been laid in the track during the year.

No addition has been made to the equipment of the road, which remains the same as last year, and is more than sufficient for the present business. One new engine has been built to take the place of one worn out, another is in progress of building, and the general condition of cars and locomotives has been improved from a year ago. The inability of Col. Foster to obtain the promised funds from England, has prevented his completing the South Eastern Road, between Waterloo and Acton, and we are running under the lease, the same number of miles as at last report.

The equipment of the road consists of: 27 engines; 14 passenger, 5 baggage, 2 baggage and smoking, 2 mail, 660 freight; 2 boarding-house, 5 snow ploughs, 2 gougers, 20 gravel, 3 crane, 28 push, 42 hand and 32 wood cars.

The number of miles run by engines during the year was 406,145. Number of tons carried, 136,869; do. carried one mile, 7,618,721. Passengers carried, 166,183; do. carried one mile, 5,619,829.

California-Central Pacific.—Bay Shore Line.

The San Francisco Bulletin says that the Central Pacific Railroad Company have commenced running regular trains on the Bay Shore Railroad between Oakland and Martinez, and then adds:

The projected line of the Northern or Bay Shore Railroad is to Martinez, and thence across the Straits of Carquinez to Benicia, connecting with the California Pacific at Fairfield, and reaching as far north as Tehama on the west side of the Sacramento. Another important point in this enterprise is to connect Oakland with Bantas on the Shore route, so as to avoid the heavy grades through Livermore pass. This was the main incentive in the construction of the road, and the line would have been opened for traffic by this time if it had not been for litigation with L. L. Robinson as to the right of way from Antioch to Martinez. The road is already completed from Bantas on the main line of the Central Pacific to Antioch, and also finished as above described from Oakland to Martinez opposite Benicia. Between Martinez and Antioch there is an uncompleted space of about fifteen miles, which cannot be occupied until certain questions are adjudicated in the courts. D D. Colton and Charles Crocker seem to regard this line as a most important one in the railroad system of the Pacific coast. They estimate that the cost of transporting grain from the chief fields of production to the sea will be materially reduced when the Shore line is opened. The maximum grade from the grain districts of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys to San Francisco, via Martinez and Antioch, along the margin of tide-water is ten feet to the mile. The track is so free from heavy grades that one engine can haul forty cars laden with merchandise as easily as two engines can draw twenty cars over the Livermore hills. It may be determined hereafter to move passenger trains over the Shore line, but there has been no definite arrangements in this regard.

A large force of workmen have been placed on the route between Benicia and Fairfield to complete the connection with the California Pacific Railroad. There is no immediate prospect of a bridge being thrown across the straits, but when the country fills up with settlers, and the lands come under cultivation, it may be necessary to built a bridge to supply the demands of commerce.

Grand Trunk Railway of Canada.

The balance carried forward to next account, after payment of the preferential charges, is therefore £702. The gross receipts for the half year (after deduction of disconnt on American currency) show a decrease of £75,978, or 8.11 per cent as compared with 1876. The working expenses, including renewals, have amounted to £664,467 or 77.23 per cent, against a total charge of £738,947 or 78.88 per cent in 1876, showing a decrease of £69,480, or 9.46 per cent against the above decrease in the receipts of 8.11 per cent. The passenger receipts were less by £7,325 or 2.96 per cent, and the numbers decreased by 3,577 or 0.41 per cent as compared with 1876 The receipts from freight traffic decreased £75,332, or 11.40 per cent, and the tonnage increased 9,951 tons, or 1 per cent.

The total number of passengers carried was 865,972, as against 869,549; and the quantity of freight was 1,052,873, against 1,042,922 tons. The average receipt per passenger was 5s. 6½d., against 5s. 8d., and per ton of freight 11s. 2d., against 12s. 8d. The working expenses were reduced in every item excepting in that of miscellaneous expenses, which continue to show increased charges for taxes and insurance. There has been a very satisfactory reduction in the expenditure for fuel of £15,668, or over 10 per cent. The receipts in the United States currency were $3,722,274, against $3,555,334, of which $1,150,092 was converted into gold, against $794.131 in 1876, entailing a loss of £14,325, against £19,714, being a decrease of £5,389. Gold fluctuated during the half year from 104⅛ on March 12, to 107⅞ on April 17; the average being about 106, against an average on the corresponding period of 1876 of 113¼.

The charge to capital account for the half year has been £81,928. £30,500 of the 6 per cent International Bridge bonds have been redeemed out of the proceeds of debenture stock issues during the half-year. The first equipment mortgage bonds for £500,000, bearing 6 per cent interest, terminated on January 1 last, but the greater proportion has since been renewed for various periods. The revenue suffered during the past half-year by low rates, caused partly by the bad harvest in Canada in 1876, but still more by excessive competition amongst the trunk lines. That competition was slightly modified by the arrangements entered into in April last, and has now been terminated. The harvest of this year, both in Canada and the United States, is exceedingly favorable. The President has just returned from a visit of two months to Canada and the United States, and has met the Presidents of the trunk lines. He also spent a considerable time in discussing and arranging with Mr. Childers, the President of the Great Western of Canada, the relations between the two companies. He believes the understandings which he has been able to establish with the various Presidents will result favorably to the general interest. The President purposes explaining fully at the half yearly meeting the results of his observations and inquiries, and a verbatim report of his speech will be forwarded to each Proprietor immediately after the meeting.

On behalf of the Board,

H. W. Tyler, President.

London, E. C., Oct. 28, 1877.

Scioto Valley Railroad.

The local importance of the Scioto Valley Railroad is sufficient to warrant the energy with which the work of construction has been prosecuted. The rich valley it traverses, from the capital of the State to the Ohio river, offers traffic which assures its success. But it is of more than local consequence. It meets half way a region of country which is now earnestly seeking rapid communication with the Great West and Northwest, and it is within the early possibilities for it to become an artery of through transportation. The Richmond Dispatch takes sperial notice of the fact that by the Scioto Valley Railroad an excursion train can make the round trip between Columbus and the river in one day, and says the celebration of the completion of the road is an event in which the people of Richmond would be decidedly interested. It refers to the concern Richmond has in a connection by Catlettsburg and Mount Sterling with Louisville, and adds:

But there is no reason why the route to Louisville should at all lessen our desire to cross the Ohio to the Northwest. Neither of the routes can be made too soon for us. We have reasons for expecting immense advantages from a railway communication with the great Northwest. It therefore affords us much pleasure to see the growing prospects of an early connection by rail with the State of Ohio; not only because that would give us much additional commerce, but because a connection with the north side of the Ohio would certainly stimulate the enterprise of completing the connection with Louisville. Any of the connections between the West and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad will hurry up the work upon others. A road for instance, connecting the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad with the Scioto Valley Railroad at Portsmouth would expedite the construction of a road from Cincinnati by Maysville, on the south side of the Ohio, to Catlettsburg, and this, again, would hurry the projected road via Mount Sterling and Lexington to Louisville.

Weston Narrow Gauge Railroad.

The Weston (W. Va.) Democrat states that the directors of the Weston Narrow Gauge Railroad Company have been authorized to issue bonds sufficient to complete the building of the road—not exceeding $100,000—from Weston to Clarksburg. A contract has been entered into with experienced railroad builders for the completion of the road-bed (including cuts, fills, bridges, trestling, tunneling, etc.,) for the whole distance for the sum of $40,000. The work is to be commenced at once and completed by the 1st of July next. Steps have also been taken for procuring the iron and rolling stock for the completion and equipment of the road, and it is expected that in less than a twelvemonth the people of Weston will be enjoying all the benefits of a railroad. It is also proposed to continue the road from Weston to Charleston, Kanawha county.

☞ The Longmont branch of the Union Pacific railroad, from Colorado Junction, formerly Hazard station, to Denver, was formally opened on the 12th inst. The importance of this route is great, and the occasion one of general congratulation between the Missouri river and Rocky mountains. Omaha, in 1876, received in transit $62,000,000 in precious metals, which amount will hereafter be largely increased by the new route, which opens up the Colorado and New Mexico mineral regions to Omaha and the Eastern market.

☞ An ordinance authorizing the issue of $65,000 worth of bonds has been passed by the Councils of Cumberland, Md., to aid in the extension to that place of the Bedford Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The matter will be submitted to a vote of the citizens on December 12, and in the meanwhile, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is endeavoring to effect an agreement with the city, with a view of having proceedings looking towards an extension suspended.

☞ The last rail, completing the construction of the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad, was laid at Albert Lea, Minn., on the 10th inst., thus opening the new through route between Minneapolis and St. Paul, and south and east via the Minneapolis and St. Louis, and the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern railroads.

☞ The articles of incorporation of the Columbus and Northwestern Railway were filed with the Secretary of State of Ohio on the 17th of October. The enterprise has now assumed a form that gives its friends reason to feel assured that the road will be built.

☞ A survey for a new railroad from Brattleboro', Vt., to South Vernon is being made by the Connecticut River Railroad Company, for the purpose of intersecting their road at the latter place.

A New Railroad.

The Cumberland (Md.) city council has passed an ordinance providing for assistance by that city in the construction of a railroad from Cumberland to a point contiguous with the Bedford division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The ordinance is to be submitted to the vote of the people of Cumberland on the 12th of December. A petition for the passage of the ordinance was presented with signatures of nearly all the largest taxpayers of the city. One-half the bonds to be issued by Cumberland are to be $500 in denomination, and the others as $1,000 bonds—both to be payable in thirty years. Previous to the passage of the ordinance a letter was read from Mr. Keyser, vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, in which is this statement:

"I beg to state in behalf of the Baltimore and Ohio and also of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad Companies that an arrangement can probably be effected which, whilst accomplishing the object desired to the satisfaction of the citizens of Cumberland, will render unnecessary the use of the city's credit or the construction of an additional road. The Cumberland and Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio Companies are willing to enter into a joint arrangement with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company by which its Bedford division can have the use of their tracks and terminal facilities upon a fair basis of tolls and terminal charges. I therefore ask that the council will delay action in the matter until the companies can have an opportunity of presenting a proposition, which shall be done without unnecessary delay."

Advance of Railroad Freights.

The new combination of the Western railroads, suggested not long since by the Eastern pool, and governed by the same rules, seems to have been fully consummated at the Chicago convention of freight agents. The Chicago Tribune says:

It is the boldest and most far reaching effort ever made in this country to stifle railroad competition; it embraces in one grand, comprehensive pool the Eastern and Western trunk lines, and virtually includes all the lines running west, southwest and northwest from Chicago. Though there are nominally three different pools, each consisting of the principal railroads on competing parallels, the arrangement amounts to a general agreement on rates by the agreement on a division of the freight to be carried by each road. Albert Fink, the New York Pool Commissioner, also allotted the business of the Western pool, so that all the main railroads East and West have now a common interest in the maintenance of high rates. This movement is a warning that an advance of railroad freights may be expected some time between the middle and last of the present month, the stoppage of the canal traffic making the opportunity for an advance of rates, for which the railroad companies are supposed to have been waiting. The pool, enlarged to take in the Western with the Eastern roads, as it has been, is the most formidable organization ever created for the control of the carrying business. The pool among the Eastern lines has been skillfully managed, and has worked well for its shippers. The far more extensive compact now resolved upon will probably be even more profitable to the companies. The Western papers are threatening that grain will be held back for the cheaper canal tolls of spring. But this will depend on the European demand for breadstuffs. If that should be active the breadstuffs will go forward. The Western suggestion made, of finding an outlet for this freight via the Mississippi river and the Southern roads, is scarcely worthy of attention. That is not the natural outlet to the foreign market, and no probable forcing can drive it that way. The present indications are that the main trunk lines of railway, East and West, will have a good winter's business if they use their advantages prudently and with moderation.

New York Ferry Co.

A certificate of incorporation of the New York Ferry Company was filed in the County Clerk's office on the 9th inst. The capital stock is $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares, such shares being distributed among the corporators as follows: George Law, 265; John Englis, 95; Joseph J. O'Donohue, 170; Charles Wall, 210; S. L. Husted, 125; R. Poillon, 25; A. V. Stout, 50; Henry Crassman, 50, and John G. Jenkins, 10. The capital stock may be increased to $2,000,000. The object of the company, which is organized for 50 years, is declared to be the running of ferries to Brooklyn, Staten Island, Greenpoint, Jersey City, &c. ### New York and Brooklyn Bridge.

In his testimony taken before United States Commissioner Shields in a suit brought by A. B. Miller to restrain the bridge trustees from constructing the bridge on the ground that it impeded navigation, Mr. H. C. Murphy, President of the Board of Directors, gave an account of his connection with the bridge company, and said that he had been connected with it ever since its organization. He stated that he had received a communication from the War Department in reference to the construction of the bridge, together with the acts of Congress authorizing its construction. The work was begun on the 2d of January, 1870. Six millions of dollars had been expended before the present suit was begun, and about $2,-000,000 had been expended since. A temporary bridge had been built and the great cables had been completed, and a considerable portion of the approaches had been made. The height of the main span of the bridge, in the clear, above high water, at mean spring tide, would be some inches above 135 feet.

Northern Pacific Railroad.

The bill introduced by Senator Mitchell on the 9th inst. proposes to grant eight years' extension of time for the construction of the main line of the Northern Pacific Railroad via Portland, Oregon, to Tacoma, on Puget Sound, but does not extend the time for the completion of the North Branch Line across the Cascade Mountains to Puget Sound. The lands hitherto withdrawn on the route of this branch, if not earned by the company within the time prescribed by existing law, are to be restored to the public domain, to be disposed of, like other public lands, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior; and in lieu of the amount of lands thus forfeited, an equal number of acres are to be granted to the Portland, Salt Lake and South Pass Railroad Company, (an Oregon Corporation,) along their line from Umatilla to Salt Lake, provided they commence work within six months from the enactment of this bill, and construct 25 miles of road the first year and not less than 50 miles annually thereafter, and complete the whole road within four years. The bill provides that the road between Umatilla and Portland is to remain a common road for the use of both companies upon terms to be fixed, if necessary, by the arbitration of a commission to be appointed by the President of the United States. It is provided that the extensions and privileges to be granted to the Northern Pacific Company by this bill shall be upon the express condition that it shall, within six months from the enactment, commence the construction of its road, either at Portland or at some point between Umatilla and the mouth of Snake River, and construct and equip eastward, within one year thereafter, not less than 40 miles, and at least 50 miles each succeeding year until completed. If these requirements are not complied with, the Oregon corporation is to have the right to build the common road above referred to, and be entitled to the aid now provided, by building 20 miles within the year after three months failure of the Northern Pacific Company to commence it, and 25 miles annually thereafter. The bill furthermore provides that all the lands hereafter earned by the company shall be sold by the Government, and the proceeds placed in the United States Treasury to constitute a sinking fund with which to pay accruing interest upon the first mortgage construction bonds that shall be hereafter issued by the corporation for the construction of any portion of the road. The moneys thus accumulated are to be paid out semi-annually as the road is completed and accepted in sections, as provided for by existing laws, and limited in amounts to the value of the land grant opposite to and coterminus with such completed and accepted sections of road valued at $2 50 per acre, which payments shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury to the holders of the interest coupons of such construction bonds, (pro rata if the sinking fund is deficient.) But it is provided "That nothing herein contained shall be construed as creating any liability upon the part of the United States to guarantee or pay any interest on any of the bonds of said company in excess of the moneys arising from the pre-emption and sales of the lands granted to such company and actually paid into the Treasury as aforesaid." A preceding section of the bill provides that during five years after the expiration of the time prescribed by existing law for the completion of the road all the lands heretofore granted shall be disposed of only to pre-emption settlers at $2 50 per acre, but after these five years shall have elapsed, the Government shall, if the company so requests, at any time during a further period of five years, offer the odd numbered sections opposite any portion of completed road for public sale to the highest bidder, with a limitation of $1 25 per acre as to price, and 160 acres as to quantity purchasable by any one individual. The bill in other sections protects the rights of all persons who settled upon lands within the railroad limits prior to receipt of notice of withdrawal at the respective local land offices.

☞ At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Santa Cruz and Watsonville Narrow-gauge Railroad Company, held at Santa Cruz on the 31st of October, the following gentlemen were elected directors: F. A. Hihn, A. Pray, Sr., R. C. Kerby, B. F. Porter, F. Hagemen, John Braze and Titus Hale. The officers are: President, F. A. Hihn; Secretary, A. Pray, Sr.; Treasurer, Titus Hale. The total receipts of the company from June 30, 1873, are $580,390 97. Total expenditures for the same time, $578,031 26. The receipts of the company from April 1, 1877, to October 1, 1877, are $25,623 95. Running expenses for the same time, $13,986 90.

☞ The tonnage of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad for the week ending on the 3d inst., was 144,427, and for the year to that date, 86,-644,847, against 4,965,855 for the corresponding period of the previous year, an increase of 1,678,-991 tons. The tonnage for the week ending on the 10th instant was 144,000, of which 61,000 went to Port Richmond. In the same time 60 000 tons were shipped from Port Richmond, showing a pretty fair supply of orders for coal from that point. The Philadelphia Coal and Iron Company mined during the week 82,000 tons.

☞ The proposition of Mr. Carnegie to Mr. Dennis was to sell to the United Companies of New Jersey 257 shares of the stock purchased by him of the Longstreets at the price he paid for it, which included, as we are informed, $150 per share, the amount of the back rent uncollected from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company amounting to some $17,000, and fees and costs expended by the Longstreets in their suit against the United Companies of New Jersey, the whole amounting to some $70,000.

☞ The refusal of the Supreme Court of Vermont to grant the prayer of the petitioners to sell the Vermont Central and Vermont and Canada Railroads, in order to pay the debts constituting liens thereon, is based upon the ground that the unsecured floating debt, the holders of which are the petitioners, is not so different from other trust debts as to have precedence to all others, and consequently the holders thereof cannot be granted any such priority as an order of the sale of the road would give them.

☞ An agent of the Russian government has been in Philadelphia during the past week endeavoring to negotiate for the construction of an iron bridge of single span only, 2,100 feet long across the Danube. He offers $8,600,000 for such a bridge. The time for its construction is limited to the opening of the Spring military campaign.

☞ At a meeting of the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company, held in this city on the 13th inst., Mr. William Dowd was elected President and Mr. W. B. Leonard Vice President.

Financial and Commercial Affairs.

Lighter dealings at the Stock Exchange and a tamer movement in the commercial line served, to lessen the demand for Money during the past week, and the loan and discount rates in the local market favored borrowers in good standing, from whom the applications for aid have been recently, as well of much less urgency, as, in the aggregate of less magnitude. Call loans were quoted here at the close at from 4@7, in most instances at 5@6 per cent to the Stock Exchange operators, and very choice to prime mercantile credits were rated at 6@8 per cent per annum for the best names. The City bank exhibit of last week indicated a further falling off in the loan and discount average of $248,800, and an increase in the item of circulation of $568,400. The average of deposits was augmented $1,192,400. The legal tender reserve was diminished $1,028,500; and the specie average was enlarged $2,828,600. The City bank net reserve of specie and legal tender notes now shows an excess over the legal requirement of reserve to liabilities of $8,878,575, as against $7,376,575 the preceding week. The City bank exchanges in currency reached $358,005,167, or a daily average of $71,601,033.

On Wednesday of this week the cash balances of the Treasury Department at Washington were of Currency, $18,172,459; special deposits of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $39,215,000; Coin, $132,261,289, including of Coin certificates, $38,880,600.

The outstanding amount of legal tender notes in $354,490,892. The National bank circulation is now $819,217,771 of currency notes and $1,430,-520 of national gold bank notes. National Bank notes received at the Treasury Department last week for redemption were to the amount of $3,-453,000.

Government securities have been held quite firmly, as a rule, despite the reports and rumors from Washington relative to the financial projects before Congress. The demand for the leading issues has been fair, chiefly on investment account. At the close on Wednesday the current quotations were as follows:

United States currency sixes, 121¼@121¾; do. Cs, 1881, registered, 110@110¼; do. coupon, 110¼@110⅝; do. 1865, new, registered, 105⅝@105¾; do. coupon, 105⅛@105¾; do. 1867, registered, 108¼@108⅛; do. coupon, 108¼@108½; do. 1868, registered, 110@110⅛; do. coupon, 110@110⅛; do. ten-forties, registered, 107¾@108; do. coupon, 108½@108⅝; do. five per cents, 1881, registered, 106½@106⅝; do. coupon, 106⅛@106⅜; do. 4½ per cents, 1891, registered, 105⅛@105¼; do. coupon, 105⅛@105¼; do. 4 per cents, 1907, reg., 102⅜@102⅛; do. coupon, 102⅛@102¾; Central Pacific Gold Bonds, 107@107¼.

The amount of U. S. bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the National Bank circulation is $344,703,400, and $14,-555,500 as security for public deposits.

State Bonds have been in fair request on investment account, and quoted generally firm in price. Railway Mortgage loans have been more sought after and have been quoted, in instances, higher, on restricted offerings. And in the line of Railway and Miscellaneous share property the business of the work has been less active, and the tendency of prices has been downward, though toward the close rather more firmness was apparent in the more prominent instances. The bulk of the business of the week has been on Street account, the inquiry from other sources having been very tame.

Gold has been comparatively dull, and the dealings have been devoid of features of special interests. The financial legislative projects and schemes before Congress have been viewed as unlikely to succeed without essential revision and modification, and have consequently not attached very general attention. The extremes of the price during the week have been 102⅛@102⅞, closing on Wednesday at 102⅜, as against 102¾ on Wednesday of the preceding week. The specie outflow last week was only $67,720, making the total exports of specie hence since January 1, $24,-121,433, against $41,815,754 the same time in the preceding year. The imports of specie at this port last week were $181,790, and since January 1st have been $12,646,519, as against $8,827,769 same time last year. The Customs demand for gold last week reached $1,601,518 or an average of $320,304 per day.

A free offering of Foreign Exchange has tended to depress quotations, in the absence of anything like an active call for bills. The extensive produce exports continue to supply produce bills in liberal amounts. Bankers' sixty day bills on London closed on Wednesday at $4 80@$4 80⅛; sight bills on London at $4 83⅛@$484 to the £ sterling. The week's imports of Dry Goods and general merchandise were to the specie value of $4,-772,341 as against the very moderate amount of $3,768,378 the corresponding week of 1876. The week's import entries of Foreign Merchandise at New York included $785,603 of Dry Goods, and $4,036,738, of General Merchandise. The week's export of Domestic Produce and Miscellaneous Goods from this port were to the value of $7,465,-449, against $5,431,408 same week in 1876.

The income of the Government from internal revenues last week was about 2½ millions, and from Customs last week again about 2⅛ millions.

Most kinds of domestic produce have been less active. Breadstuffs have been in most request, with prices toward the closing ruling decidedly stronger under the favorable tenor of the later foreign advices. Provisions, Cotton, Petroleum and Naval Stores have been quoted irregular. Foreign merchandise has been moderately sought after and quoted weak.

Business in Metals has been more active, especially in Pig Iron, Iron and Steel Rails, and Pig Tin, the latter for forward delivery and with prices quoted steadier. Eglinton Pig Iron quoted at $24 @$24 50; Glengarnock $24 75@$25; Coltness $26 50@$27; No. 1 American Pig at $19@$20; No. 2 do. at $17 50 @$18 50. Forge $16 @$17; American Rails at works $34@$38, (with sales of 3,-000 to 5,000 tons). Old Rails $18@$19. Wrought Scrap $22@$23. Steel Rails, on the basis of $43 @$47, (with sales of 20,000 to 25,000 tons on p. t.) Ingot Copper dull on the basis of 17¾@17⅞ for early delivery.

Hardware, Boots and Shoes and Dry Goods have been in less request, but quoted generally unchanged as to values. The Fall season is now about at an end in the wholesale line.

Ocean freights have been fairly active but quoted throughout lower under more liberal offerings of accommodation. Liverpool steamer rates at the close for Grain, quoted at 7½@8d. Provisions, 32s. 6d.@37s. 6d.; Leather, 50s. Measurement Goods at 20s.@25s. per ton; Cotton, 7-32d.@4d. per lb. Liverpool, by sail. Cotton, 3-16d.@7-32d. Grain, at 7½d.; Measurement Goods 15s.@17s. 6d.; Tobacco 25s.; Grain rates on charter hence for Cork and orders left off at 6s. 6d.@6s. 9d; for the Continent at 6s. 9d.@7s.; and from Baltimore for Cork and orders, 6s. 9d., and from Philadelphia at 6s. 4½d.@6s. 6d. per quarter. Refined Petroleum hence for Cork and orders, 4s. 3d.; for the Continent, 4s. 3d.@4s. 6d. per bbl.

Erie Railway.

The report of the Referee, passing on the accounts of the Receiver of the Erie Railway Company for August, 1877, was filed in the County Clerk's office on the 9th inst. From this it appears that the receipts during the month of August (including $245,746 98 on hand at the commencement of the month) were $2,642,478 22, of which $528,011 32 is from Receiver's certificates, and $75,000 from loans; and the disbursements were $2,231,070 38, of which $573,376 88 was in redemption of Receiver's certificates, and $75,000 in payment of loans—leaving a balance on hand August 31, of $411,407 84. During the month there were paid $328,907 88 for coal lands, $10,088 for interest and $14,161 on coupons of mortgage. The Receiver has issued certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $9,371,200 53, and has canceled $7,485,459 92 of them, leaving outstanding August 31, $1,885,740 61 of such certificates, a decrease during the month, as noted above, of $45,365 56.

The report of the President showed that the net receipts of the road had been $6,074 after paying running expenses, and the expenses of administration $3,600. A good deal of business diverted from it while in possession of the Shenandoah Valley Company had been restored. The indebtedness of the road to the Baltimore and Ohio Company had been diminished by $17,000. The Baltimore and Ohio Company still holds as security county and town bonds of the Valley Company to the amount of $215,400.

The surplus for the year amounts to $13,032, which added to the surplus at the commencement of the year ($548,633), makes the total amount at its close $561,665. The capital stock paid in is $2,100,000. The unfunded debt is $335,485, and the funded debt, due the 1st of next September, $250,000, for the redemption of which the sinking fund, increased $19,000 during the year, now amounts to $205,624. The road has 164 miles of double track and 52¼ miles of steel rails. During the year the company began operating the Ashuelot road, 24 miles long. The road now has 18 locomotives, 39 passenger, mail and baggage cars, all but two equipped with the Miller platform and train brakes, and 826 freight cars on the basis of eight wheels.

Mobile and Ohio Railroad.

In the litigation concerning the Mobile and Ohio Railroad the Supreme Court of the United States has just rendered a decision alike interesting to the large number of bondholders of the road and to members of the Bar. By this judgment the applications made on behalf of William H. Hayes, T. Haskins Dupuy and William S. Pierson have been denied, and the position of Moran Brothers, representing first mortgage bondholders, sustained. Among the series of applications made by the Hayes party one was for the purpose of setting aside the stay of proceedings against the sale of the road; another was to increase the appeal bond of the first mortgage bondholders from $100,000 to $500,000, and still further that they may be allowed to sell the road and consummate their plan of reorganization upon furnishing a bond to the appellants in the sum of $75,000. The decree in the Court below, from which appeal was taken, was made by Mr. Justice Bradley, who fixed the amount of the appeal bond at $100,000, and in concurring with his associates in the present judgment stated on the Bench that he had fixed the bond at that amount after "very great doubt." Upon the argument before the Supreme Court there appeared a large array of counsel, ex-Judge John A. Campbell, of New Orleans; F. N. Bangs, of this city, and Peter Hamilton, of Mobile, in support of the applications, and Judge Hoadley, of Cincinnati; Edward L. Andrews, of this city; Phillip Phillips, of Washington, and Judge E. H. Grandin, of Mobile, opposed. The opinion, which was delivered by Chief Justice Waite and concurred in by all his associates, briefly recites the proceedings which gave rise to the application made to the Court and the Court's decision thereon as follows:

THE DECISION.

In the year 1875 Duncan and Elliott, claiming that they were trustees under a mortgage executed by the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Company, and that the company was in default for interest on the bonds secured thereby falling due in the year 1864, commenced a suit for foreclosure in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern district of Alabama. To this suit none of the persons hereinafter named were originally parties. On the 6th of March, 1876, this cause was referred to a master to report, among other things, the amounts due upon the bonds secured by the mortgage and the names of the holders. On the 14th of the same month Ketchum, claiming to be the only lawful trustee under the same mortgage, commenced another suit for foreclosure, to which he made Duncan and Elliott defendants, and in which he averred that there had been no default by the company for interest in 1874, but that all coupons that year had been paid in full, and default had not occurred until 1875. In all other respects the bills in the two suits were substantially the same. In February, 1877, Zeigler, De Watteville Jump and Chavannes, claiming to be holders of certain of the bonds secured by the mortgage, filed another bill for the foreclosure, to which they made Duncan, Elliott and Ketchum defendants, and like Ketchum, alleged that the interest in 1874 had been paid and that no default had taken place until 1875. Before filing their bill all these last named complainants had proven their claims before the master in the Duncan and Elliott suit. On the 5th of June, 1877, Merian, Renevier, Carrard and Chuffard, other bondholders, were, upon their own motion, admitted as defendants in the Duncan and Elliott suit, with leave to answer; but before making their motion they also had proven their claims before the master. On the same day Hayes, Pierson and Dupuy were admitted as defendants in all three of the suits, and filed their answers, setting up their ownership of the coupons for the interest of 1874, which had already been proven before the master in the name of Alexander Duncan. They alleged that the coupons were still outstanding and unpaid, and that they were entitled to payment from the proceeds of the sale of the mortgage property in preference to the holders of other claims for principal and interest. At this stage of the proceedings the parties consented to a consolidation of the three suits, and an order to that effect was entered, which provided further that all proofs, orders made and proceedings had in the Duncan and Elliott suit should be used on the hearing of the consolidated suit in the same manner and with the same effect as if taken, made and had in all the cases. On the 15th of June, 1877, after hearing, the Court entered a decree in the consolidated suit, establishing the validity of the coupons of 1874, but denying any priority of lien in their favor, and directing a sale of the mortgaged property, with specific directions as to advertisement, payment of purchase money, &c. From this decree Ketchum, Zeigler and his co-complainants Chavannes, Jump and De Watteville, and Merian Renevier, Carrard and Chuffard prayed in open Court an appeal and supersedeas. The appeal was granted and the penalty of the supersedeas bond fixed at $100,000, with leave to file it at any time within sixty days. After the adjournment of the Court for the term a supersedeas bond was approved by the circuit justice, in which Duncan and Elliott were named as obligees, and thereup on a citation to Duncan and Elliott was duly signed and served on them. No citation has ever been served on Hayes, Pierson or Dupuy, and they now move to vacate the supersedeas, alleging for cause, first, that the bond is defective because they are not named as obligees; second, that it is insufficient in amount; and third, that no citation has been issued to or served upon them. We are clearly of opinion it was not necessary to the validity of the bond that Hayes and his associates should be named as obligees. Duncan and Elliott are parties to the suit, claiming to represent the contested coupons as trustees under the mortgage. The bond is given to supersede the execution of the decree appealed from, and the parties named as obligees are but trustees for whom it may concern upon the final determination of the appeal In this case the bond recites the suits and the parties and binds the obligors to make good all damages and costs in case the appellants fail to make their appeal good. The statute does not declare to whom the bond shall be made. Its requirements are satisfied if the necessary security is given. (Rev. Stat., sec. 1,007). The form, as well as the amount, is left largely to the discretion of the judge or justice whose duty it is to approve the security. When executed it stands as security for the payment of all legal damages and costs sustained by any of the appellees if the appeal shall not be made good. The second objection is not sustainable under our ruling in Jerome vs. McCarter, 21 Wall., 17, with which we are satisfied. The supersedeas is not affected by the failure to issue a citation to Hayes and his associates. Without determining whether it is necessary that they should be cited at all, it is sufficient to say that under the authority of Dayton vs. Lash, 94 U. S. 112, such citation may be made now. The motion is denied.

☞ The Nashville American, in commenting upon the action of the Governor of Tennessee in issuing his proclamation convening the Legislature of that State on 5th December next, to take action on the proposition submitted by a committee of the bondholders to adjust the State debt, says: "The public will, we are convinced, applaud the wisdom of the Governor in calling together the representatives of the people to decide this important question. No well wisher of his State will desire to see it drift further by a hair's breadth towards the dangerous doctrine of repudiation. We have made quite progress enough in that direction to alarm the prudent and conservative."

☞ Holders of Missouri township bonds issued in aid of railroads, and which have been repudiated, will be gratified to learn that the United States Supreme Court has decided that the law authorizing such bonds is valid and they must be paid. Large quantities of these bonds were bought by people in all sections of the country. They have been selling of late for five cents on the dollar, but the decision just rendered will cause them to rapidly appreciate.

☞ The total direct foreign commerce of Central America is valued at $22,000 000, only $4,500,000 of which falls to the United States. The largest direct trade is with Great Britain, France next, and then Germany, the latter generally but slightly exceeding the United States. How the United States may obtain this trade is a matter our minister to Central America is now endeavoring to figure out.

☞ The Oil City Derrick gives a summary of the shipments of oil from the regions. The total for October was 1,194,263 barrels of forty-two gallons each, including the shipments of refined reduced to crude equivalent. This is a daily average of about 38,525 barrels, against 51,912 barrels for September. The shipments for the ten months of the year aggregate 10,734,999 barrels, against 7,647,952 barrels in 1876, and 7,829,974 in 1875.

☞ The receipts of the Lynn (Mass.) Street Railway for the year ending September 30, 1877, were $14,082 53; expenses, including interest, $11,604 14; net earnings, $2,478 39; number of passengers carried, 253,039.

American Railroad Journal.

New York, Saturday, November 24, 1877.

Hamilton and Northwestern Railway.

The Government Engineer who was recently on a tour of inspection over the Hamilton and Northwestern Railway states the whole length of the railway now completed or under construction to be as follows: Port Dover to Jarvis, will be finished in 1877, 9 miles; Jarvis to Hamilton, completed in 1878, 33 miles; Hamilton to Georgetown, completed early in 1878, 35 miles; Georgetown to Barrie, will be finished in 1877, 60 miles; Clarksville to Glencairn, will be finished in 1877, 19 miles—making a total at the close of 1877 of 156 miles. The line is being completed in the most substantial manner, with steel rails, 56lbs., on the greater part of the line, and when the branch from Clarksville to Collingwood is completed it will connect the whole system with the Georgian Bay and the Northwest at Collingwood. The entire line has been well chosen, the gradients being comparatively light, and the curve of smallest radius is 1,432 feet, while the average radius of the curves is 3,200 feet.

Erie Railway.

The report of the Referee, passing on the accounts of the Receiver of the Erie Railway Company for September, 1877, was filed in the County Clerk's office on the 19th inst. From this it appears that the receipts during the month of September (including $411,407 34 on hand at the commencement of the month) were $2,369,120 82, of which $660,256 65 is from Receiver's certificates; and the disbursements were $2,405,756 24, of which $666,847 60 was in redemption of Receiver's certificates—leaving a balance on hand September 30, of $374,772 42. During the month there were paid $30,925 94 for coal lands, $216,087 50 for interest, and $100,000 in repayment of loans. The Receiver has issued certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $10,031,457 18, and has canceled $8,152,307 52, of them, leaving outstanding September 30, $1,879,149 66 of such certificates, a decrease during the month, as noted above, of $6,590 95.

The Four Per Cent Loan.

The Secretary of the Treasury has replied to the resolution of the House requesting him to furnish copies of the contracts made with the syndicate of American and foreign bankers for the funding of the four per cent bonds, together with copies of all other papers relative thereto, etc. The Secretary says that he met the contracting parties both in New York and Washington, and discussed at some length the feasibility of placing the four per cent bonds upon the market, and that on the 9th of June, 1877, perfected the arrangements for the purpose of executing said contract.

During the thirty days' which were set apart by mutual consent for the receipt of popular subscriptions, the amount of $6,078,250 was sold by the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer of the United States, and subscriptions to the amount of $69,423,300 were procured through the efforts of the contracting parties. The business of refunding proceeded satisfactorily, and arrangements had been perfected for the continuance of the sale of the four per cent bonds, and a call was about to be made, when fears of the effect of the proposed legislation by Congress, remonetising silver, arrested for the time the sale of these bonds and caused a temporary postponement.

Below is the statement of the present condition of the four per cent loan in force as originally made, without modification or change, namely:

|---|---|
| The subscriptions received for the four per cent bonds of 1907 up to November 19, 1877, were | $75,496,550 |
| The amount of the calls for the six per cent five-twenty bonds is | 50,000,000 |
| Leaving a balance on account of the Resumption act of | $25,496,550 |

Baltimore and Hanover Railroad.

The Hanover (Penn.) Spectator says that the friends of the Baltimore and Hanover Railroad are sanguine in the belief that the entire line will be completed and in operation by the middle of August next. The road will be put under contract shortly, and vigorously pushed forward during the winter. The route located thus far begins at Mr. Jesse Wenta's, below Summit Station, on the Bachman Valley Railroad, and runs thence to Maple Swamp, about one and a half mile beyond Hampstead. From this latter point there has been no decision yet made as to which of the proposed routes of intersection with the Western Maryland Railroad will be selected, but the matter is under advisement and will be decided very shortly.

☞ At a meeting of the Buckfield and Rumford Falls Railroad Company, held in Canton, Me., on the 14th inst., a board of directors was elected with Israel Washburn as President. Otis Mayford, of Canton, stated that a company formed in Portland had purchased a majority of the bonds of the old Portland and Oxford Central Railroad, and with aid from the town would be able to put the road in operation.

☞ The Central Vermont Railroad Company filed a bill on the 15th inst. in the original cause against the Vermont and Canada Railroad Company and the trustees of the first and second mortgages of the Vermont Central Railroad, praying to have the income in the Vermont Central and Vermont and Canada Railroads applied to the payment of the trust debt, and for the appointment of a receiver. This is under the recent Supreme Court decision that the present managers are not, in the law, receivers, but managing agents for the parties owning the property. Its object is to determine the disputed question of priorities of liens, and settle the status of the trust debt.

The South Shore Railroad Company (nearly all the stock of which has been for many years owned by the Old Colony Railroad Company) was, in April, 1877, consolidated with this corporation. In the above tables the business and interest accounts for 1877 of the South Shore Railroad are included in our accounts for 1877, as well as in all the subsequent figures of this report.

In order that an intelligent comparison can be made of the business of the two years, the following tables are given in which the business and interest accounts of the two companies for 1876 are compared with with the same accounts of the Consolidated Company for 1877:

|---|---|
| The gross receipts of the Consolidated Company were, for the year ending Sept. 30, 1877 | $2,208,032 09 |
| For the year ending Sept. 30, 1876, of the two companies | 2,297,696 48 |
| Decrease in receipts | $89,664 39 |
| The working expenses of the Consolidated Company for the year ending Sept. 30, 1877 | $1,360,871 29 |

| Decrease in working expenses | $71,319 74 |
| The amount by the Consolidated Company paid for interest was, for the year ending Sept. 30, 1877, | $346,373 97 |
| For the year ending Sept. 30, 1876, of the two companies | 342,033 33 |

| The net earnings of the Consolidated Company, after paying interest and taxes, were, for the year ending Sept. 30, 1877 | $407,485 37 |
| For the year ending Sept. 30, 1876, of the two companies | 415,801 25 |
| Decrease | $8,315 88 |

There has been an increase in the freight tonnage of 95,471 tons, and in receipts from freight of $75,454 87.

|---|---|
| Coal tonnage for 1877 | 156,313 |
| Coal tonnage for 1876 | 131,502 |
| Increase | 24,811 |

The decrease in the number of passengers carried was 144,966, and in receipts from the passenger business was $27,651 26.

Ten freight cars and ten gravel and coal cars have been added to the rolling stock, in addition to the equipment acquired by the consolidation of the South Shore Railroad, consisting of three locomotives, eleven passenger cars, eight freight cars and six coal and gravel cars.

Five locomotives, three passenger cars, two baggage cars, twenty two freight cars and nineteen gravel and coal cars have been rebuilt.

Four thousand and twelve tons of steel, 1260 tons of new iron rails and 102,485 new sleepers have been used in repairing and improving the track; 1217 tons of rail have been taken up, repaired and relaid.

A new brick depot has been built at Wollaston Heights, and a new wooden depot at North Harwich. The new station at Taunton has been completed, and the grounds around it graded and improved, and a large addition made to the freight house. A superior new iron draw bridge has been constructed in the bridge over Taunton Great River, at Somerset, and a new engine house has been built at the same point, in place of a smaller wooden structure destroyed by fire.

Nine thousand four hundred and eighty feet of new side track have been constructed.

The cost of all the above improvements (except about two thirds of the cost of the steel rails carried to an improvement account) has been paid for out of earnings. This cost is approximately as follows:

|---|---|
| New equipment | $5,950 |
| 9460 feet of side track | 8,776 |
| New buildings and draw bridge | 33,725 |
| 13337 tons steel rails over iron rails | 13,370 |

About one hundred miles of track are now laid with steel rails, some of which have been in use over nine years, and show but little signs of wear. There can be no question of a considerable saving in expense in the substitution of steel for iron, and therefore an improvement in the value of the property of the company from this change; still the directors deem it the wisest policy to charge the whole cost of this improvement ultimately to running expenses.

As was stated in the last annual report, contracts had then been made for a much larger quantity of steel rails than had ever before been laid in a single year, and during the last year 4012 tons of steel have been laid upon 46 miles of track at a cost of $211,000 or about $52 50 per ton. Of this amount $71,000 has been charged to repairs of road, and the balance has been carried to an improvement account, which it is proposed to extinguish in the next two or three years, by charging a proportionate part to the expense accounts.

The track has been greatly improved during the past year, and the equipment and property of the company was never in better condition.

As will appear from the foregoing statements, the past policy of the company in charging to operating expenses improvements made within the line of the road has been adhered to.

During the year land damage claims amounting to $20,257 07 have been paid, and a new wharf and freight house have been constructed in Boston, greatly increasing our freight facilities at this terminus, and a much needed third track across the Fort Point Channel, costing in the aggregate $25,-654. These amounts, together with the expense of extending the Hall safety signals, $3953 86, and the settlement of claims outstanding against the Middleborough and Taunton Railroad Company prior to consolidation, $9084 20, have been added to our construction account.

There are still a few small unsettled land claims which, when paid, may properly increase the cost of the property.

The addition of the cost of the South Shore Railroad to our construction accounts is simply a matter of book-keeping. It enables us to show more accurately the earnings of the property represented by our capital.

There has been in the past year a still further decrease in the earnings of the road from its passenger business, while there has been a considerable gain in the freight tonnage and freight receipts. The receipts from haulage and sale of gravel have almost ceased, but the net profit of this business was small. In 1876 we received about $48,500 for gravel furnished for filling Swett Street in Boston. In the past year we have had no gravel contracts of any considerable amount. The decrease in expenses, in part affected by the decreased mileage of passenger trains, has offset this loss, without allowing the property to depreciate, or materially diminish the facilities furnished the patrons of the road.

The expectations of the directors of an improvement in general business have not been fully realized. Many of the large manufacturing establishments on the line of the road, while they have continued their business on a limited scale, have affected our earnings but little. Still the general improvement in the local freight traffic is highly encouraging.

At the last annual meeting of the stockholders the directors were authorized to renew the loan of $1,450,000 of seven per cent bonds, maturing August 1, 1877. This has been done by the issue of the same amount of six per cent bonds, due

August 1, 1897. These were sold at a small premium. The change will hereafter decrease our interest payments.

Our notes payable are chiefly in the form of time notes held by corporations, and do not materially differ from our bonded debt; but, a portion coming due this year, it may be desirable to renew them. The company has no floating debt, in the ordinary meaning of the term.

The Union Freight Railroad, owned jointly by this company and the Boston and Providence Railroad Company, and operated by us, continues to do an increasing business, although its earnings, after deducting expenses and rental, are not yet enough to offset amounts expended for equipment and the expenses of wharf connections, which are necessary to secure an increase of business.

The business of the Fall River, Warren and Providence Railroad continues as heretofore. The new bridge at Fall River has proved a most excellent and durable structure in every respect.

The business with New York over the Steamboat Line during the early part of the year was quite large. For the past five months the establishment of new competing lines, both passenger and freight, has reduced rates, and, to some extent, increased the amount and diminished the profits of the business. The Old Colony Steamboat Company has paid its usual dividends of eight per cent, our proportion of which has been credited to interest account. This company has also, out of its past profits, reduced the valuation of its property by $300,000 during the current year.

We have, in the past year, settled and paid several large claims for personal injuries that occurred in previous years, in some of which we have suffered great injustice at the hands of juries.

The expenses of the accident at Randolph comes into this year's accounts, amounting to about $15,000 in injuries to property, and increased by the amounts paid to employes who were injured. In these cases wages have been continued and all expenses of sickness paid. The items in this report of damages paid, and repairs of equipment, are thus largely increased.

The equipment of the road is as follows: 50 passenger, 15 freight, and 7 switching locomotives; 158 passenger, 27 baggage, 335 long box, 10 short box, 343 long platform, 24 cattle, 72 stone, 13 short platform and 514 coal and gravel cars. Number of miles run by passenger trains, 916,894; by freight trains, 452,095; by gravel trains, etc., 24,001—total miles run one year to September 30, 1877, 1,392,990, an increase, compared with the year ending September 30, 1876, of 16,934. Number of passengers carried the past year, 4,005,501; do. carried one mile, 59,628,616. Tons of merchandise carried the past year, 715,-134; do. carried one mile, 21,887,713.

The Brown Lumber Co.'s Railroad.

The line being constructed by the Brown Lumber Co. from Whitefield, N. H., eastward into the great forests has now reached the Jefferson Meadows, a distance of 12 miles. Although built for the special purpose of transporting timber to the mills of the company at Whitefield, passenger trains will be run hereafter for the accommodation of summer travel. Cars will be run from Whitefield connecting with all the express passenger trains on the Montreal road. It is the intention of the company to extend the road through the Randolph forest to the town of Gorham, a distance of 25 miles, and there make connection with the Grand Trunk Railway. Aaron Ordway, M. D., of Lawrence, Mass., is President of the company.

Postal Railway Agents.

The Pittsburg Chronicle says that the Postal Railway Agents on railroads centering in Pittsburg are now undergoing examination by Mr. Charles W. Lyons, Special Examiner of the Postal Railway Service. Two agents a day are examined, and it takes about five hours for each. There are between 3,200 and 3,300 offices in the State, and Mr. Lyons has the apparatus for freely testing the proficiency of the route agents. The new men under Postmaster General Key are appointed for six months and are examined six times during that period. Their probationary efforts end at that time and their dismissal or retention in office depends upon the efficiency or inefficiency as set forth in the report of the special examiner.

I.—OF THE MAIN STEM.

The expenses of working and keeping the roads and machinery in repair amounted to $4,605,151 87, being 55.73 per cent upon the earnings, showing a decrease of .48 of 1 per cent compared with the previous year, and of 3.01 per cent compared with 1875. The following analytic statement is given in order to furnish particulars of expenses in comparison with the two preceding years:

MAIN STEM.

Statement of the earnings and working expenses for the fiscal years 1876 and 1877, including the Winchester and Potomac, Winchester and Strasburg, the Strasburg and Harrisonburg, the Washington County and the Metropolitan Branch Roads, and the Washington City and Point Lookout Railroad:

| Working expenses | 56.18 per ct. | 55.73 per ct. |

It it shown that the earnings of the Main Stem and the Branches stated, in comparison with the fiscal year 1876, have decreased $1,370,315 77, and the working expenses have decreased $806,483 66, making a comparative decrease in the net profits of $563,832 11.

The sinking fund, for the payment of the loan of the City of Baltimore, which was originally $5,000,000, increased during the year $109,542 90, making the payment in advance on account, and in reduction of that loan, which will mature in 1890, $1,958,421.

The payments on account of the sinking funds for the redemption of the sterling loans due in 1895, 1902 and 1910 during the year amounted to $417,500, which, at $4 84 per pound sterling, make £86,260 6s. 8d.

The principles upon which the sinking funds of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company are based will cause the entire indebtedness with which they are connected to be paid by the period of the maturity of the respective loans from the annual appropriations made for these funds, together with the interest accruing from their accumulations.

In accordance with the agreement with the City of Baltimore the second annual payment, namely, $40,000 of the principal of the bonds for one million, given for the purchase of the interest of the city in the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad Company, has been made, thus reducing this obligation to $920,000.

Of the mortgage loan payable in 1880, $120,500 have been anticipated, leaving $579,500 to be paid. $790,000 have been paid in anticipation of the loan redeemable in 1885, which was originally $2,500,000, leaving the remainder of this loan $1,710,000.

Of the bonds for $500,000 indorsed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company under the contract of July 18, 1864, of the Northwestern Virginia Railroad Company, due in 1885, $360,000 have been anticipated, reducing the sum unpaid to $140,000.

The profit and loss account shows an increase for the past year of $116,946 68. It will be seen by this account that the surplus fund, which represents invested capital derived from net earnings, and which is not represented by either stock or bonds, now amounts to $36,139,312 56.

Semi-annual dividends of five per cent upon the capital stock were paid on the first of November, 1876, and on the 15th of May, 1877, respectively.

It is shown by the report of the transportation department that the tonnage of through merchandise, east and west, has been 1,047,645, whilst in the preceding year it was 1,093,393 tons. For 1875 this traffic was 872,101 tons; for 1874, 752,256 tons; for 1873, 640,265 tons; for 1872, 557,609 tons, and for 1871, 485,207 tons. 641,702 barrels of flour and 16,379,861 bushels of grain were brought to Baltimore during the fiscal year. Of this aggregate of grain 2,500,600 bushels were wheat. The receipts of wheat for the preceding year by the Baltimore and Ohio were 620,300 bushels, showing an increase of 1,880,300 bushels. The receipts of corn for the fiscal year 1875 by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad were 5,591,638 bushels; for 1876, 15,948,107 bushels, and for 1877, 13 290,714 bushels, showing a decrease of 2,657,393 bushels, compared with the preceding year, and an increase of 7,699,081 bushels compared with 1875.

The traffic in live stock has been 111,920 tons, showing an increase of 13,268 tons over the preceding year.

58,720 tons of lumber have been brought to Baltimore, which shows a decrease, compared with the previous year, of 11,518 tons.

The quantity of petroleum transported to Baltimore during the year was 714,993 barrels, showing a continuous increase in this important trade.

The passenger earnings exhibit a decrease from $1,674,475 66 in the preceding year to $1,364,804 38. This reduction was caused chiefly by the decrease of travel compared with that connected with the Centennial Exhibition, combined with the continued depression in general business.

The coal trade of the Main Stem shows an aggregate of 1,440,265 tons, which includes 370,839 tons for the company's supply. Of this quantity that transported for the public, delivered in Baltimore, is 995,132 tons, and delivered at local points upon the line, 74,294 tons. During the fiscal year of 1877, 1,138,103 tons of coke and coal were transported on the Pittsburg division, and 293,403 tons of coal on the Trans-Ohio divisions. The aggregate of coal and coke thus transported, including all divisions, was 2,871,771 tons.

II.—OF THE WASHINGTON BRANCH.

It will be seen by statement E that the earnings were $307,109 55, showing a decrease compared with the previous year of $60,039 26, of $89,708 02 compared with 1875, and of $66,218 76 compared with 1874. The expenditures charged amount to $93,430 27, being for improvements and for repairs of railway, depots, water stations and bridges, and for pumping water.

During the year 470 tons of new rails and 80,978 cross ties were used.

The partial expenditures charged being deducted from the revenue stated, there remained the sum of $213,679 28, a decrease of net earnings, compared with the preceding year, of $48,135 48, of $15,842 82 compared with 1875, and of $33,609 67 compared with 1874.

III.—OF THE PARKERSBURG BRANCH RAILROAD COMPANY.

Statement G of the treasurer shows that the earnings of this road for the fiscal year were $625,678 58, and the working expenses $510,119 06, showing net $115,559 52. The earnings were $52,283 81 less than in the previous year, while the expenses decreased $182,337 45, showing a net increase compared with the previous year of $80,053 64.

One thousand two hundred and seventy four tons of steel and iron rails were used on this road during the year.

The aggregate earnings, working expenses, and net results of the Main Stem, including the Winchester and Potomac, Winchester and Strasburg, the Strasburg and Harrisonburg, the Washington County and Metropolitan Branch Roads, and the Washington City and Point Lookout Railroad; the Washington Branch and the Parkersburg Branch Railroads; of the Central Ohio, Lake Erie and Chicago Divisions; the Wheeling, Pittsburg and Baltimore, and the Newark, Somerset and Straitsville Railroads, and the Pittsburg Division for the fiscal year were, viz:

| | Earnings. | Expenses. | Net Earnings. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Main Stem, including the Winchester and Potomac, Winchester and Strasburg, Strasburg and Harrisonburg, the Washington County and Metropolitan Branch Roads, and the Washington City and Point Lookout Railroad | $8,262,045 29 | $4,605,151 87 | $3,656,893 42 |
| Washington Branch | 307,109 55 | 93,480 27 | 218,679 28 |
| Parkersburg Branch | 625,678 58 | 510,119 06 | 115,559 52 |
| Chicago Division | 957,695 60 | 834,415 21 | 123,280 39 |
| Central Ohio Division | 761,524 88 | 612,287 37 | 149,287 51 |
| Lake Erie Division | 698,065 14 | 448,508 69 | 249,556 45 |
| Wheeling, Pittsburg and Baltimore Railroad | 1,389,606 58 | 1,389,606 58 | |
| Newark, Somerset and Straitsville Railroad | 164,200 81 | 118 578 48 | 50,627 33 |
| Pittsburg Division | 42,933 65 | 42,845 92 | 87 73 |
| | $13,208,860 08 | $8,226,054 87 | $4,982,805 21 |

The net revenue of the Main Stem and branches, including the Central Ohio, Lake Erie and Chicago divisions, the Wheeling, Pittsburg and Baltimore, the Newark, Somerset and Straitsville railroads, and the Pittsburg Division, was $4,982,805 21.

The net earnings of the Parkersburg Branch Railroad Company and of the Chicago Division, and the excess over rentals of the net earnings of the Straitsville and Lake Erie divisions have been credited to the accounts for interest on advances made to those companies respectively.

It is shown that the net earnings of the Central Ohio Division were $149,287 51. Under the lease of the Central Ohio railroad thirty-five per cent. of the gross earnings are paid semi-annually to that company. The working expenses, in consequence of the extremely low rates forced upon this company by competing lines, were 80.39 per cent. The loss on this division for the year, under the agreement, was $117,246 20, which has been charged in the profit and loss accounts.

The aggregate working expenses of the Main Stem, with all branches and divisions, were 62 27 per cent. of the whole gross revenues, being 1.66 per cent. less than the preceding year.

During the year 267,108 new cross ties and 5,053 tons of steel and iron rails were used for repairs on the Main Stem. The iron rails used were made by the company at its rolling mill at Cumberland, of the best material, and are of superior quality. Six hundred and six miles of track are now laid with steel rails. The increased cost of the large quantity of steel thus used in substitution for iron rails has been charged to the repair account. The economy and advantage of the substitution of steel for iron rails so generally upon the line continue to be shown by the important reduction—which is mainly due to this change—stated by the road department in the cost of the "Repairs of Railways," of $135,878 98.

PITTSBURG AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

The advance realized in 1876 on the cost of the Turtle creek and second mortgage bonds of the Pittsburg and Connellsville Railroad Company, which had been purchased and were owned by the Baltimore and Ohio Company, is still withheld from the credit of the profit and loss account. It is deemed judicious to wait, before such entry, for the further development of the business of the Pittsburg and Connellsville road and until net results shall be shown to meet fully the interest on its entire mortgage debt.

|---|---|
| The earnings for the year ended September 30, 1877, were | $1,389,606 58 |
| The working expenses for the same period were | 965,778 00 |
| Being 69.50 per cent. | |
| And showing the net earnings for the year | $423,833 58 |

The increase in the ratio of working expenses has been 1.44 per cent. as compared with the preceding year.

The net earnings of this road under the continued depressed condition of business indicate that, whilst its traffic will be of much value to the Main Stem and to the city of Baltimore, at no distant day it will cease to require financial aid from this company.

BALTIMORE, PITTSBURG AND CHICAGO RAILWAY.

It was first designed that this road should be extended from the terminus of the Pittsburg and Connellsville railroad at Pittsburg to Chicago. The expensiveness of a portion of the route, combined with difficulties that were interposed as to the connection at and through Pittsburg caused this plan to be changed so that the Main Stem of the Baltimore and Ohio road was used to Benwood, and thence by the bridge over the Ohio river through Bellaire to Newark, on the Central Ohio division, thence by the Lake Erie division from Newark to Chicago Junction, 88 miles, and then an air line of 263 miles was built directly to Chicago. As the original name, therefore, did not properly represent the line finally adopted, it has been changed, under the laws of the respective States, and the companies are now known as the Baltimore and Ohio and Chicago Railroad Company, (Ohio and Indiana,) being a consolidated corporation under the laws of those States, and the Baltimore and Ohio and Chicago Railroad Company, (Illinois,) representing that portion of the line which is in the latter State.

To these lines the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company is a subscriber for 30,069 shares of stock. A mortgage has been executed on the entire line for £1,600,000, bearing six per cent. interest. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company issued its bond for £1,600,000 sterling, bearing five per cent interest, and placed the £1,600,000 and 28,900 shares of the stock stated with Messrs. Egisto P. Fabbri, William F. Burns and Robert Garrett, trustees, as security therefor. This loan has been negotiated with Messrs. J. S. Morgan & Co. of London, and the proceeds placed to the credit of the Baltimore and Ohio and Chicago Railroad Companies, on account of the cash advances made to those companies by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company for the construction of that line. The changes to conform with these transactions have been made in the table A, showing the assets and liabilities of the company.

The principal of these bonds has been made payable fifty years after their date, namely, on the first of June, 1927, and the sinking fund for their redemption has been provided by the agreement to appropriate on or before the 15th of May in each year the annual sum of £7,500 sterling, commencing on the 15th day of May, 1878.

This annual appropriation, together with the interest accruing from its accumulations, will pay the entire loan by the period of its maturity.

| The earnings of the Chicago Division for the fiscal year were | $957,695 60 |
| And the working expenses for the same period were | 834,415 21 |
| The surplus credited to the account of that company is | $123,280 39 |

THE MARIETTA AND CINCINNATI RAILROAD.

Notwithstanding the large and liberal aid extended and continued for many years by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad Company, its financial embarrassments have, during the past year, culminated in the necessity for the appointment of a receiver for the protection of all interests connected with that important work.

The Baltimore and Ohio Company furnished a large portion of the means in cash to build the Cincinnati and Baltimore railroad and the Baltimore Short Line road, as well as to supply additional cars and equipment generally, and to effect the great improvements that were made upon the line of the Marietta and Cincinnati railroad. It received for these advances the notes of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad, secured by stock of the Cincinnati and Baltimore, and stock and bonds of the Baltimore Short Line railways and such other securities as that company could furnish. It was expected that these securities could be sold, and these advances by the Baltimore and Ohio Company repaid from the proceeds of such sales. As it became evident that this could not be done except at great sacrifices on the part of the Marietta and Cincinnati Company, the Baltimore and Ohio Company in December last assented to a proposition of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad Company to purchase the following securities at the prices stated, namely:

$692,350 Cincinnati and Baltimore Railway Company's stock, at par and accrued interest.

$1,191,700 Baltimore Short Line Railway Company's stock, at par and accrued interest.

$750,000 of First Mortgage Bonds of Baltimore Short Line Railway Company, at par and accrued interest; and

$1,996,000 of Fourth Mortgage Bonds of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad Company at 75 per cent. and accrued interest.

It will be seen that the purchases were made at full and liberal rates.

The proceeds of these purchases were applied to the credit of the Marietta and Cincinnati Company in reducing the amount of its notes held by this company.

The line between the Parkersburg Branch and Cincinnati, connected by the bridge over the Ohio river, namely, the Baltimore Short Line, Marietta and Cincinnati, and Cincinnati and Baltimore roads, now forms a very effective route.

The continuously bad results which have followed the extremely low prices for the transportation of through freights have plainly led to the disastrous financial condition of the Marietta and Cincinnati road, as they have done to many important lines of railway throughout the country.

The tariffs have recently been advanced to rates which will make comparatively much better results. The experience of the past has so clearly demonstrated the necessity for the preservation of railway interests, and the interests of the public, of establishing reasonable rates, that it is hoped the good sense of railway managers generally will command such co-operation as to maintain permanently the tariffs at remunerative standards.

The successful management of the business of the companies requires the board to express their appreciation of the efficient services of the officers and employees in all departments who faithfully performed their duties.

By order of the board.

JOHN W. GARRETT,
President.
